These records are stored within an RCMP computer database known as E & R (Evidence and Reporting). While certain investigative steps undertaken by Project Evenhanded are referred to in the following paragraphs, this affidavit does not contain a summary of all investigative steps undertaken by Project Evenhanded in respect of each missing person complaint.

5. I am advised by Andrew Majawa, counsel for the Government of Canada, and do believe, that the purpose of these summaries is to assist the Commissioner in fulfilling his mandate under the terms of reference for the Missing Women Commission of Inquiry.

MARLENE ABIGOSIS:

6. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Trail RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Marlene Abigosis missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "A" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Marlene Abigosis missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Trail RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Trail RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

7. I am advised by a review of E-VERITAS document number ("Document") EV8759, page 2, and do believe that on April 18, 2002, Marlene Abigosis' sister, CI-PERS reported Marlene Abigosis as a missing person to the Trail RCMP Detachment. CI-PERS advised that Marlene Abigosis was last seen in 1984, and that Marlene Abigosis had been reported missing to the VPD in 1984. The Trail RCMP Detachment subsequently generated File #2002-1340.

8. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 2, and do believe that Constable Bob Isaacs, of the Trail RCMP Detachment General Investigation Section, was assigned as the investigator. Constable Isaacs conducted a Canadian Police Information Center ("CPIC") query on April 18, 2002, in an effort to locate information pertaining to Marlene Abigosis. That query produced no relevant results.

9. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 7, and do believe that on April 18, 2002, Constable Isaacs contacted the VPD's Missing Persons Section, by phone with respect to the 1984 missing person report for Marlene Abigosis. The name of the person with whom Constable Isaacs spoke was not recorded in file #2002-1340. During the course of this telephone conversation, Constable Isaacs learned that Marlene Abigosis had been checked by the Vancouver Police on March 27, 1984. The person with whom Constable Isaacs spoke further advised that the VPD missing person file for Marlene Abigosis was in archives, and that the file would be retrieved so that it could be reviewed by the VPD. The information arising from that review would then be communicated to Constable Isaacs.

10. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 7, and do believe that, shortly after speaking with the VPD regarding Marlene Abigosis, Constable Isaacs informed CI-PERS of the inquiries conducted in respect of Marlene Abigosis.

11. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 8, and do believe that on April 29, 2002, Constable Isaacs spoke with CI-PERS by phone and learned that she had not heard from the VPD in reference to Marlene Abigosis being checked in Vancouver on March 27, 1984.

12. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 8, and do believe that on April 29, 2002, Constable Isaacs spoke, by phone, with the VPD Missing Persons Section. The name of the person with whom Constable Isaacs spoke was not recorded in Trail RCMP File #2002-1340. During the course of this telephone conversation, Constable Isaacs learned that the March 27, 1984 file was a street check only, and that there was no information to indicate Marlene Abigosis had been reported missing in 1984.

13. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 9, and do believe that during the course of his April 29, 2002, telephone conversation with the VPD, Constable Isaacs was advised that the Selkirk RCMP Detachment, in Manitoba, had dealings with Marlene Abigosis in January 1991.

14. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 9, and do believe that on April 29, 2002, Constable Isaacs conducted Police Information Retrieval System ("PIRS") queries for Manitoba in respect of Marlene Abigosis. Those queries produced no relevant results. Constable Isaacs then contacted the Selkirk RCMP Detachment, by phone, in order to obtain information pertaining to the Selkirk Detachment's January 1991 contact with Marlene Abigosis. The name of the person with whom Constable Isaacs spoke was not recorded in Trail RCMP File #2002-1340. During the course of that telephone conversation, Constable Isaacs was advised that the detachment file had been either destroyed or sent to archives.

15. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 9, and do believe that on April 29, 2002, Constable Isaacs contacted the Selkirk Provincial Court Registry with respect to charges of impaired driving and refusal against Marlene Abigosis. Those charges were laid on January 9, 1991. Constable Isaacs was advised that the charges against Marlene Abigosis had been stayed, and that the Court Registry no longer had a record of the court file pertaining to the charges.

16. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 16, and do believe that on April 29, 2002, Constable Isaacs contacted the British Columbia Ministry of Human Resources to determine if that Ministry could provide information with respect to Marlene Abigosis' whereabouts. The Ministry of Human Resources forwarded Constable Isaacs' inquiry to similar ministries in Alberta, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Ontario. These inquiries produced no relevant results.

17. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, pages 9 and 10, and do believe that on April 30, 2002, Constable Isaacs contacted the Manitoba Prosecution Service in Selkirk, Manitoba to determine when charges were laid against Marlene Abigosis. Manitoba Crown Counsel advised Constable Isaacs that Marlene Abigosis' name had been queried, with negative results. Crown counsel advised that Marlene Abigosis' aliases would be queried, and subsequently advised that those queries had also produced negative results.

18. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 11, and do believe that on May 3, 2002, Constable Isaacs spoke with Cathy Love of the VPD Missing Persons Section. Cathy Love requested that Constable Isaacs forward to her attention a copy of the Trail RCMP Detachment's investigational file in respect of the Marlene Abigosis missing person complaint, along with a photograph of Marlene Abigosis.

19. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 4, and do believe that on May 3, 2002, Constable Isaacs sent a memorandum to Cathy Love, providing a brief history of the RCMP's investigation into Marlene Abigosis' disappearance, and noting that the complainant, CI-PERS, believed Marlene Abigosis would be a good candidate to be considered in the "Pig Farm Investigation". A copy of Trail RCMP File #2002-1340 and photographs were attached to the May 3, 2002 memorandum.

20. I am advised by a review of Document EV8759, page 3, and do believe that on May 22, 2002, the VPD generated a missing person report (File #02-112467) as a result of the information received from the Trail RCMP Detachment.

ANGELA ARSENAULT:

21. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Burnaby RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Angela Mary Arsenault missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "B" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Angela Mary Arsenault missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to, notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

22. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, pages 3 to 176, and do believe that on August 19, 1994, the Burnaby RCMP Detachment recorded Angela Arsenault as a missing person, and created File #94-47424. An investigation was conducted beginning August 19, 1994 through December 31, 1996 which entailed interviews of associates, news releases, missing persons posters, investigation and polygraph of complainant CI-PERS, investigation into reported sightings, CPIC checks, Crime Stoppers, and follow-up on tips received.

23. I am advised by a review of Document EV7653, page 65, and do believe that on January 9, 1997, Constable Greg Armstrong, of the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, acting on information received that Angela Mary Arsenault was seen at "J.R." (a restaurant) and was living with a relative, CI-PERS, in the London, Ontario area, requested that the London RCMP Detachment conduct inquiries.

24. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 177, and do believe that on January 13, 1997, Corporal R.D. Hoshoian, of the London RCMP Detachment, forwarded a facsimile to Constable Armstrong advising that an interview of the person thought to be Arsenault was conducted, and the person was identified as CI-PERS height, weight and tattoos did not match those as described for Angela Arsenault. Corporal Hoshoian advised that inquiries were conducted at the "J.R." restaurant; the staff were interviewed and shown a photograph of Arsenault. The staff did not recognize her photograph, nor did anyone have any knowledge of her.

25. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 179, and do believe that on February 11, 1997, Constable Armstrong and Constable Murray attended at the residence of complainant CI-PERS and conducted an interview. CI-PERS advised he was on extended medical leave from his employer. He had to attend his doctor on a regular basis to supply urine samples to detect drug abuse. CI-PERS advised he had not heard anything regarding Angela Arsenault, and had no new information to offer. CI-PERS showed investigators pictures of Angela Arsenault on his living room wall. CI-PERS appeared nervous, and advised that he thought there was a hidden agenda to investigators being there, saying his friends probably called the investigators and left false information indicating that he had killed Angela Arsenault. CI-PERS maintained his innocence in this investigation, advising that he had passed a polygraph test.

26. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, pages 180 to 182, and do believe that on August 11, 1997, Sergeant T.E. Payne, of the Princeton RCMP Detachment, wrote a memorandum to the Officer in Charge of the Burnaby RCMP Detachment. Sergeant Payne referred to a memorandum, sent on June 11, 1997, requesting that the Angela Arsenault file be reviewed and to be considered in relation a Princeton RCMP Detachment investigation regarding an unidentified infant homicide.

27. On August 21, 1997, Constable Mary Ann Rost wrote Constable R.B. Kinloch, of the Princeton RCMP Detachment, advising that Constable Armstrong had reviewed the investigation and concluded that Angela Arsenault was not pregnant and was not related in any way to the Princeton RCMP Detachment's unidentified infant homicide investigation.

28. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 184, and do believe that on September 6, 1997, Constable Armstrong asked CI-PERS what she thought the police could do to further their investigation. CI-PERS advised that the family believed that Burnaby Lake should be dredged as two or three psychics had seen water on her (Angela Arsenault) face and something in a lake. Constable Armstrong made notes on the file to the effect that the family of Angela Arsenault appeared convinced she was deceased and in the lake. Constable Armstrong further noted that the family believed the investigation should be turned over to the "special task force" of unsolved crimes and murders, and that Angela Arsenault's boyfriend, CI-PERS CI-PERS should be interviewed.

29. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 185, and do believe that on September 8, 1997, Constable Armstrong received a voice message from CI-PERS (last name unknown), from the Dartmouth, Nova Scotia office of the Missing Children's Society of North America. CI-PERS advised that the office had received information from CI-PERS ex-roommate

(not identified) to the effect that CI-PERS stated he had strangled Angela Arsenault during a fit of rage, and does not think the police will ever find out what really happened. Constable Armstrong made a notation on the file indicating that when, why, or where the body was dumped was unknown.

30. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 187, and do believe that on March 3, 1998, Constable Armstrong received a telephone call from CI-PERS an investigator with the Calgary Office of the Missing Children's Society, requesting that Constable Armstrong make arrangements with CI-PERS to be interviewed by CI-PERS as part of the Missing Children Society's investigation.

31. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 188, and do believe that on April 6, 1998, Constable Armstrong received a telephone call from CI-PERS (Angela Arsenault's grandmother) who lived in New Brunswick. CI-PERS advised that the local news cast mentioned that the Coquitlam RCMP Detachment have a male in custody who could be responsible for the disappearance / murder of a woman from the New Brunswick area. CI-PERS CI-PERS wanted to know if the Burnaby RCMP Detachment was aware of this individual, and requested that the Burnaby RCMP Detachment interview the male concerning Angela Arsenault's disappearance. Constable Armstrong contacted Sergeant Frank Mogridge, of the Burnaby RCMP Detachment General Investigation Section, requesting that Sergeant Mogridge obtain the name of the male in custody in Coquitlam for follow-up investigation.

32. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 189, and do believe that on April 21, 1998, Constable Armstrong attended the apartment of CI-PERS located in Burnaby, to interview CI-PERS CI-PERS CI-PERS stepmother, was interviewed by Constable Armstrong as CI-PERS was not at home.

33. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 190, and do believe that on May 6, 1998, Constable Armstrong returned a telephone call to CI-PERS. Arrangements were made for CI-PERS to attend the Burnaby RCMP Detachment to interview Constable Armstrong, the CI-PERS family, and complainant CI-PERS in relation to the Missing Children Society's investigation.

34. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, pages 191 to 192, and do believe that on May 12, 1998, Constable Armstrong was interviewed by CI-PERS and CI-PERS also an investigator with the Missing Children Society. CI-PERS discussed the information they learned during the course of their investigation with Constable Armstrong.

35. I am advised by a review of Document EV7653 page 67, and do believe that on May 26, 1998, Constable Armstrong received a facsimile from CI-PERS regarding Angela Arsenault. CI-PERS provided a letter and question sheet requesting they be presented (on behalf of the Missing Children Society) to CI-PERS by Constable Armstrong. The file does not indicate if the question sheet was presented or completed.

36. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 194, and do believe that on October 21, 1998 Constable Armstrong conducted an interview of CI-PERS CI-PERS was noted by Armstrong to be fully cooperative. CI-PERS advised that he still saw the complainant / suspect CI-PERS on a regular basis, and that they hung out and drank together. CI-PERS advised that CI-PERS was back at work, still using cocaine, and talking about Angela Arsenault, stating that he misses her. CI-PERS was working for Power Suction Asbestos removal. CI-PERS said he would be prepared to take a polygraph if it was required.

37. I am advised by a review of Document EV3735, page 200, and do believe that on December 1, 1998, Corporal Booth, of the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, wrote a memorandum to Detective Constable Lori Shenher, of the VPD, in answer to her request for copies of files relating to missing sex trade workers. Corporal Booth advised that a canvass of members of the Burnaby RCMP Detachment had surfaced Burnaby File #94-47424, relating to Angela Arsenault. Corporal Booth directed Detective Constable Shenher to contact Constable Armstrong, the file investigator, for further details.

38. I am advised by a review of Document EV10151, pages 1 to 3, and do believe that on August 24, 1999, Constable Armstrong received a report of a sighting of Angela Arsenault, in Courtenay, British Columbia, from Constable Pikola, of the Port McNeil RCMP Detachment. Constable Armstrong contacted the Port McNeil RCMP Detachment and learned that the information came from CI-PERS, who recognized Arsenault from a missing person's poster in the Port McNeil Hospital, where he was being treated by Dr. Jane Cleynd. Constable Armstrong contacted Dr. Cleynd at her medical clinic in Port McNeil. Dr. Cleynd advised that she thought CI-PERS was genuine in his information, and advised that CI-PERS agreed that this information should be passed on to the police. Dr. Cleynd advised that CI-PERS was a logger living in Comox, British Columbia, working for various companies at different locations, and was on the Provincial Methadone program. Dr. Cleynd advised she would contact CI-PERS and request he call Constable Armstrong. There is a note on file that CPIC and PIRS queries were completed on Day, although the file does not indicate whether CI-PERS did call the police.

39. I am advised by a review of Document EV10154, page 2, and do believe that on August 27, 1999, Constable Armstrong contacted Corporal Ian George, of the Courtenay RCMP Detachment Serious Crime Unit, to discuss the file. Corporal George requested a copy of information on the Angela Arsenault file, and advised that he would have a member make inquiries of escort services in Courtenay. On September 3, 1999, Constable Armstrong received a telephone call from Constable Carrigan, of the Courtenay RCMP Detachment Drug Section, advising that inquiries were conducted with escort services at Courtenay and nothing of interest had surfaced. Constable Armstrong advised Constable Carrigan of possible associate CI-PERS, and Carrigan advised that a woman named CI-PERS ran one of the escort agencies. Constable Carrigan advised he would look into it right away. On September 15, 1999, Constable Armstrong made a note on the file that he had not heard anything more from the Courtenay RCMP Detachment, and would assume that there was nothing of importance to report.

