Dear Mayor Lornie:

Please accept my apology for the delay in my response to your letter of April 20, 1999, regarding the missing women cases from the Downtown Eastside.

I am sorry to learn of the disappearance of your friend's daughter, Marnie Lee Frey.

As you may know, Mayor Philip Owen and I recently announced the details of the $100,000 reward related to the missing women from the Downtown Eastside. The Ministry of Attorney General is contributing 70 per cent of this reward posting, with the City of Vancouver contributing the remaining 30 per cent. Enclosed is the news release on this announcement for your information.

I am committed to working with others to help solve the missing women cases. I trust this assistance will go some way toward that end.