40. I am advised by a review of Document EV10154, page 4, and do believe that on September 15, 1999, Constable Armstrong spoke with VPD Detective Fell. Detective Fell advised that he had received a telephone call from CI-PERS Angela Arsenault's father.

CI-PERS had called as a result of having seen the America's Most Wanted television program, featuring a segment on Vancouver's missing prostitutes. Constable Armstrong briefed Detective Fell on the Arsenault file, and Fell advised Constable Armstrong that he would request that CI-PERS contact Constable Armstrong. Detective Fell further advised that he was attempting to add Angela Arsenault to the VPD's missing sex trade workers list.

41. I am advised by a review of Document EV10155, page 2, and do believe that on September 16, 1999, Constable Armstrong contacted CI-PERS, Angela Arsenault's mother. CI-PERS advised that she had spoken with Detective Fell and that according to Detective Fell, the VPD were adding Angela Arsenault to the missing sex trade workers list, and that this was televised on the "Americas Most Wanted" television program.

42. I am advised by a review of Document EV10165, pages 1 to 3, and do believe that on November 25, 1999, Constable Armstrong received a report, by facsimile, from Detective John Stokker of the Edmonton Police Service Missing Persons Unit, outlining information on Angela Arsenault received from CI-PERS was a tipster who stated that she knew Angela Arsenault in the period from March 1989 to May 1999. CI-PERS stated that she had not seen Angela Arsenault since May 1999.

43. I am advised by a review of Documents EV10159; EV10162, page 2; and EV10164 page 2, and do believe that on December 7, 1999, Constable Armstrong received tips of sightings of Angela Arsenault in Courtenay. On December 10, 1999, Constable Armstrong forwarded a request to the Courtenay RCMP Detachment to assist in locating CI-PERS who was believed to be Angela Arsenault. On December 11, 1999, Constable Dean Maxwell, of the Courtenay RCMP Detachment replied by email, advising Constable Armstrong that CI-PERS CI-PERS was not Angela Arsenault. This was verified by a voluntary check for tattoos, noting where there were none present or did not match.

44. I am advised by a review of Document EV7653, page 46, and do believe that on January 11, 2001, Constable A.A. Williams, of the Missing Women Task Force (MWTF), contacted family members of Angela Arsenault to discuss the missing person investigation.

45. I am advised by a review of Document EV7653, page 59, and do believe that on November 6, 2001, Constable Murray, of the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, seized blood samples from CI-PERS, as well as a hairbrush and dress, for DNA analysis.

46. I am advised by a review of Document EV3059, pages 14 and 33, and do believe that on January 9, 2002, Constable Williams placed a telephone call to CI-PERS, Angela Arsenault's grandfather, and interviewed him about the Arsenault family. As a result of the telephone interview, Constable Williams learned that CI-PERS was married to CI-PERS CI-PERS who was not Angela Arsenault's natural father. Angela Arsenault had lived with her grandparents until she was nine years old. Constable Williams placed a telephone call to CI-PERS, and learned that CI-PERS was the natural father of Angela Arsenault, and that CI-PERS knew very little of him other than he might have been in custody.

47. I am advised by a review of Document EV3059, page 14, and do believe that on January 21, 2002, Constable Williams contacted Brent Wladichuk, of the RCMP Crime Laboratory, to ascertain DNA requirements. Constable Williams learned that the Crime Laboratory did not have Angela Arsenault's DNA sample on file.

48. I am advised by a review of Document EV3779, page 3, and do believe that on January 31, 2002, Constable Williams placed a telephone call to CI-PERS, of the Missing Children Society, and arranged for him to bring Angela Arsenault's property to Vancouver on his next trip, as well as a copy of the Missing Children Society file.

YVONNE BOEN:

49. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Yvonne Marie Boen missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "C" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Yvonne Marie Boen missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

50. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 52, and do believe that on March 21, 2001 Constable Margo Halliday, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, attended the residence of Yvonne Boen and interviewed her common law (the common-law's name was not provided). The common-law advised that Yvonne Boen had no identification, a black purse, no bus pass, was a drug abuser, was into cocaine, and hung out at 135 and 108 Avenue Surrey, British Columbia. The common-law further advised that Yvonne Boen was last seen on March 17, 2001. 53. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 52, and do believe that on May 1, 2001, Constable Halliday contacted CI-PERS, Yvonne Boen's mother, after being advised that CI-PERS had called the Surrey RCMP Detachment in an upset state. Constable Halliday obtained a history for Yvonne Boen from CI-PERS and briefed CI-PERS on the investigation. Constable Halliday consulted with Corporal Kjemhus and Sergeant Wright, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, regarding issuance of a press release. A decision was made not to issue the press release right away as Yvonne Boen had gone missing numerous times in the past.

54. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 51, and do believe that on May 24, 2001, Constable Halliday spoke with Constable Roberts, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment Morality Unit. Constable Roberts advised that she had not head of Yvonne Boen. Constable Halliday prepared a CPIC message with details of m Yvonne Boen to be forwarded to Vernon, Kamloops, and Kelowna once a photograph of Yvonne Boen was obtained.

55. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 54, and do believe that on June 7, 2001, Surrey RCMP Detachment reader Verne Brown contacted Constable Halliday requesting that she review a New Westminster Police file concerning the recovery of a body from the Fraser River, in connection with Constable Halliday's ongoing missing persons investigation of Yvonne Boen. On June 9, 2001, Constable Halliday compared descriptions of Yvonne Boen's tattoos with that of tattoos located on the recovered body. Constable Halliday concluded that the recovered body was not Yvonne Boen.

56. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, pages 39 to 42, and do believe that on June 9, 2001 Constable Halliday conducted an interview of CI-PERS, a close friend of Yvonne Boen. Constable Halliday requested and received the address book from CI-PERS. Constable Halliday advised that she would follow up with associates listed in the address book, and would make inquiries to identify Yvonne Boen's dentist.

58. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 45, and do believe that on June 11, 2001, Constable Halliday received a message from Sergeant Wright, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment. Sergeant Wright had completed a review of the Yvonne Boen missing person investigative file, and provided direction to Constable Halliday to prepare a news release.

59. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 33, and do believe that on June 12, 2001, the Surrey RCMP Detachment issued a press release relating to Yvonne Boen. The news release read as follows:

> Public's assistance sought in locating a missing Surrey woman who has been missing since March 16, 2001. The investigation into the missing Surrey woman has proved negative to date. According to Yvonne Boen's common-law husband she has gone missing for a couple of days before but never anything like this. Yvonne Boen left her North Surrey home in March to go visit friends in the neighborhood. After visiting her friends for a couple of hours, she was supposed to go pick up her son in Kelowna. She never did pick up her son nor has she been heard from since. Yvonne Boen is a drug user and frequents the area of 135th St and 108th Ave in Surrey. She took her purse with her but has no identification on her. A tip was received of a possible sighting of Yvonne Boen on May 11, 2001 in the Guildford area of Surrey. Yvonne Boen is described as Caucasian 5'10" tall, 150 pounds with a blonde hair and blue eyes. A photo of Boen is available via email by contacting Corporal Janice Armstrong. Anyone with information about Yvonne Boen is to contact Constable Margo Halliday of the Surrey RCMP or Crime Stoppers.

60. I am advised by a review of Document EV8748, page 17, and do believe that on June 12, 2001, the Surrey RCMP Detachment entered a description of Yvonne Boen's tattoos onto CPIC.

61. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, pages 43 and 44, and do believe that on June 12, 2001, Constable Halliday conducted inquiries to locate dental records for Yvonne Boen, and conducted further inquires with CI-PERS. Constable Halliday interviewed CI-PERS CI-PERS, who had worked with Yvonne Boen at West Coast Amusements. CI-PERS advised that she had seen Yvonne Boen on May 10, 2001, around 1830 hours, in front of the Walmart located at the Guildford Mall in Surrey, British Columbia. CI-PERS also advised that her niece (not identified) had also seen Yvonne Boen outside the Walmart.

62. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, pages 23 and 31, and do believe that on June 14, 2001, Constable Halliday received several telephone calls with information regarding Yvonne Boen:

a) First caller, named CI-PERS (no further information provided), stated that he knew Yvonne Boen had worked for West Coast Amusements;

b) Second caller was an anonymous female who believed she saw Yvonne Boen on June 12, 2001 around 1100 hours on 101b (Avenue) behind the Old Yale Elementary School, in Surrey, British Columbia. The caller stated that Yvonne Boen had a cast on her right foot, and was beat up pretty bad. On June 15, 2001, Garth Wright, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, dispatched a file requesting that Surrey RCMP Detachment members conduct patrols in the area of 101b Avenue and Old Yale Road in Surrey, British Columbia, where Yvonne Boen was allegedly sighted;

c) The third caller, CI-PERS, stated that she might have seen Yvonne Boen in her trailer park on King George Highway, in Surrey, British Columbia. Constable Halliday spoke with CI-PERS and determined that CI-PERS description of the female did not match Yvonne Boen;

d) On June 14, 2001, Constable Halliday received a Crime Stoppers tip of a possible sighting of Yvonne Boen on May 11, 2001, at 135th Street and 108th Avenue, in Surrey, British Columbia.

63. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 24, and do believe that on June 20, 2001, Constable Halliday received an email from Constable Raju Mitra, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment. Constable Mitra stated that he had received information from CI-PERS (a secretary who resided in Surrey), advising that she had seen Yvonne Boen by a Dairy Queen in Surrey, British Columbia.

65. I am advised by a review of Document EV8749, page 29, and do believe that on August 29, 2001, Constable Halliday contacted CI-PERS and told her that she was looking for dental records for Yvonne. Constable Halliday asked CI-PERS which high school Yvonne Boen had attended, and was advised that Yvonne Boen had attended Melfort Secondary School, in Melfort, Saskatchewan.

66. I am advised by a review of Document EV8749, page 18, and do believe that on September 6, 2001, Constable Halliday sent a CPIC message to the Melfort RCMP Detachment, requesting attendance at Melfort Secondary School to determine if dental records were available for Yvonne Boen.

67. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 21, and do believe that on September 7, 2001, Constable Kent Lowe, of the Melfort RCMP Detachment, conducted inquiries at Melfort Secondary School, as well as with two dentists located in Melfort who had been practicing during the time period Yvonne Boen attended Melfort Secondary School. Neither dentist had records for Yvonne Boen. However, one of the dentists advised Constable Lowe of another dentist who had moved his practice to Winnipeg, and who apparently had kept records of patients locked up in storage somewhere in Melfort. Constable Lowe advised Constable Halliday of the above information, and was requested to pursue further.

68. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 17, and do believe that on September 18, 2001, Constable Lowe sent an email to Constable Halliday, advising that he had located dental records for Yvonne Boen for the years 1982 to 1985. Constable Lowe advised that he had photocopied and mailed the dental charts. Constable Halliday received the dental records on September 24, 2001.

I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 10, and do believe that on November 26, 2001, Constable Halliday telephoned an intake worker at welfare and requested to know whether Yvonne Boen was collecting welfare at other locations. Constable Halliday learned that Yvonne Boen had never collected welfare under her own name, but rather was always on someone else's welfare as a spouse or common-law. Yvonne Boen was not registered with welfare at that time.

72. I am advised by a review of Document EV8749, page 47, and do believe that on January 15, 2002, Constable Julie Moss, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, returned a phone call from CI-PERS identified as an associate of Yvonne Boen, and learned that Yvonne Boen frequented a drug house (address not provided) close to her home in Surrey, British Columbia.

73. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 72, and do believe that on January 16, 2002, Constable Halliday received the following telephone messages, likely due to Yvonne Boen's name having appeared in a newspaper (newspaper not identified) linking her to a murder investigation (investigation not identified):

a) First call was from CI-PERS, advising that Yvonne Boen's son (not named) stated he was positive he saw his mother on television when a crack house was being shown on the news (no details of date, time or station were provided);

CI-PERS advised that he had attended a crack shack in Surrey, British Columbia, after he PID CI-PERS said he owed money to the owner of the house, but did not have it. CI-PERS described being led into a back room of the crack shack, where he was shown a body wrapped in plastic. CI-PERS was threatened about owing money to the owner of the house. CI-PERS stated that the body was Yvonne Boen, and that he knew Boen as she used to work on the strip and was a friend of his girlfriend. CI-PERS was shown a photo line up to identify subjects in the crack house, and was able to identify the owner of house as POI12901.

75. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 72, and do believe that on January 19, 2002, Constable Halliday telephoned CI-PERS and conducted an interview concerning her message of January 16, 2002. 76. Constable Halliday spoke by telephone with an unidentified RCMP constable from Alberta, who advised that Boen's ex-husband (not identified) had called asking if Boen's body had been found, and advising that his son was worried because he thought he had seen his mother's body on television. Constable Halliday advised the constable that Boen's body had not been found.

77. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 72, and do believe that on January 20, 2002 Constable Halliday telephoned CI-PERS and learned that the telephone number was no longer in service. On January 21, 2002 Constable Halliday contacted CI-PERS and obtained a new telephone number for CI-PERS Constable Halliday spoke with CI-PERS who advised that she still had not heard from Yvonne Boen.

78. I am advised by a review of Document EV6360, page 72, and do believe that on January 20, 2002, Constable Halliday spoke to CI-PERS who stated that he drove the same route everyday to work at 4:30 to 5:00 am, and that he had seen Yvonne Boen numerous times over the past couple of years along the King George Highway, in the area of 104th to 108th Ave, in Surrey, British Columbia. CI-PERS also advised that he had observed Yvonne Boen hanging around 135a Street because he frequented a liquor store in that vicinity. CI-PERS stated that he felt he had seen Yvonne Boen shortly before Christmas around the liquor store.

79. I am advised by a review of Document EV8749, page 64, and do believe that on February 4, 2002, Constable Burrett interviewed STW17595 in the Surrey RCMP Detachment jail. STW17595 stated that she considered herself a friend of Yvonne Boen, and that at the time of her disappearance, Boen was dating an unidentified male who owned PID and drove a yellow truck. STW17595 advised that she had heard Boen owed POI12921 $40.00 for a drug debt. STW17595 advised that Boen allegedly went to POI12921's residence, where she was tortured in the basement and eventually shot and killed. STW17595 stated that POI12921 allegedly buried Boen in the backyard of POI12921's residence.

ANDREA BORHAVEN:

80. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Vernon RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Andrea Fay Borhaven missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "D" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Andrea Fay Borhaven missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Vernon RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Vernon RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to, notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

81. I am advised by a review of Document EV6398, page 3, and do believe that an RCMP PIRS inquiry advised that the last confirmed contact police had with Andrea Borhaven was her arrest in a stolen vehicle on March 10, 1997. The location of the arrest was not noted.

82. I am advised by a review of Document EV6398, page 1, and do believe that on December 14, 1998, CI-PERS Andrea Borhaven's mother, reported Andrea Borhaven as missing to the Vernon RCMP Detachment. Vernon RCMP File #1998-20654 was generated.

83. I am advised by a review of Document EV3758, page 32, and do believe that on January 4, 1999, an unidentified Vernon RCMP Detachment member reported speaking with social services, who advised that their last contact with Andrea Borhaven was in October 1996, and that they had closed their file in June 1997. The unidentified RCMP officer contacted the VPD, and was advised that Andrea Borhaven was very active during the period 1995-96, but there was nothing recent on her. On January 5, 1999, Andrea Borhaven was entered on CPIC as a missing person by the Vernon RCMP Detachment.

84. I am advised by a review of Document EV2841, page 2, and do believe that on January 8, 1999, Constable Roy, of the Vernon RCMP Detachment, collected a blood sample from CI-PERS CI-PERS at the request of the VPD.

Harrison, of the Vernon RCMP Detachment, wrote to the VPD Vice Unit, advising that due to recent coverage on British Columbia Television (BCTV), CI-PERS had reported Andrea Borhaven as missing to the Vernon RCMP Detachment. Inspector Harrison further advised that Andrea Borhaven had been living in the Lower Mainland for the last nine years as a street person working as a prostitute.

once the VPD entered Andrea Borhaven on CPIC as missing from Vancouver, the VPD would advise the Vernon RCMP Detachment accordingly, so that the RCMP's CPIC entry could be removed.

HEATHER CHINNOCK:

92. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Heather Gabrielle Chinnock missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "E" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Heather Gabrielle Chinnock missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

93. I am advised by a review of Document 6397, page 54, and do believe that on June 19, 2001, CI-PERS attended the Surrey RCMP Detachment and advised that he had had recent contact with Heather Chinnock's ex-boyfriend, POI2303. CI-PERS had contacted the Surrey RCMP Detachment several weeks prior to June 19, 2001, to report that his ex-fiancée, Heather Chinnock, was not calling him anymore. This report generated Surrey RCMP Detachment File #2001-45936. Constable Bernier learned from an unidentified neighbour at Heather Chinnock's last address that the neighbour had observed Heather Chinnock leaving in a cab with her clothing packed. Constable Bernier contacted the Ministry of Children and Families (M.C.F.) as CI-PERS had stated that Heather Chinnock had a two and one half year old son, and that POI2303 visited the son at the M.C.F. office on Wednesdays. The M.C.F. advised Constable Bernier that Heather Chinnock had not picked up her welfare cheques for either April or May, and that her account was closed. Constable Bernier noted that this information was unusual as Heather Chinnock lived off of income assistance. Constable Bernier contacted Constable Sansragret, of the Delta Police Department, as he was the last police officer to speak to Heather Chinnock, in March 2001. Constable Sansragret could not provide any further knowledge of the whereabouts of Heather Chinnock, and advised that Chinnock was usually drunk and on heroin, and had no fixed address. Constable Sansragret advised that he would distribute a BOLF in Delta, and would provide an update to Constable Bernier. 102. I am advised by a review of Document EV6397, pages 41 to 42, and do believe that on July 21, 2001 Sergeant Wright and Constable Bernier discussed recent Crime Stoppers information received in respect of the Heather Chinnock missing person file. Constable Bernier outlined investigative steps to be followed, including:

a) Make inquiries of POI12306 and other POI(s);

b) Confirm Ministry of Social Services and Housing ("MSSH") have alert on their computers so they will immediately notify RCMP if contact is made with Heather Chinnock in British Columbia or other provinces;

The POI stated that he knew nothing about Heather Chinnock's disappearance, and advised that he had not seen Heather Chinnock since April. Constable Bernier noted that the POI did not appear to be too concerned, and may have been influenced by narcotics at the time as the POI was a little flighty and aggressive.

106. I am advised by a review of Document EV6397, page 34, and do believe that on August 7, 2001, Constable Bernier discussed the significance of the Heather Chinnock missing person complaint with Corporal Pete Cross, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment General Investigation Section, and the importance of interviewing CI-PERS POI2302 and CI-PERS who had moved soon after Heather Chinnock went missing.

107. I am advised by a review of Document EV6397, pages 32 to 33, and do believe that on August 7, 2001, Corporal Dave Attew, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, sent out a BOLF to the Surrey RCMP Detachment. The BOLF read:

> Missing Person Heather Chinnock is a local prostitute who has been missing for several months. It is believed that foul play could be a factor in her disappearance. Could members canvass local girls and sources to see if any information is out there? She is known to hang around with POI's. Anyone with information please forward to Corporal Dave Attew, General Investigation Section.

108. I am advised by a review of Document EV6397, page 23, and do believe that on August 15, 2001, Corporal Cross sent a memorandum to Sergeants Ken Schenkel and Mel Trekofski, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, providing, in part, the following information:

a) Clearly there is a strong indication that Heather Chinnock's disappearance is the result of foul play;

b) There are avenues of investigation which should be pursued as soon as possible;

c) There are file names in the Heather Chinnock case which appeared on Project Enervate, including POI2306 and two other POIs, who are players in the prostitution and drug world of Whalley;

d) It is not believed that Heather Chinnock's disappearance relates in any direct evidentiary sense with ongoing investigation Project Enervate. It is possible evidence or information will be uncovered in relation to parties in the file and a tip has been opened relating to Heather Chinnock's file.

109. I am advised by a review of Document EV6397, page 22, and do believe that on August 22, 2001, Constable Bernier transferred the Heather Chinnock missing person investigation to the Surrey RCMP Detachment General Investigation Section.

POI2303 discussed an ex-boyfriend (POI2305), who had made threats in the past about killing Chinnock. POI2302 advised that Chinnock had been in the Royal Columbia Hospital in the last couple of years because of a car accident.

112. I am advised by a review of Document EV3060, page 12, and do believe that on October 10, 2001, VPD Detective Jarvis and RCMP Corporal Ted Van Overbeek RCMP, both of the Missing Women Task Force, attended the Surrey RCMP Detachment and reviewed the Heather Chinnock investigation with Corporal Attew. Detective Jarvis and Corporal Van Overbeek advised that they did not believe Chinnock belonged on the list of missing street workers from Vancouver's downtown eastside as preliminary investigation by Corporal Attew had not found ties to that area. Chinnock had been to the downtown eastside at times, but was well known as a street worker in the Whalley area of Surrey, British Columbia. Detective Jarvis and Corporal Van Overbeek advised that should there be more reason to believe Chinnock had stronger connections to the downtown eastside, and may be missing from the downtown eastside, the tip file would be reopened.

that he had spoken to CI-PERS in the last couple of weeks, and CI-PERS advised that he had not heard from Chinnock since she went missing. POI2302 did not have a phone number or address for CI-PERS but advised he often could be found drinking at the Windsor Hotel.

114. I am advised by a review of Document EV6397, pages 16 and 17, and do believe that on October 21, 2001, Constable Schumann, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, advised that he had spoken to STW7930, who was unaware of the current whereabouts of Heather Chinnock, or of any reason anyone would want to bring harm to Chinnock. Corporal Attew spoke with CI-PERS CI-PERS, who advised it was unlike Chinnock not to have contact with friends. CI-PERS stated that he felt that POI2305 was the only person who could have been responsible for Chinnock's disappearance. CI-PERS advised that Chinnock had testified against POI2305 in a homicide. CI-PERS further advised that POI2305 was serving eight years, but could have been released.

253. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 127, and do believe that on May 9, 1997, Constable Fawaz, Constable Watanabe, and Corporal Page, all of the Agassiz RCMP Detachment, entered Little's apartment and seized photographs and documents which would assists in locating friends and associates. Constable Fawaz entered several exhibits seized during the course of the investigation. Constable Fawaz contacted the MSSH and was that advised Little's file had been closed in July 1997.

254. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 115, and do believe that on May 12, 1997, initials "VGB" of the Agassiz RCMP Detachment noted that Kellie Little, Kelly Little, Kellie Rae Nielsen, Kate Munro, Cassie Lee were all alias names for Richard Little, and had been entered onto CPIC.

255. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, Page 113, and do believe that on May 29, 1997, Staff Sergeant John Veldman, of the Agassiz RCMP Detachment, conducted inquiries with the Agassiz Post Office and learned the Post Office had changed the lock on Little's post box. Staff Sergeant Veldman contacted the MSSH and confirmed that Little was flagged as a missing person. Staff Sergeant Veldman also called Kent Institution, requesting Little's dentist's name.

256. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 82, and do believe that on August 7, 1998, Constable Fawaz received a letter from Corrections Services Canada with x-rays and a report related to Little's teeth.

257. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 110, and do believe that on September 3, 1997, Constable Collins, of the Agassiz RCMP Detachment, contacted several of the persons identified as a result of the search of Little's apartment. Those persons were:

Staff Sergeant Veldman directed Constable Collins to prepare a warrant for Little's dental records.

259. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 106, and do believe that on September 19, 1997, Constable Collins contacted CI-PERS, of Corrections Canada Regional Headquarters, in Abbotsford, and learned that a warrant was not required but rather a letter requesting the records would suffice. CI-PERS would retrieve the information requested and sent it to the parole office in Chilliwack.

260. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 90, and do believe that on January 15, 1998, Constable Fawaz forwarded a letter to the Seattle Police Department Homicide Division regarding Little, as well as a letter to Corrections Canada requesting Little's dental records. In addition, a ViCLAS booklet was prepared and forwarded. On January 15, 1998, ViCLAS BC/Yukon Region advised the Agassiz RCMP Detachment that they had received the ViCLAS booklet and that it would be entered onto the National database.

261. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 86, and do believe that on August 4, 1998, Staff Sergeant Veldman reviewed a CPIC message from the Delta Police Department regarding a found body. A CPIC response was forwarded to the Delta Police Department to refer to the CPIC entry for Little.

262. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 86, and do believe that on August 6, 1998, Staff Sergeant Veldman reviewed the Little investigation and spoke with CI-PERS (sister of Richard Little). CI-PERS stated that she last saw her brother possibly in April 1997, when he lived above a laundromat in Agassiz. CI-PERS advised that none of her family members had heard from Little. CI-PERS was advised of the on-going missing persons investigation, and stated that she would update the family.

263. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 82, and do believe that on August 7, 1998, Staff Sergeant Veldman received Little's dental records from Corrections Services, and Little's CPIC entry was modified with dental information obtained from the records.

264. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 82, and do believe that on August 10, 1998, Staff Sergeant Veldman conducted inquiries with the MSSH and noted that Little's file was closed in July 1997.

265. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482 page 37 and do believe that on October 5, 1998, CI-PERS, Preventive Security Officer with the Correctional Service of Canada, wrote Constable Fawaz with reports relating to Little and advised that CI-PERS might be a person of interest and might know the whereabouts of Little.

266. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 75, and do believe that on September 10, 1999, Staff Sergeant Veldman received a telephone call from CI-PERS, who requested and received an update on her brother's missing person investigation.

269. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 71, and do believe that on November 26, 1999, CI-PERS sent a letter to Staff Sergeant Veldman which provided the blood type and several x-rays of Little.

270. I am advised by a review of Document EV7482, page 70, and do believe that on Feb 8, 2000, January 3, 2001, February 22, 2001, and January 29, 2002, Agassiz RCMP Detachment records indicate that the CPIC entry for Little had been validated on each date and was to remain on CPIC indefinitely.

JACQUELINE MURDOCK:

271. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Prince George RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Jacqueline Maria Murdock missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "K" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Jacqueline Maria Murdock missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Prince George RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Prince George RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

272. I am advised by a review of EV3761, page 132, and do believe that on August 14, 1997, CI-PERS reported Jacqueline Murdock missing to Constable Jeff Campbell, of the Prince George RCMP Detachment.

273. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 155, and do believe that on August 14, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell entered Jacqueline Murdock on CPIC as a missing person and placed her photograph on the Prince George RCMP pass on board for Prince George RCMP watch members to be aware of. Constable Campbell attempted to contact the complainant (not identified), but was unsuccessful.

274. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 154, and do believe that on September 3, 1997, CI-PERS (Jacqueline Murdock's sister) left a voicemail message for Constable Donald Campbell, of the Prince George RCMP Detachment. The message advised that her mother was living at a new address. On September 9, 1997, Constable Donald Campbell contacted Constable Jeff Campbell, and was advised by Constable Jeff Campbell he was investigating the Jacqueline Murdock missing person file. CI-PERS information was provided to Constable Jeff Campbell for follow-up.

275. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 153, and do believe that on September 7, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell attended the residence of CI-PERS (Jacqueline Murdock's mother), but failed to make contact. Subsequently, CI-PERS attended the Prince George RCMP Detachment and stated that Jacqueline Murdock's sister in-law was CI-PERS and that CI-PERS last saw Jacqueline Murdock in March 1997. At that time, Jacqueline Murdock was in Surrey and needed to get to a hospital, but did not give a reason why. CI-PERS also said that Jacqueline Murdock had an ex-boyfriend, who was identified as POI4929.

276. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 152, and do believe that on September 8, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell requested that CI-PERS forward dental records for Jacqueline Murdock to the Prince George RCMP Detachment, to the attention of Constable Jeff Campbell. Constable Jeff Campbell also noted additional investigative steps to be completed including, conducting PIRS checks for the Lower Mainland and to send a request to the VPD Vice Unit, which included a photograph of Jacqueline Murdock.

277. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 150, and do believe that on September 9, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell conducted PIRS checks in the Lower Mainland and for Vancouver, but both queries were negative for contact with Jacqueline Murdock. Constable Jeff Campbell provided a press release and photograph to Constable Gordon Molendyk, of the Prince George RCMP Detachment Media Liaison Section.

278. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 151, and do believe that on September 9, 1997, Supt. R. Hall, the Officer in Charge of the Prince George RCMP Detachment, wrote to the VPD requesting a search of VPD records for information pertaining to Jackie Murdock. Specifically, Supt. Hall requested that the VPD determine if any of its officers had had contact with Murdock in the past six months, and/or whether the VPD had an address for Murdock. Supt. Hall asked the VPD to request that the task force be on the look out for Murdock. Supt. Hall advised that a photo of Murdock would be forwarded to the VPD, and noted that Murdock had been added to CPIC as missing.

279. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 150, and do believe that on September 28, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell contacted Surrey Memorial Hospital and requested any record of attendance by Jacqueline Murdock. Constable Jeff Campbell noted that the inquiry was negative.

280. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, Page 150, and do believe that on October 1, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell contacted Vancouver General Hospital, and the University Hospital, University of British Columbia, requesting any records of attendance by Jacqueline Murdock, but the inquiries were negative. Constable Jeff Campbell contacted St Paul's Hospital and was advised that they had a listing for a Jackie Murdock. Constable Jeff Campbell requested a medical release form to be completed and returned as soon as possible.

281. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 149, and do believe that on October 8, 1997, Constable Jeff Campbell advised removal of Jacqueline Murdock from the CPIC system as Jacqueline Murdock had attended St Paul's Hospital in July 1997 for non-life threatening injuries. St Paul's Hospital had an address for Jacqueline Murdock, but would not release it without a medical release form. Constable Jeff Campbell attended CI-PERS residence and learned she had moved two months prior.

282. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 148, and do believe that on November 25, 1997, CI-PERS attended the front counter of the Prince George RCMP Detachment to report Jacqueline Murdock as a missing person. Constable Craig Andrichuk located the previous missing person file and advised CI-PERS that from the information contained in the file, Jacqueline Murdock was OK, but the police did not have a current address for her and suggested that CI-PERS contact Social Services and request they relay a message to Jacqueline Murdock when she picked up her next cheque.

283. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 143, and do believe that on March 11, 1998, Constable Jeff Campbell re-opened the Jacqueline Murdock missing person file and also re-entered her on CPIC as a missing person, which advised that her whereabouts were still unknown.

284. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 143, and do believe that on April 1, 1998, CI-PERS telephoned the Prince George RCMP Detachment and left message that her mother, CI-PERS had been called and advised that Jacqueline Murdock may have been located deceased in Vancouver. CI-PERS called the VPD with negative results, and advised that CI-PERS did not know who had telephoned her from the Tatla Band Office. J.J. Lloyd, of the Prince George RCMP Detachment, advised that he would contact Constable Jeff Campbell with the information on Friday April 3, 1998.

285. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 142, and do believe that on April 3, 1998, Constable Jeff Campbell contacted CI-PERS and briefed her on the status of the investigation. Constable Jeff Campbell stated that dental records had been requested, PIRS inquiries conducted, the VPD had been contacted and made aware of the investigation, and Child Find and the Ministry of Children and Families ("MCF") had been contacted. Constable Jeff Campbell noted the following avenues were still under investigation:

a) inquiries to be made with the British Columbia Coroner's Office, Department of Indian Affairs, Ministry of Human Resources, and British Columbia Care;

b) contact the Coroner's Office when dental records were obtained;

c) call 1-800-665-2289 to determine if Jacqueline had any bad dates registered;

d) contact MCF to obtain and flag her file (to be notified if she made a claim);

e) conduct PIRS queries in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

286. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 142, and do believe that on April 4, 1998, Constable Jeff Campbell sent a letter to Dr. Donald David, with the Department of Health Pacific Region, requesting dental records for Jacqueline Murdock. As well, a letter was sent to the VPD requesting assistance in locating Jacqueline Murdock.

287. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, pages 146-147, and do believe that on April 4, 1998, Sgt. D.B. Warren, the NCO in charge of the Prince George RCMP Detachment "B" Watch, faxed a letter to the VPD Chief of Police, requesting the VPD's assistance in locating Jacqueline Murdock. Sgt. Warren requested that the VPD make inquiries about Jacqueline Murdock, and advise Cst. Jeff Campbell.

288. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 138, and do believe that on July 9, 1998, Constable Jeff Campbell contacted Health Canada and learned that they did not have dental records for Jacqueline Murdock. Constable Jeff Campbell also contacted the Workers Compensation Branch but was advised they did not have dental records for Jacqueline Murdock.

289. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 138, and do believe that on July 16, 1998 Constable Jeff Campbell contacted Dr. Jennifer Rice, of the British Columbia Coroners Service, and inquired whether there were any unidentified bodies in the northern district of British Columbia, Campbell was advised that there were none.

290. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 136, and do believe that on July 17, 1998, Constable Jeff Campbell contacted Canada Customs and the United States Border Patrol, and was advised that since Jacqueline Murdock had been on CPIC for over a year, both agencies would have intercepted her if she had crossed the border. Constable Jeff Campbell was also advised that if he sent a photograph, it would be placed at the different points of entry.

291. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, pages 197-198, and do believe that on September 8, 1998, Det. Cst. Shenher sent a CPIC message to the watch commander of the Prince George RCMP Detachment, advising that she was investigating the disappearance of a large number of prostitutes in the Downtown Eastside, that she believed that Jackie Marie Murdock may be part of this group, and that Murdock was last seen in Vancouver. Det. Cst. Shenher requested that the Prince George RCMP Detachment sent her a photocopy of their missing person file for Murdock.

292. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 135, and do believe that on September 10, 1998, Staff Sergeant J.J.F. Dorey, of the Prince George RCMP Detachment, wrote a letter to Detective Constable Shenher to which a copy of the Jacqueline Murdock missing person file was attached. Also included was Workers Compensation Branch documentation related to Murdock. Staff Sergeant Dorey further advised that he would attempt to obtain statements from the last persons to speak with Jacqueline Murdock.

293. I am advised by a review of EV3761, page 121, and do believe that on October 30, 1998, a missing persons report for Jacqueline Murdock was prepared by the VPD. The report noted that Jacqueline Murdock had been reported missing to the Prince George RCMP Detachment on August 14, 1997, and that the VPD took over the file on October 30, 1998.

294. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 194, and do believe that on November 5, 1998, Sandra Cameron, of the VPD Missing Persons Unit, sent a CPIC message to the Prince George RCMP Detachment, advising that the VPD had taken over the file, and had added Jacqueline Murdock to their list of drug addicts/prostitutes missing from Vancouver, and that the Prince George RCMP Detachment could remove their CPIC entry for Jacqueline Murdock.

295. I am advised by a review of Document EV3761, page 130, and do believe that on November 30, 1998, Constable Jeff Campbell sent a facsimile message to Detective Constable Shenher which included Prince George RCMP File #97-17557, the missing person file for Jacqueline Murdock, as reported by CI-PERS Also included were a subject profile sheet and a photograph.

CECELIA NIKAL:

297. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Smithers RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Cecilia May Nikal missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "L" is a true copy of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records for the Cecilia May Nikal missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Smithers RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Smithers RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

298. I am advised by a review of Document EV8899, pages 13 to 15 and do believe that on June 4, 1990, Staff Sergeant R.A. Baker, of the Smithers RCMP Detachment, forwarded a memo to Sandra Cameron enclosing a copy of Smithers RCMP File #90-1451 concerning missing person Cecilia May Nikal, who was reported missing on April 2, 1990. Staff Sergeant Baker provided, in part, the following information:

a) Nikal was believed to be initially reported missing to the VPD, but VPD CPIC advised that was not the case;

b) investigation conducted in Smithers was not able to confirm where Nikal had actually gone missing from, but unconfirmed rumors suggested she was in Fort St. John, Edmonton or Prince George;

c) the last information that the Smithers RCMP Detachment had regarding Nikal's location was that she was at her mother's residence (CI-PERS CI-PERS) in Vancouver. It was noted that a member (not identified) had spoken with CI-PERS who stated that her last contact with Cecilia Nikal was in the middle of October 1989. CI-PERS stated that Cecilia Nikal had been residing with her for approximately one and a half months. Cecilia Nikal reportedly spent most of her time on the streets, and one night she did not return home. Apparently all of her clothing, except maybe one or two changes of clothing, remained at CI-PERS residence. Cecilia Nikal's father (not identified) and numerous other relatives were still residing in the Smithers area, but none had heard of Cecilia Nikal since 1989. Further discussion with Cecilia Nikal's friends provided the following rumors:

i. CI-PERS was interviewed on April 5, 1990, and advised that she had not seen or spoke with Nikal for approximately nine months. The last she heard was that Nikal was working as a prostitute in Vancouver with other known prostitutes;

ii. STW (not identified with a number) was interviewed on May 11, 1990, and advised that she had not seen Nikal since last year. She had heard that Nikal was "shacked up" with some guy in Fort St John, British Columbia, and had heard that information a few months prior from an unknown person;

iii. STW (not identified with a number) was not located, but there was a warrant from Smithers for her. STW was reportedly still residing in the Vancouver area. The VPD were looking for STW as a possible witness to VPD File #90-26965 (details of file not disclosed). It was very probable that STW would have more definite information on the whereabouts and activities of Cecilia Nikal.

d) inquiries with Canada Employment indicated no record of Nikal receiving any income assistance throughout the Province of British Columbia. PIRS queries in all provinces failed to disclose any listings for Nikal. The family in Smithers had been directed to contact the Smithers RCMP Detachment immediately should they receive any new information on Nikal's whereabouts. Staff Sergeant Baker advised that as it appeared that the last place Cecilia Nikal was actually seen was the Vancouver area, the entire file was being turned over to the VPD. A request was made to advise when the VPD had received the file, so that Nikal could be removed from CPIC as missing.

299. I am advised by a review of Document EV8899, page 12, and do believe that on June 4, 1990, Staff Sergeant Baker wrote CI-PERS (association unknown) of Smithers, British Columbia and advised that the Nikal missing person investigative file had been forwarded to Missing Person Section VPD and that the VPD would be handling the investigation from their point as it appeared to be the last location where Nikal was seen.

300. I am advised by a review of Document EV8899, page 16, and do believe that on June 15, 1990, Staff Sergeant Baker wrote Sandra Cameron and provided her with photographs of Nikal as she had requested from Constable Sokolowski of Smithers RCMP Detachment. Staff Sergeant Baker also advised that Cecilia Nikal's dental charts were available from Dr. N. Klassen. Nikal had x-rays taken and those would also be available.

GEORGINA PAPIN:

301. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Mission RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Georgina Faith Papin missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "M" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Georgina Faith Papin missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Mission RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Mission RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

302. I am advised by a review of Document EV3074, page 2, and do believe that on January 21, 2001, Constable R.A. Olsen, of the Merritt RCMP Detachment, sent a message to Constable Nancy Joyce, of the Mission RCMP Detachment, advising that posters of Georgina Papin were photocopied and distributed to five reserves and displayed in their offices. The Band administration staff did not recognize Georgina Papin nor did they recognize her name. It is likely that the January 21, 2001 date is incorrect, given that Georgina Papin was not reported missing until March 11, 2001. A more probable date is sometime after November 27, 2001.

303. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, pages 7-12, and do believe that on March 11, 2001, Constable Joyce was contacted by CI-PERS (identified on page 12 of Document EV3745 as Georgina Papin's sister-in-law), who stated that she last saw Georgina Papin on March 2, 1999, when she dropped off Georgina at the Friendship Centre on East Hastings, in Vancouver. CI-PERS told Georgina Papin she could not stay with her because Georgina was using heroin. Mission RCMP File #2001-2788 was generated, and a notation was made on the continuation report that the information was for "pass on" to VPD missing persons. On March 14, 2001, Georgina Papin was reported missing to the VPD, and her name was entered on CPIC as a missing person. On March 15, 2001, the CPIC missing person entry was changed to "ASSREQ" (Assistance Requested). CI-PERS is listed on the March 14, 2001 VPD missing person report as the "person reporting absence." On March 15, 2001, an entry was made in the VPD missing person report log to the effect that Constable Joyce had provided information to the VPD with respect to the Georgina Papin missing person complaint, and that the VPD would assist.

304. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 138, and do believe that on March 15, 2001, CI-PERS provided information to Constable Joyce with respect to Georgina Papin's children, brother, and ex-husband. CI-PERS also advised that Georgina Papin had not picked up her check from her reserve in Alberta, and further advised that Georgina Papin frequented friendship centres and bars.

305. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 137, and do believe that on April 5, 2001, Constable Joyce telephoned CI-PERS (unknown relation to Georgina Papin) at the PID and learned she had not heard from Georgina Papin in over two years, and that Georgina used to contact her once a month. CI-PERS believed that the last time Georgina Papin called her was December two years prior, from somewhere in British Columbia. Constable Joyce telephoned Mission Social Services and learned the last contact with Georgina Papin in Mission was on May 28, 1998. Georgina Papin was reported to be in Regina, Saskatchewan in June 1998.

306. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 104, and do believe that on May 8, 2001, Cheryl Leggett, of the VPD, sent a message to Constable Joyce advising that the Georgina Papin file was to be entered on SIUSS (a Vancouver database), and advising that the VPD had one entry for Georgina Papin relating to File #98-188890 (a possession of stolen property charge). Cheryl Leggett suggested making a poster and talking to anyone who may have seen Georgina Papin.

307. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 135, and do believe that on May 14, 2001, Constable Joyce interviewed Georgina Papin's previous common-law spouse, identified as PIO4055. POI4055 stated that he had not seen Papin since she tried to kill him. Constable Joyce noted that a PIRS entry indicated the date to be December 28, 1998. POI4055 also stated that Papin was possibly killed over drug debts owed in Vancouver.

308. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 97, and do believe that on May 15, 2001, Constable Joyce contacted Regina Social Services and learned that Georgina Papin was listed with another common-law spouse, identified as CI-PERS, and that she had a child with him. Papin's last contact with Saskatchewan Social Services was in 1988.

309. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 97, and do believe that on May 18, 2001, Corporal Bob Lamothe, of Interpol Ottawa, sent a facsimile to Constable Joyce, advising that Georgina Papin missing person inquiries of all states of the United States, and drivers license checks with aliases, were conducted and the results were attached. It does not appear that the queries resulted in an viable avenue of investigation.

310. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 103, and do believe that on May 18, 2001, Constable Joyce emailed Sylvia Port, of the RCMP ViCLAS Unit, requesting information regarding any unidentified found human remains which might belong to Georgina Papin. Port replied in the negative.

311. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 112, and do believe that on May 18, 2001, Sergeant Bob Bechard, of RCMP CPIC User Services in Ottawa, sent a facsimile to Constable Joyce with the results of a CPIC Off-Line query for Georgina Papin and her aliases.

312. I am advised by a review of Document EV3789, page 90, and do believe that on May 23, 2001, Constable Joyce sent a message to Constable Marshall, of Regina Police Services, inquiring into the circumstances of a CPIC query of Georgina Papin conducted by him on Feb 7, 2001.

313. I am advised by a review of Document EV3789, page 89, and do believe that on May 31, 2001, Constable Joyce sent a message to Constable Dennis Cardinal, of the Stony Plain RCMP Detachment, requesting the circumstances surrounding a query of Georgina Papin on February 26, 2001. On June 2, 2001, Constable Cardinal replied to Constable Joyce and advised that inquiries were made on Feb 26, 2001 as a result of relatives of Georgina Papin expressing concern and requesting his assistance in attempting to locate her, as they had not heard from her for two years. Constable Cardinal advised that Georgina Papin was not entered on CPIC as missing as she left their area in good health.

314. I am advised by a review of Document EV3074, page 9, and do believe that on July 1, 2001, Constable Joyce received a telephone call from CI-PERS, who advised that he had seen Georgina Papin in Merritt in July 2001.

315. I am advised by a review of Document EV3789, page 95, and do believe that on July 27, 2001, Constable Joyce was advised by Cheryl Leggett that she had distributed about one hundred posters for Georgina Papin. Cheryl Leggett further advised that one of the street workers said Georgina Papin was probably back in Edmonton, where she had family.

316. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 88, and do believe that on August 2, 2001, Constable Joyce sent a message to the Abbotsford Police Department, requesting information concerning their CPIC query of Georgina Papin in March 2001, which had surfaced as result of the CPIC Off-Line search.

Constable Joyce contacted Money Mart and learned that the last time Georgina Papin had used Money Mart was August 8, 1998.

318. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 96, and do believe that on August 5, 2001, Constable Rick Stewart, of the Abbotsford Police Department Street Crime Unit, sent an email to Constable Joyce, identifying himself as person who had queried Georgina Papin. Constable Stewart advised that he was unable to associate the query to his notes, and advised it may have been an FPS number entered incorrectly.

319. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 3, and do believe that on August 13, 2001, Corporal Marg Kingsbury, of Project Evenhanded, sent a message to Constable Joyce, requesting that inquiries be conducted with CI-PERS who may have had contact with Georgina Papin in the spring of 2001. Constable Joyce advised Corporal Kingsbury that ex-boyfriend CI-PERS may have been dating Georgina Papin at the time of her disappearance. Corporal Kingsbury requested that Constable Joyce obtain familial DNA or Georgina Papin's DNA, if located. On August 14, 2001, Constable Joyce forwarded a message to Corporal Kingsbury which advised that when she initially began her investigation, she had obtained the DNA of a sister (not identified) of Georgina Papin and would attempt to obtain Georgina Papin's DNA. Constable Joyce also advised that she would attempt to interview CI-PERS after speaking with CI-PERS. Constable Joyce noted that a warrant would be completed for all medical records, reports, and x-rays on file. Constable Joyce also noted that the British Columbia Cancer Agency advised that Georgina Papin's husband was listed as POI1491. Constable Joyce spoke with CI-PERS and learned that Georgina Papin's dentist was Dr. Irons, and her doctor was Dr. Shoichet. Constable Joyce noted that Dr. Shoichet had advised her that Georgina Papin was last seen at Mission Memorial Hospital, in December 1998, by Dr. Edelson. This was a discharge summary for a police incident (no details provided). Constable Joyce contacted the British Columbia Cancer Agency and learned that PAP smear slides of Georgina Papin were available. Constable Joyce contacted the medical services branch of Indian and Northern Affairs and left a message inquiring about Georgina Papin's dentist. Constable Joyce spoke with CI-PERS (last name unknown) of Mission Memorial Hospital, advising that warrant would not be issued by a Justice of the Peace as no crime had been committed, but that she was checking further. CI-PERS advised that the medical records could not be released without permission from Georgina Papin, but the records have not been destroyed and would be available for comparison to found human remains, if required.

326. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 38, and do believe that on September 5, 2001, CI-PERS of First Nations and Inuit Health, sent a facsimile to Constable Joyce, advising that Georgina Papin's last dentist was Dr. W.N. Tyler, of British Columbia. On September 12, 2001, Constable Joyce contacted Dr. Tyler, who advised that the records for Georgina Papin would be made available for pickup.

CI-PERS CI-PERS advised that he would provide a statement of his last contact with Georgina Papin, and identified another brother, CI-PERS, presently in Elbow Lake Institution, and Georgina's daughter, CI-PERS (last name unknown) who resided in Nevada.

330. I am advised by a review of EV3074, pages 68-69, and do believe that on October 17, 2001, Cst. Williams telephoned CI-PERS cell phone number, but CI-PERS line was busy. Cst. Williams then telephoned CI-PERS, who advised that the cell phone number Cst. Williams had for CI-PERS was correct. CI-PERS advised Cst. Williams that CI-PERS CI-PERS had regular contact with her family, and that CI-PERS had last seen CI-PERS one week prior to the October 17, 2011 telephone conversation between CI-PERS.

331. I am advised by a review of Document EV3745, page 79, and do believe that on October 21, 2001, Constable Williams emailed Constable Joyce, advising that Project Evenhanded would be taking over the Papin investigation, and requested Constable Joyce's assistance where possible.

334. I am advised by a review of Document EV3074, pages 62-63, and do believe that on October 31, 2001, Constable Williams completed a missing person profile of Georgina Papin for Project Evenhanded, and spoke with CI-PERS by telephone. CI-PERS provided Cst. Williams with contact information for CI-PERS and CI-PERS, and was advised by Cst. Williams that there was no new information relating to the disappearance of Georgina Papin. In the missing person profile, Constable Williams made a notation to the effect that on March 14, 2001, Georgina Papin had been reported missing to the Mission RCMP Detachment by her sister, CI-PERS.

335. I am advised by a review of Document EV3074, page 64, and do believe that on November 13, 2001, Constable Williams noted that she telephoned CI-PERS and CI-PERS CI-PERS, and discussed the last time Georgina had been seen. CI-PERS stated that he believed the last time that any family had seen Georgina was three years prior.

CI-PERS advised he had a dream of Georgina Papin that date and that she was banged up and she had come to say goodbye. CI-PERS advised that he last saw Georgina Papin at the Balmoral, in Vancouver, in 1999 or 2000, that she was wearing a black dress, high-heeled shoes, hair curly, bit wavy, about shoulder length, and he was pretty sure it was during the summer. CI-PERS stated Papin's drug of choice was heroin and some cocaine. Papin was living with POI4055, and working near the Dairy Queen on East Hastings. During the interview, CI-PERS repeatedly talked about his dream of seeing Georgina Papin.

TANIA PETERSEN:

340. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Surrey RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Tania Petersen missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "N" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Tania Petersen missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Surrey RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

341. I am advised by a review of Document 8898, page 3, and do believe that on July 4, 2003 CI-PERS attended the Surrey RCMP Detachment to report her sister, Tania Petersen, missing, stating that she had not been heard from Tania since 1997.

SHERRY RAIL:

342. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Hinton RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Sherry Lynn Rail missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "O" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Sherry Lynn Rail missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Hinton RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Hinton RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

343. I am advised by a review of Document EV3736, pages 10 to 14, and do believe the following information is contained in VPD File #86-96028:

a) on January 30, 1984 (first name not given) CI-PERS (Sherry Rail's mother) reported her daughter missing to Corporal Chykalsky, of the Hinton RCMP Detachment (File #84-394);

b) Corporal Chykalsky contacted the VPD (no date provided), but there was a breakdown in communications and Sherry Rail was not entered on CPIC until March 28, 1984 for "observation regarding family enquiry", with a note that the Major Crime Section was to be notified. There was also a CPIC entry for Sherry Rail for a Warrant of Committal regarding a 1983 disturbance charge;

c) on March 6, 1986, Fitzgerald contacted Staff Sergeant W.C. Morley, of the Hinton RCMP Detachment, and was advised that CI-PERS still had not heard from Sherry Rail or from the VPD since a letter of May 8, 1984. Staff

Sergeant Morley advised that he checked CPIC and found that the only entry for Sherry Rail was a Warrant of Committal. Staff Sergeant Morley noted was that the observations category was likely purged after one year of entry (which was later confirmed);

d) on March 26, 1986, the Hinton RCMP Detachment entered Sherry Rail on CPIC for observation missing, and added her dental records, received from Dr. Kersey. Staff Sergeant Morley forwarded a copy of the Sherry Rail file to Corporal Fred Maille, of the RCMP "E" Division Serious Crime Section in Vancouver, British Columbia, for inquiries;

e) Staff Sergeant Morley advised that since March 6, 1986, the RCMP had checked Alberta, British Columbia, and federal connections, with negative results. As well, a CPIC Off-Line search for female dental records were negative, inquiries with British Columbia Department of Human Resources were made (no results given), and Sherry Rail's dental records had been obtained.

f) on October 9, 1986, Corporal Maille interviewed CI-PERS (Sherry Rail's landlord). CI-PERS had known Sherry Rail since 1980, and saw her on occasion. CI-PERS stated that she lived in the basement of his home for one month in the spring of 1983. Two weeks before Sherry Rail left, she told him she had met a middle-aged wealthy American, and was going to San Francisco or Los Angeles with him. CI-PERS stated that Sherry Rail left her old clothes and belongings behind, and he subsequently sent them to Fitzgerald in February 1984;

g) on October 9, 1986, Sherry Rail's dental charts were forwarded to the Green River Task Force, in King County, Washington. As well, contact with the Motor Vehicle Branch revealed that Sherry Rail's driver's licence had expired on September 8, 1982. CI-PERS Sherry's sister, was interviewed (no details given);

h) on January 8, 1987, Detective Weddell, of the VPD, and Corporal Watson, of the RCMP "E" Division Serious Crime Section (who had taken over the Sherry Rail investigation from Corporal Maille), discussed the file. Watson advised that the RCMP had not uncovered any leads, but were not happy with CI-PERS attitude. Detective Weddell noted that Corporal Watson turned over a copy of the RCMP file regarding Rail, which in turn was filed with the VPD

i) Detective Weddell contacted Staff Sergeant Morley, and advised him that the VPD had taken a missing person report on Sherry Rail, and had requested that the Hinton RCMP Detachment remove Rail from CPIC so that she could be re-entered by the VPD. Sherry Rail was entered on CPIC, by the VPD, on January 8, 1987, and her dental records were entered on January 9, 1987.

344. I am advised by a review of Document EV2818, page 2, and do believe that on November 29, 2001, Corporal Van Overbeek reviewed the VPD missing person file for Sherry Rail.

345. I am advised by a review of Document EV2818, page 4, and do believe that on December 19, 2001, Constable Zaporozan advised that she had called CI-PERS, who describes herself as a friend of Sherry Rail, and interviewed her in relation to knowledge of Sherry Rail. CI-PERS stated that she was concerned with the identification of Ridgeway (Green River Killer) and that he began coming to Canada in 1984, which would be about the time Sherry Rail went missing. CI-PERS made reference to a letter she received from Sherry Rail, dated November 14, 1983, where Rail made reference to going to Vernon to retrieve her winter clothing. CI-PERS advised that Rail always hitchhiked and that given her lifestyle and habit of hitchhiking, she felt Rail and Ridgeway may have crossed paths.

346. I am advised by a review of Document EV7679, page 87, and do believe that on January 7, 2002, Constable Williams, of Project Evenhanded, received a letter from the British Columbia Cancer Agency which was a three page letter of agreement between the British Columbia Cancer Agency, the City of Vancouver, and the RCMP regarding PAP smear slides being available for a number of missing women.

ELSIE SEBASTIAN:

347. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Port Alberni RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Elsie Marie Sebastian missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "P" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Elsie Marie Sebastian missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Port Alberni RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Port Alberni RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

348. I am advised by a review of Document EV9197, page 2, and do believe that on May 4, 1993, the VPD took a missing person report for Elsie Sebastian (VPD File #93-147568).

349. I am advised by a review of Document EV3753, page 17, and do believe that on May 16, 2001, the VPD took a missing person report for Elsie Sebastian (VPD File #2001-103735).

350. I am advised by a review of Document EV3753, page 1, and do believe that on October 3, 2001 Sergeant John Deering, with the RCMP "E" Division Special "I" Unit, received a request, from Detective Constable Dan Dickhout, for death, marriage, and birth records for several missing persons, including Elsie Sebastian.

351. I am advised by a review of Document EV3797, page 27, and do believe that on October 10, 2001, Detective Jim McKnight received a tip assignment with regard to family contacts to be identified and provided to E. Antunes, of the VPD Victim Services Unit. Investigators were contacted and the names of family contacts were obtained and provided to Antunes so they could be contacted and invited to a meeting on October 14, 2001 for victims' families and investigators involved in the missing women investigation.

352. I am advised by a review of Document EV3739, pages 29 to 30, and do believe that on October 30, 2001, Corporal Van Overbeek conducted inquiries of welfare agencies across Canada, and learned that Sebastian had received benefits and that her last cheque was picked up in Vancouver on September 24, 1992. All other inquiries were negative.

353. I am advised by a review of Document EV3079, page 10, and do believe that on November 15, 2001, Constable Williams called families of the missing women, including CI-PERS CI-PERS (Elsie Sebastian's sister-in-law), and advised them of an article the Vancouver Sun would be publishing regarding the missing women.

354. I am advised by a review of Document EV3079, page 12, and do believe that on November 22, 2001, Constable Williams received an email from CI-PERS requesting information regarding an upcoming meeting with victims' families. Constable Williams called CI-PERS to advise her of the details of the meeting. CI-PERS advised that she had not received a call from VDP Victims Services. Constable Williams telephoned Liz Antones and was advised that Antones would advise families of the meeting.

355. I am advised by a review of Document EV3797, page 21, and do believe that on December 3, 2001, Corporal Cater, of Project Evenhanded, sent an email to CI-PERS (unknown relationship, but appears to be a RCMP member), advising CI-PERS that he had reviewed a missing person poster with Elsie Sebastian's photograph on it and listing CI-PERS as a contact. Cater requested the picture of Elsie Sebastian.

356. I am advised by a review of Document EV3079, page 4, and do believe that on December 3, 2001, Corporal Cater conducted inquiries with welfare for Elsie Sebastian and noted the following:

a) there was no activity on her file since 1992;

b) her file was linked to ex-husband (unknown first name) CI-PERS but he was unable to cash any cheques;

c) nothing cashed in her name nor surname "Jones";

d) Possibility that CI-PERS was creating cheques in Sebastian's name; appears to be the only possibility.

357. I am advised by a review of Document EV7689, page 9; and EV7688, page 10, and do believe that on January 23, 2002, Constable Daryl Heatherington and Constable Paul Verral, of Project Evenhanded, obtained a familial DNA blood sample from CI-PERS (Elsie Sebastian's daughter). On January 31, 2002, familial DNA blood samples were obtained from Robert Sebastian (Elsie Sebastian's ex-husband and the biological father of her children, CI-PERS CI-PERS).

INGRID SOET:

358. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Burnaby RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Ingrid Antoinette Soet missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "Q" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records relating to the Ingrid Antoinette Soet missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Burnaby RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

359. I am advised by a review of Document EV3750, page 2, and do believe that on December 21, 1990, the VPD took a report of missing person Ingrid Soet, which generated File #90-301877.

360. I am advised by a review of Document EV2821, page 6, and do believe that on March 17, 1997, a member of the VPD Missing Person Section sent Ingrid Soet's medical records, x-rays, and dental charts to the Kamloops RCMP Detachment for comparison with found human remains. On January 27, 1998, the British Columbia Coroners Service advised that the remains did not match that of Ingrid Soet.

361. I am advised by a review of Document EV3794, pages 89 to 90, and do believe that on June 14, 2000, Sergeant Cantafio, of the Calgary RCMP Major Crime Unit, wrote a letter to the VPD Missing Persons Section, advising that the Idaho State Police Homicide Unit was investigating a homicide. Sergeant Cantafio provided a composite drawing of the victim and circumstances of the case for comparison to the Ingrid Soet investigation. On June 21, 2000, Detective Constable Dan Dickhout replied to the Idaho State Police, advising that the composite drawing resembled missing person Ingrid Soet, and that Soet did have a child in the United States. The letter noted that Detective Constable Shenher was the file coordinator but that she was currently on leave, and Detective Constable Dickhout could be contacted instead.

362. I am advised by a review of Document EV2821, page 16, and do believe that on January 23, 2002, CI-PERS (Ingrid Soet's sister) called the VPD on January 22, 2002 and was referred to Detective Constable Jarvis, of Project Evenhanded. Detective Constable Jarvis provided CI-PERS with a brief overview of the ongoing investigation. CI-PERS wanted to know if a boyfriend identified as CI-PERS (later identified and believed to be CI-PERS) had been mentioned in the file, and if he had ever been spoken to. Detective Constable Jarvis advised that the name did not appear on the file. CI-PERS called back and revealed that she suspected her father, CI-PERS in the disappearance of her sister. CI-PERS advised she had discussed this with her sister, CI-PERS and both stated that he had had incestuous relations with family members. CI-PERS stated that Ingrid Soet told CI-PERS shortly before she disappeared, that her father had raped her. CI-PERS also stated that her father told her he had consensual sexual relations with a mentally handicapped youth named CI-PERS CI-PERS in 1993, shortly before the boy went missing. CI-PERS was found sometime later, deceased in a local park. Furthermore, her father had molested CI-PERS daughter but it was not reported at the time as he had developed heart problems and was not expected to survive. It was noted on that Sergeant Clary, of Project Evenhanded, documented that Burnaby RCMP File #86-62515 reflected CI-PERS as the victim of CI-PERS but the outcome was unknown. Burnaby RCMP File #94-16760 referred to CI-PERS being found murdered.

363. I am advised by a review of Document EV2821, page 12, and do believe that on January 24, 2002, Detective Constable Jarvis received a telephone call from CI-PERS advised that in late 1988, he was the boyfriend of Ingrid Soet. He stated that they did not live together, and that Ingrid Soet primarily stayed at her parents and occasionally at the Astoria Hotel on East Hastings, in Vancouver. Ingrid Soet told CI-PERS she worked the streets, and he understood her stroll was on Hastings Street. CI-PERS also stated that Ingrid Soet was very much addicted to smoking crack cocaine at the time, and she was often reckless when conducting business on the street. CI-PERS said Ingrid Soet was not very discriminating when it came to customers, and would virtually go with anyone. CI-PERS stated that Soet dumped him in the summer of 1989, and went with someone from Coquitlam he only knew as CI-PERS. He stated that he never saw her after that.

OLIVIA WILLIAM:

364. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Smithers RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Olivia Gayle William missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "R" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records for the Olivia Gayle William missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the Smithers RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the Smithers RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

365. I am advised by a review of Document EV3729, page 23, and do believe that on March 27, 1997, the Smithers RCMP Detachment received a report from the MSSH of a missing person, Olivia Gayle William, of Tachet, British Columbia. William had not been heard from since December 1996. William would normally telephone every three weeks to check on her children, who lived in Fort Babine, British Columbia. William was a known prostitute and drug user, and had a severe case of Hepatitis "B". Constable Cooke, of the Smithers RCMP Detachment, conducted PIRS inquiries and noted that the queries did not produce any results after December 1996, but did indicate that William sometimes went by the name Olivia Joseph. Constable Cooke called the VPD and was advised that their file system was also negative for Olivia William. Constable Cooke added William to CPIC as a missing person.

366. I am advised by a review of Document EV 2788, page 53, and do believe that on April 26, 1997, Constable Cooke telephoned the MSSH in Tachet and was advised that William had a mailing address in Vancouver, and that three months of social services cheques, a couple of GST cheques, and miscellaneous mail had not been picked up. Constable Cooke noted that she would contact VPD with the new information, and suggested that the VPD might create a file on William. Constable Cooke was provided with the name of a social worker in Vancouver, CI-PERS CI-PERS, and contacted CI-PERS by telephone. CI-PERS advised Constable Cooke that William's mail was at a place called Sheway, and that he did not know William's friends.

367. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 51, and do believe that on May 24, 1997, Constable Cooke received a message from CI-PERS (Olivia William's sister) and was advised that she had received a message from CI-PERS (another sister) that a man claiming to be a detective wanted a picture of Olivia William because a body had been found in Vancouver, and he wanted to determine whether it was the right person or not. Constable Cooke conducted follow-up and determined that the VPD did not have any unidentified female bodies at the time. Constable Cooke advised CI-PERS that this was likely a practical joke being played on her by an unknown person, and that the telephone number was likely made up.

368. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 6, and do believe that on May 26, 1997, the Smithers RCMP Detachment forwarded a memorandum to the VPD which included a photograph of Olivia William.

369. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 6, and do believe that on May 26, 1997, CI-PERS (Olivia William's father) telephoned the Smithers RCMP Detachment requesting information on the death of his daughter. CI-PERS stated that he had heard that the VPD was trying to pass on information, and had tried to call CI-PERS). CI-PERS CI-PERS provided a phone number, which he believed to belong to a VPD detective. The telephone number was called but there was no answer. This information was provided in Document EV2788, page 48, dated May 26, 1997, a facsimile from Sergeant R.P. Edwards, of the Smithers RCMP Detachment, to the Burns Lake RCMP Detachment, advising that CI-PERS CI-PERS should have called the Burns Lake RCMP Detachment with the above information.

370. I am advised by a review of Document EV3729, page 26, and do believe that on May 26, 1997, Constable Cooke forwarded a memorandum to the VPD, advising that on March 27, 1997, the Smithers RCMP Detachment had received a report of a missing person from CI-PERS CI-PERS, of Social Services, in Tachet, British Columbia. The memorandum provided, in part, the following information:

> Olivia William was from Fort Babine and was believed to have become involved in prostitution in Vancouver, in the Hastings area. William's sister CI-PERS had heard from Olivia around December 15, 1996 after William gave birth to a > baby. The baby was in the hands of Social Services. William was added to CPIC as missing person by Smithers RCMP. Smithers RCMP were advised that William was having her mail delivered to "Sheway" in Vancouver. William's had not picked up her mail in approximately three months which included government cheques. This seemed to be out of the ordinary considering her life-style and her need for money. Constable Cooke requested VPD to attempt to locate William's and notify Smithers RCMP. CI-PERS of Vancouver Social Services was also aware of the situation. Photograph of William's was enclosed.

371. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 47, and do believe that on May 28, 1997, J.M. (initials only) documented in a report that a request was made of the VPD to determine if a missing person file had been opened in relation to William. As William was missing from Vancouver, it should be a VPD file. Also noted was if the Smithers RCMP Detachment was going to investigate the file, then a photo was required, as well as an attempt to obtain dental records.

372. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 6, and do believe that on May 28, 1997, CI-PERS telephoned the Smithers RCMP Detachment and advised that she would be out of town for a week or so and could be reached at CI-PERS residence. Contact information was provided.

373. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, pages 7 and 43, and do believe that on June 3, 1997, Staff Sergeant Watson, of the Smithers RCMP Detachment, received a telephone call from CI-PERS, advising that she was concerned about the investigation, and had heard rumors that bodies were being found on Vancouver Island which might be Olivia William's. Sergeant R.P. Edwards forwarded a facsimile with the above information to the Burns Lake RCMP Detachment, and requested a copy of the Burns Lake RCMP Detachment file.

374. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, pages 41 to 42, and do believe that on June 4, 1997, an unidentified member noted that CI-PERS of Social Services, advised that on December 19, 1996, she had received a payphone call from Olivia William, who stated that she was still using heroin, she just had a child three weeks previous and had left the child at the hospital. William tried to get money, and her last address was 320 - 160 E Hastings Vancouver, B.C. Also noted was William's last social worker, CI-PERS The unidentified member called CI-PERS and was advised that the last time she saw William was during the fall, when William had her child. Social Services seized the child and she had not been seen since. William was noted as very visible on the street so when she disappeared they noted her missing right away. CI-PERS believed that William was reported missing to the VPD. Sergeant Edwards forwarded a message to Florence (last name unknown) of the VPD, advising that Olivia William was reported missing to the Smithers RCMP Detachment; however, she should have been reported to the VPD.

375. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 39, and do believe that on June 4, 1997, the Smithers RCMP Detachment received a telephone call from CI-PERS. CI-PERS was advised that the William missing person investigation was a VPD investigation, and that the Smithers RCMP Detachment would be sending its investigative file to the VPD so that a missing person file could be created and an investigation conducted.

376. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 36, and do believe that on June 16, 1997, Constable Cooke forwarded a copy of the Smithers RCMP Detachment file for Olivia William to Corporal Greg, of the VPD. Constable Cooke advised CI-PERS that the VPD would be taking over the investigation.

377. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 7, and do believe that on July 4, 1997, CI-PERS reported Olivia William as a missing person to the VPD.

378. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 28, and do believe that on February 8, 1999, Constable Cooke forwarded a facsimile to the VPD, advising that CI-PERS (Olivia William's brother) found a purse on a shelf at home with a letter from Canada Post which advised the purse was found in the mail and returned by Canada Post. A Canada Post stamp on the letter was dated July 31, 1996 (possibly 1998). Constable Cooke examined the purse and located some cards and notes, all prior to the date last seen. Constable Cooke advised it appeared that the purse was lost before William was reported missing. The purse was to be returned to family.

379. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 11, and do believe that on February 9, 2001, CI-PERS was in the Agassiz RCMP Detachment on another matter and reported that she had had dinner with Olivia William in the summer (exact date unknown) at the native friendship centre in Mission. She had never met William before and just talked to her over dinner. CI-PERS said William introduced herself as Olivia but did not provide her last name. CI-PERS recognized William on a missing person poster in the Agassiz RCMP Detachment.

380. I am advised by a review of Document EV7700, page 96, and do believe that on December 12, 2001, Project Evenhanded was advised that the collection of PAP smear slides from British Columbia Cancer Agency resulted in a DNA profile being developed for William.

381. I am advised by a review of Document EV2788, page 13, and do believe that on January 2, 2002, Constable Williams telephoned CI-PERS at the request of Detective Peters, of Project Evenhanded. CI-PERS said that he would be the family contact for missing person Olivia William, and inquired about any developments in the investigation. On January 31, 2002, Constable Williams telephoned CI-PERS and learned that the legal name for Olivia William was without an "s".

TARESSA WILLIAMS:

382. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the White Rock RCMP detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Taressa Ann Williams missing person complaint. Attached to my Affidavit and marked as Exhibit "S" are true copies of excerpts from the EVERITAS E & R records for the Taressa Ann Williams missing person complaint. These records include investigative materials from the White Rock RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded. Original investigative documents received from the White Rock RCMP Detachment, the VPD, and the RCMP Evenhanded investigation include, but are not limited to notes and investigative reports that were entered into the database through different methods, including scanning and data transfer.

383. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 33, and do believe that on October 17, 1988, Staff Sergeant Nimchuk, of the White Rock RCMP Detachment, wrote to Dr. E.J. Penner, a dentist in Surrey, British Columbia, regarding missing person Taressa Williams and his discussion with Constable Davies, also of the White Rock RCMP Detachment. Staff Sergeant Nimchuk requested that Dr. Penner retain the dental records for Taressa Williams until she was located.

384. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, pages 322 to 323, and do believe that on March 13, 1998, Constable Jack Goebel, of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, took a complaint from CI-PERS (Band Youth Counselor) that the VPD had found a human skull with excellent dental records and that the skull might be that of Taressa Williams, who had been missing since 1988. Lawson stated that he contacted VPD Sergeant Brian Honeybourne about the skull, and learned that it was of native origin. CI-PERS provided details to Sergeant Honeybourne about Williams, but he was not able to find any records regarding Williams. Honeybourne referred CI-PERS back to the RCMP, advising that he would not be able to investigate unless Williams was reported missing. Sergeant Honeybourne conducted inquiries through CPIC, PIRS, and the VPD system, with negative results. CI-PERS requested that Constable Goebel look into the matter as Williams had been missing for almost ten years. CI-PERS advised Constable Goebel that Dr. Penner was Williams' dentist, and that Williams had two children born two months prior to her disappearance. Both children were apprehended by the MSSH. Lawson advised that Williams' mother was CI-PERS and her grandmother was CI-PERS who was deceased. CI-PERS stated that both CI-PERS and CI-PERS reported Williams to police as missing, and believed it to be to the White Rock RCMP Detachment. Constable Goebel contacted Sergeant Honeybourne and advised that he was looking into why Williams did not show as a reported missing person because he was of the opinion that the complaint was valid. Goebel suggested that Sergeant Honeybourne pursue dental records for comparison. Sergeant Honeybourne agreed and advised that he would contact Dr. Penner on March 16, 1998.

385. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 321, and do believe that on March 13, 1998, Constable Goebel contacted CI-PERS of the White Rock MSSH. CI-PERS confirmed that Williams gave birth to twin boys on PID , and that MSSH case worker CI-PERS was familiar with the date. CI-PERS also stated that Williams' common-law was CI-PERS that he beat her all the time, and that there was a record of family violence dated August 1987. CI-PERS said "they" always wondered why they never had anything more to do with Williams. CI-PERS also stated that custody of the twins was given to CI-PERS but because of neglect the twins had since been taken away, and were in foster care at that time. MSSH would research other offices to determine if they had had contact with Williams since 1988. Constable Goebel conducted PIRS inquiries, which revealed Kamloops RCMP File #89-1479, where Williams was referred to the RCMP as a possible victim. Constable Goebel noted that a CPIC message was sent to Kamloops to confirm this information.

386. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, pages 319 to 320, and do believe that on March 15, 1998, Constable Goebel attended the CI-PERS residence with Constable Ward and interviewed CI-PERS CI-PERS confirmed that both she and her mother, CI-PERS had reported Williams missing to the White Rock RCMP Detachment. She recalled being advised by the RCMP, five years later, that the file was being closed as the RCMP had exhausted all efforts. She did not recall who any of the members were, but she thought it might have been Constable Lane. She indicated some of the efforts made were Crime Stoppers or some type of broadcast through Channel 10. CI-PERS confirmed that Williams had lived with her grandmother in White Rock, and that when she was with CI-PERS , they lived in sleeping rooms of old hotels in Vancouver, such as the Cobalt. CI-PERS stated that the last time they heard from Williams was on August 17, 1988, when Williams called to say she was taking a bus home, but she never arrived. CI-PERS told them Williams was last seen leaving with a male in a red station wagon, but he did not provide a description of either the vehicle or the male. CI-PERS was believed to have gone back to Ontario, where his parents resided. Williams was noted as having a street name of Sharra Lynn Chappell, and as missing a front tooth. Constable Goebel noted that there was no PIRS entry for CI-PERS

387. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 318, and do believe that on March 16, 1998, Constable Goebel received a telephone call from Sergeant Honeybourne, who confirmed that Dr. Penner was Williams' dentist. Dr. Penner was put in contact with forensic dentist Chico Newell, and his initial results suggested Williams was not their victim (This information was later confirmed not to be a match). Constable Goebel received a telephone call from CI-PERS (Williams' family social worker), who expressed interest in the investigation and offered any assistance MSSH could provide. Constable Goebel conducted CPIC inquiries and identified CI-PERS as a suspected pimp.

388. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 51, and do believe that on March 21, 1998, Constable Goebel contacted CI-PERS (Taressa Williams' step-father). CI-PERS provided a description of Williams' tattoos, stated that CI-PERS was the last to see Williams, and further stated that CI-PERS told CI-PERS that Williams was last seen being put into a red station wagon and being covered up in the back with a blanket.

389. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 318, and do believe that on March 29, 1998, Constable Goebel received a telephone call from Chris Newell, advising that the VPD skull did not match Williams'.

390. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, pages 293 and 298 to 299, and do believe that on March 30, 1998, Constable Rob E. Smith, of the White Rock RCMP Detachment, was requested to complete an occurrence report and assign a member for further inquiries. While reviewing photocopies of the Surrey RCMP Detachment file, Constable Smith realized it brought back memories of completing work on a teenage native Indian missing file in which Constable Smith may have entered her dental records onto CPIC. Constable Smith also remembered that the member who could have been assigned was a Constable K.W. Davies, now Staff Sergeant Davies, of the Kamloops RCMP Detachment. Constable Smith consulted with Sergeant Paysen and a number of possible avenues to follow-up with were discussed. A search of PIRS was conducted nationwide which resulted in three PIRS printouts of possible interest. One file of interest was from Kamloops, in which unidentified human remains were found and Williams was listed as Tip 60. As a result, Constable Smith sent a request to the Kamloops RCMP Detachment Major Crime Unit, requesting that they review their file and advise what information was contained in Tip 60, and fax the information to Constable Smith. A second PIRS entry of interest (EV8761, page 293) was found human remains in Beaver Lake (no further details were provided). The details of the third PIRS entry were not found in the file material reviewed. A CPIC Off-Line search was requested from Sergeant Larkin of BC Field OPS. Constable MacInnis (believed to be with the White Rock RCMP Detachment) dropped off CPIC dental record forms with Dr. Penner, requesting that he complete them and return to the White Rock RCMP Detachment.

391. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, pages 296 and 299, and do believe that on April 1, 1998, Staff Sergeant K.W. Davies, of the Kamloops RCMP Detachment, telephoned and advised that he had reviewed his notebooks back to 1988 and found nothing. He stated that he could not remember Williams, but it was possible that he was the assigned member.

392. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 46, and do believe that on April 1, 1998, Constable Smith wrote a report which summarized the following actions:

a) Taressa Williams last seen August 17, 1988 in Vancouver by her boyfriend getting into a red station-wagon;

b) the file was brought to the attention of the Surrey RCMP Detachment, and they in turn brought it to the attention of the White Rock RCMP Detachment;

c) Williams was reported missing to the White Rock RCMP Detachment on January 17, 1989. It was unclear who the investigating officer was at the time, and the original file (WR88-6471) was unavailable. It was not known why Williams was removed from CPIC as a missing person;

d) Constable Smith noted that he was made aware of a newsletter that was distributed amongst RCMP detachments, known as the Criminal Index Section Bulletin. Constable Smith was hopeful that the newsletter might identify the original investigating officer.

Constable Smith then identified several actions that required further investigation:

a) speak with Kamloops RCMP to ascertain if the unidentified remains are Williams';

b) obtain more information on File WR88-6741, including the original investigator;

c) obtain more dental records from Dr. Penner;

d) obtain results of CPIC Off-Line search to ascertain when CPIC entry of missing person was removed;

e) (determine) if Kamloops file was negative for Williams, then add her to CPIC as missing, and continue to try to locate her.

393. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 294, and do believe that on April 1, 1998, Sergeant Randy Beck, of the Kamloops RCMP Detachment Major Crime Unit, wrote to the White Rock RCMP Detachment in response to a CPIC request to review Tip 60 relating to Taressa Williams. Sergeant Beck advised the only documents on Tip 60 referred to a case where human remains were identified to a Kamloops female. Sergeant Beck stated that of interest was a recent discovery of human remains (File #96-317) in which a female human skull was recovered. Beck stated that the lead investigator was Constable Cam Percy, who would contact Constable Smith the following week.

394. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 43, and do believe that on April 6, 1998, Constable Smith inquired as to the availability of previous Crime Index Section Bulletins in the event that there was a communiqué regarding Williams. Constable Smith was advised that copies were only kept back to January 1993. Constable Ausmus, of the White Rock RCMP Detachment, attended Dr. Penner's office to pick up Williams' records, but the records were not ready. Brenda (last name unknown), from the RCMP National Archives, telephoned Constable Smith and advised that she would conduct a search for the Williams file.

395. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 44, and do believe that on April 6, 1998, Sergeant Ron Paysen, of the White Rock RCMP Detachment, contacted Constable Percy, of the Kamloops RCMP Detachment Serious Crime Section, and discussed the comparison of dental information of Williams and the found skull. It was concluded that the skull was not Williams.

396. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 42, and do believe that on April 7, 1998, Brenda, of the RCMP National Archives, telephoned and advised that the files requested had been returned to the White Rock RCMP Detachment in 1995, at their request. Brenda advised that she had searched where the files would be located in the warehouse, but nothing there. Constable MacInnis attended Dr. Penner's office and picked up Williams' dental records, It was noted that a CPIC dental record form was faxed to Constable Percy.

397. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, pages 274 and 280, and do believe that on April 8, 1998, Constable Smith attended Dr. Penner's office and requested Williams' x-rays. The x-rays were requested by Constable Percy in order to compare with their unidentified skull. Dr. Penner had other documents in the Williams file, and provided them to Constable Smith. Constable Smith found a memo dated October 17, 1988, and learned that the original investigating officer was Constable Davies, now of the Kamloops RCMP Detachment. Constable Smith sent a facsimile to Constable Percy, advising that the x-rays had been forwarded, and that Staff Sergeant Davies was the original investigating officer on the original Williams missing person file.

398. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, pages 27 and 100; and EV8761, page 278, and do believe that on April 9, 1998, Sergeant Paysen spoke with Corporal Jacques Aubrey, of CPIC Services Ottawa, and was advised he was sending correspondence regarding the file remarks made in 1989, by the VPD, which advised that RCMP File #88-6471 was removed in 1989, with the remark "Located in Vancouver". Sergeant Paysen noted that CPIC Ottawa would be sending a copy of all CPIC remarks from 1988 to 1998.

399. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 276, and do believe that on April 9, 1998, Sergeant Paysen forwarded a facsimile to Staff Sergeant Davies which advised him that a review of Dr. Penner's 1988 dental file of Taressa Williams identified Constable Davies' name as the investigator. Sergeant Paysen requested that Staff Sergeant Davies review his notebooks and provide any information he had. Sergeant Paysen noted he would be interested to know who Staff Sergeant Davies contacted as next of kin and if he did, in fact, locate her. Sergeant Paysen also asked Staff Sergeant Davies if he knew of any other detachment who had investigated Williams.

400. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 163, and do believe that on April 14, 1994, Corporal Aubrey sent Sergeant Paysen a facsimile with CPIC Off-Line search results for Williams, as requested on April 9, 1998.

401. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 29, and do believe that on April 15, 1998, Constable Percy wrote Constable Smith and enclosed dental x-rays of Taressa Williams. Constable Percy noted that Dr. Patch could not totally rule out the possibility that the x-rays of Williams and the found skull were "one in the same, it was highly unlikely they are not." As noted, the problem was the Williams x-rays were taken when she was 11-12 years old and some of her molars had not erupted yet. Dr. Patch felt that given Williams' lifestyle at the time of her disappearance, drug/alcohol involvement and believed to be working as a prostitute it is unlikely she would have had the crown work done found on tooth #26 of the skull. Given Dr. Patch's examination and the inconsistencies that are based on the anthropologist's examination (skull is believed to be that of a 20-34 year old Caucasian,) it did not appear the files were related. Constable Percy advised he would be concluding his tip on Williams.

402. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 272, and do believe that on April 15, 1998, Staff Sergeant Davies wrote Constable Smith, advising that he did not recall this event and that if he did have any notes, they would have been on RCMP 1624s (investigative records, known as continuation reports) on the file. Staff Sergeant Davies also noted that he was advised by Brian Cressock that the White Rock RCMP Detachment file was concluded and destroyed. Cressock recalled that family members had received a call from a White Rock RCMP Detachment member, telling them the file was concluded, and that this had occurred after Staff Sergeant Davies left the detachment. Furthermore, Staff Sergeant Davies did not recall talking to a dentist, as noted in Staff Sergeant Nimchuk's letter, although he vaguely recalled talking to family members of one missing female, who told him that they had seen her in downtown Vancouver and that she was OK. Staff Sergeant Davies does not have any recollection of who the person was, or if it related to Williams.

403. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 28, and do believe that on April 17, 1998, Constable Smith received correspondence from CPIC user services which included a CPIC off-line search for all removed entries from January 1, 1994 to April 17, 1998. The request for removal of Williams was not found. Constable Smith noted that he had received a letter from Constable Percy, advising that the unidentified skull at their location was not Williams. Also noted on the report was a facsimile, sent by Staff Sergeant Davies, indicating that he had no recollection of being involved in the missing person file. Constable Smith advised that Williams was to be re-entered on CPIC as missing, including dental records. Constable Smith noted discrepancies between dental records submitted recently, and those on the original CPIC from 1989. These issues were to be discussed with Dr. Penner. Dr. Penner's file was returned to him. As he was not available, a short note was left asking him to explain the differences in dental records. A message was left with Corporal Doc Watson, of the RCMP "E" Division Serious Crime Section, asking if he was aware of any way to disseminate Williams' information in such a way as to ensure that any investigators with unidentified human remains would cross reference their remains with the newly added information about Williams on CPIC.

404. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 24, and do believe that on April 27, 1998, Constable Smith met with Corporal Watson. Corporal Watson suggested the following actions be conducted:

a) ascertain who Williams' natural father was;

b) conduct queries on Williams' boyfriend (not identified) from ten years ago as he was the last person to have seen her, and should be considered a suspect;

c) continue with cross-Canada PIRS query (off line search);

d) query all unidentified females on CPIC (cross-Canada);

e) obtain dental x-rays from Dr Penner;

f) obtain photo of Williams;

g) set up file tip system to keep organized;

h) conduct queries with social services across Canada;

i) liaise with VPD Vice Unit regarding Williams' past involvement in prostitution;

j) determine inconsistency in initial dental records entered on CPIC to those recently received.

Constable Smith conducted inquiries with the VPD and learned that VPD File #1988-5028 recorded that CI-PERS had reported Williams missing on August 13, 1988. Smith learned that the file had since been destroyed.

405. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 23, and do believe that on May 25, 1998, Constable Smith telephoned CI-PERS and asked her about Taressa Williams' father, CI-PERS CI-PERS advised that she thought he lived in Langley, but did not have an address or phone number for him. CI-PERS was asked to provide a photograph of Taressa Williams, and CI-PERS advised that she would drop one off at White Rock RCMP Detachment the next day.

406. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 23; and EV8761, page 257, and do believe that on June 4, 1998, Constable Smith attempted to contact CI-PERS as she did not leave the photograph as requested. Constable Smith confirmed with Probation in Sudbury, Ontario that CI-PERS was still a client and living in Ontario. Constable Smith noted that it would be prudent to have CI-PERS interviewed regarding Williams' disappearance and noted that there was a Sudbury RCMP Detachment that could be contacted to conduct the interview. Constable Smith sent a facsimile to Canada Alberta Service Centre requesting an indices search for Williams and her aliases. On June 8, 1998, Smith received a reply that the search results were negative. Constable Smith conducted inquiries with British Columbia Social Services branch, and attended Dr. Penner's office and seized Williams' dental file and submitted them as exhibits to the file.

407. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 22, and do believe that on June 10, 1998, Constable Smith noted that Williams' dental records were added to CPIC. Inquiries were also conducted in which Williams was compared to three unidentified bodies found on CPIC, but none matched.

408. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 21; and EV8751, pages 251 and 255, and do believe that on June 19, 1998, Constable Smith received a reply from Alberta Family and Social Services advising that Williams did not have a file with their service. Constable Smith sent a facsimile to the Ministry of Social Services in both Saskatchewan and Manitoba. Constable Smith also left a message for Corporal Aubrey requesting CPIC off-line searches.

409. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 156, and do believe that on June 29, 1998, Corporal Aubrey sent a facsimile to Constable Smith, enclosing a report containing a list of all persons removed from CPIC with the surnames of Dolan-Harris and Chappell. Also included were any vehicles associated to these persons for the period covering October 31, 1988 to June 22, 1998.

410. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 20, and do believe that on July 2, 1998, Constable Smith noted that he had not received a response from social services in British Columbia and Saskatchewan, and that queries with Alberta and Manitoba for Williams and aliases did not provide any results.

411. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, pages 18 to 19, and do believe that on July 9, 1998, Constable Smith conducted PIRS queries and contacted CI-PERS, of the Prevention Compliance and Enforcement Unit of the Ministry of Human Resources. Queries of their indices including aliases did not provide any results. Inquiries were also to be conducted with Central Canada for Social Insurance Number, Indian Affairs regarding application for Native status, Women Against Violence Against Women (WAVAW) because WAVAW has contact with many prostitutes, Department of Social and Health Services Washington State and Vital Statistics whether Williams re-applied for a birth certificate.

412. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 17, and do believe that on August 23, 1998, Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS requesting a photograph of Williams and was requested to call back the following evening.

413. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 16, and do believe that on August 30, 1998, Constable Smith placed a telephone call to the CI-PERS residence in an attempt to obtain photograph of Williams. There was no answer.

414. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 16, and do believe that on August 31, 1998, Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS Deputy Minister of Social Services for the Province of Saskatchewan, who requested that Constable Smith send another facsimile. Constable Smith also faxed a request to the Ministry of Community and Social Services in Ontario. Constable Smith received a telephone call from CI-PERS who advised that there was no record of Williams or her aliases receiving assistance from the Saskatchewan Government. Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS, of the Division of Fraud Investigations for the State of Washington, and requested any information that she would be able to send Constable Smith. CI-PERS called and advised that she was able to check all State indices, including Vital Statistics (Birth & Deaths), Social Services, Welfare, Drivers files, unemployment, and court files, but she was unable to find any record of Williams or her aliases. Constable Smith placed a telephone call to CI-PERS again, attempting to obtain a picture of Williams, but there was no answer. Constable Smith noted that he had received a facsimile from Ontario Social Assistance, advising that their indices queries were negative for Williams; however, they did not have access to all of the Provinces social services indices because there were four separate districts. Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS (Last name unknown), at Metro Social Services Ontario, and learned that their indices queries were also negative for Williams. Constable Smith forwarded facsimiles to two offices of the Peel Social Services. Constable Smith contacted the Department of Indian and Northern Affairs and spoke with the registry, learning that Theresa Ann Williams had never been registered as a status Native. Constable Smith contacted the Department of Vital Statistics and requested that they query their indices for Williams. Constable Smith contacted Human Resources and learned that Williams (and her aliases) had never applied for or received a Social Insurance Number.

415. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 14, and do believe that on September 1, 1998, Constable Smith received a voicemail from the Department of Vital Statistics, requesting that he contact CI-PERS of their Special Investigation Section.

416. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 241, and do believe that on September 1, 1998, Detective Constable Shenher sent a message to all RCMP agencies and Police Departments in British Columbia, advising that the VPD was compiling a list of all sex trade workers who have gone missing from the downtown eastside of Vancouver under suspicious circumstances.

417. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 14, and do believe that on September 8, 1998, Constable Smith spoke to CI-PERS and was told that a photograph would available for pickup the following day. Constable Smith noted that he had a discussion of the family in which he learned that Williams had twin boys, named CI-PERS and CI-PERS, prior to her disappearance. Their father, CI-PERS, was Williams' pimp, and had last lived in Vancouver. The twins were now wards of Social Services, and were at a foster home on the PID. CI-PERS said she hoped to regain custody of the children soon. It was believed that Williams did not have any possessions to either take or leave at the time she disappeared. The last school Williams attended was Earl Marriot, for grade eight. Williams had run away before with a girl named STW13863 (later identified as STW13863). STW13863 believed that Williams was last seen on a plane bound for California. CI-PERS was to provide the last name and phone number for STW13863. Also noted, Constable Smith contacted Vital Statistics.

418. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 13, and do believe that on September 11, 1998, Constable Smith contacted Detective Constable Shenher and left message regarding the Williams missing person investigation.

419. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 13, and do believe that on September 18, 1998, Detective Constable Shenher left a message for Constable Smith, in which she stated she was interested in hearing about the file. She advised that she would be away September 21 to 25, 1998, and would attempt contact Constable Smith the following week.

420. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 13, and do believe that on September 22, 1998, Constable Smith attempted to contact CI-PERS, and learned that CI-PERS CI-PERS had been ill recently.

421. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 12, and do believe that on September 26, 1998, Constable Smith attended the residence of CI-PERS and spent an hour gathering information on Williams. Smith learned the following:

a) Taressa Williams was last heard from when her twin boys were approximately seven months old, in approximately late November or early December 1998. The twins were born on PID CI-PERS (Williams' step-father) was the last to hear from her. Williams phoned the residence during this time and said she was going to catch a 1:30 bus from Vancouver out to the reserve. It was intended as a visit with her children, who were staying with CI-PERS CI-PERS Williams never arrived, and was not heard from again;

b) Williams was last known to be staying at the Sunrise Hotel, in downtown Vancouver. CI-PERS described the place as being very dirty, and as the sort of place where junkies hung out;

c) Williams has only one sibling, a brother named CI-PERS, who he resided with CI-PERS (unknown relationship). CI-PERS did not have any contact with his sister;

d) a query of VPD records revealed that when Taressa Williams was reported missing to the VPD, on August 13, 1988, the complainant was CI-PERS CI-PERS felt that he may have been another boyfriend of Taressa, and may actually be the true father of the twins, not CI-PERS as previously reported;

e) Williams had a girlfriend throughout her early teens, STW13863 (believed to by STW13863). Williams and STW13863 had run away together previous to Williams' disappearance. STW13863 was actively seeking Williams through the internet. STW13863 might have a better picture of Williams, and might have been one of the last people to see her;

f) Williams' alias, previously thought to be Lynn Chappell, was actually Sharra-Lynn Chappell;

g) The last sighting of Williams, reported by CI-PERS, had also been clarified. It was previously reported that she was being put into a station wagon and then covered up with a blanket, leading Constable Smith to believe that Williams was not conscious at the time. CI-PERS reported that he was told by CI-PERS that Williams was coerced or somehow talked into the vehicle, and had covered herself with a blanket.

In light of this information, Constable Smith noted that his first course of action would be to speak with Detective Constable Shenher. Considering that the last address for Williams had been confirmed as the Sunrise Hotel, in Vancouver, the file could be investigated by the VPD. Constable Smith advised that he would confer with the Operations NCO of the White Rock RCMP Detachment for direction.

422. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 236, and do believe that on October 5, 1998, Constable Smith contacted the Sunrise Hotel and learned they had recently come under new ownership. The hotel did not have any back files whatsoever, so Constable Smith was unable to confirm that Williams or CI-PERS had stayed there ten years prior.

423. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, pages 233 to 234, and do believe that on October 14, 1998, Constable Smith spoke with Detective Constable Shenher, who requested a copy of the Williams missing person investigation. Constable Smith prepared a facsimile overview of the investigation and sent it to Detective Constable Shenher. As Constable Smith still had various avenues of investigation to follow up on, it was suggested that he continue with the investigation at that time.

424. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 96, and do believe that on October 15, 1998, Constable Smith was contacted by STW13863 STW13863 said that she had not had contact with Williams in over ten years, but was able to provide photographs.

425. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 6, and do believe that on October 19, 1998, an unidentified VPD member noted that the VPD had received the file from Constable Smith, of the White Rock RCMP Detachment.

426. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 6, and do believe that on October 22, 1998, an unidentified VPD member noted that they had contacted Constable Smith and requested that he check all the names (not identified) in the Williams file, and have a member of other detachments (not named) shown a photo and go to their respective addresses and see if they could be missing person Williams.

427. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 95, and do believe that on October 23, 1998, Constable Smith received a voicemail from Detective Constable Shenher, advising she had received the file. Detective Constable Shenher stated that her initial concerns revolved around the PIRS hits for someone vaguely matching Williams' description, in the Armstrong, British Columbia area. She requested a picture when one became available, and noted that she would check with Vice to ascertain if anybody who was around ten years ago might be familiar with Williams.

428. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 67, and do believe that on October 23, 1998, Constable Smith received a possible hit through Vital Statistics of a person named CI-PERS living in Victoria, who married as CI-PERS, which was one of Williams' aliases. Further investigation determined that CI-PERS was not Taressa Williams. Constable Smith advised the VPD of the outcome.

429. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 93, and do believe that on November 19, 1998, Constable Smith conducted BC PARIS (driver's licence and vehicle queries) queries associated to Williams, and learned a 1992 Ford Explorer Green was registered to Williams in July 1998. Constable Smith contacted Constable Featherston, of the Victoria Police Department, with the address information in their jurisdiction and requested that a member determine if the vehicle was at the address.

430. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 92, and do believe that on December 1, 1998, Constable Smith attended the CI-PERS residence in Victoria and spoke to CI-PERS. Smith confirmed that CI-PERS was not Williams.

431. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 92, and do believe that on December 7, 1998, Constable Smith attempted to contact CI-PERS, and also telephoned Detective Constable Shenher to provide her with an update. Smith left her a voicemail message.

432. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 92, and do believe that on December 10, 1998, Constable Smith telephoned CI-PERS probation officer. CI-PERS advised that CI-PERS was no longer on probation, and described CI-PERS as a transient with no fixed address.

433. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 92, and do believe that on December 11, 1998, Constable Smith forwarded a CPIC message requesting that the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) attempt to locate CI-PERS and obtain a statement from him.

434. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 91, and do believe that on December 16, 1998, Constable Smith received a reply from OPP. Constable Smith was advised that they had contacted CI-PERS mother (name not provided) and learned that she had no idea where her son was, but had heard that he might be going to British Columbia to visit his twin boys. CI-PERS brother (name not provided) thought he was in a rehabilitation centre in Sudbury called The Rock.

435. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 91, and do believe that on December 17, 1998, Constable Smith spoke with CI-PERS (last name unknown), at Family and Children Services. CI-PERS was familiar with Williams' case and the twins. Constable Smith advised that CI-PERS might be coming to visit the twins. CI-PERS offered to flag their file to advise Constable Smith should CI-PERS contact their office.

436. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 91, and do believe that on December 18, 1998, Constable Smith contacted Ontario directory assistance but was not able to find a listing for The Rock. Constable Smith learned of a place named Rehab Works Hospital. Constable Smith called and learned it was closed for Christmas until January 4.

437. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 90, and do believe that on January 6, 1999, Constable Smith spoke with CI-PERS of Family and Child Services, and learned that she had been transferred and that the Williams' childrens' file had been passed to CI-PERS CI-PERS Stewart confirmed that CI-PERS was flagged on their system.

438. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 215, and do believe that on January 11, 1999, Constable Smith learned that CI-PERS was in a hospital and had left last summer, supposedly bound for British Columbia to see the twins. CI-PERS left no forwarding address. Constable Smith re-sent facsimiles to Peel and Metro Social Services Ontario, and received a reply that CI-PERS was not known to Metro Social Services.

439. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 89, and do believe that on January 31, 1999, Constable Smith completed and submitted VICLAS forms. No word had been received from Peel Social Services. Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS and advised her of the file's status. Constable Smith asked CI-PERS if she could shed any light on the identity of CI-PERS the name that appeared on the August VPD report of Williams being missing. CI-PERS states that CI-PERS may have been Williams' boyfriend, and may indeed be the real father of the twin boys. CI-PERS had never met CI-PERS and could not provide any other details.

440. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 88, and do believe that on February 2, 1999, Constable Smith contacted STW13863 and she advised that she did not recall CI-PERS Constable Smith discussed the status of the investigation with her. STW13863 stated that she thought Williams may have had her (STW13863) birth certificate, and that Williams' street name was Kate Chappell. Constable Smith noted that PIRS and CPIC inquiries of the name Kate Chappell, as well as any incidences of STW13863 identification being used by Williams, did not produce any results.

441. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 88, and do believe that on February 9, 1999, Constable Smith spoke with CI-PERS from the Prevention, Compliance and Enforcement Unit of the MSSH. CI-PERS advised that he had conducted inquiries relative to Williams' aliases and learned that Williams had been cross referenced under the names Taressa Dollin and Taressa Harris.

442. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 88, and do believe that on February 17, 1999, Constable Smith forwarded a facsimile to Hamilton Social Services for information (not identified). Also noted, CPIC and PIRS queries for Dollin and Harris did not produce any results.

443. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 87, and do believe that on February 18, 1999, Constable Smith received a reply from CI-PERS of Hamilton Social Services. CI-PERS informed Constable Smith that she had located the name CI-PERS as receiving Social Assistance at an address in Sudbury. CI-PERS had the same date of birth and similar description as missing person Williams. Constable Smith noted that Williams' boyfriend at the time of her disappearance was from Sudbury.

444. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741 page 87 and do believe that on February 19, 1999, Constable Smith sent a CPIC message to all agencies (unidentified) in British Columbia and Alberta, advising of the on-going Williams missing person investigation and requesting that the agencies compare found human remains investigations to the Williams investigation.

445. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 87, and do believe that on February 26, 1999, Constable Smith sent a facsimile to the Ontario Motor Vehicle Branch, requesting a driver's licence history for CI-PERS. Constable Smith met with CI-PERS of the Pearce Arch News, and provided a complete interview with regards to the Williams file. Constable Smith noted it was hoped that media coverage, including a picture of Williams, might result in additional avenues of investigation. Constable Smith contacted Williams' mother, CI-PERS and asked if she would also consent to an interview with CI-PERS

CI-PERS was asked if Williams might have gone to Ontario, and she stated that she could not think of any reason for Williams to go.

446. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 85, and do believe that on March 2, 1999, Constable Smith received a call from CI-PERS, of the Ontario Motor Vehicle Branch, who advised that a warrant would be required to obtain a picture of CI-PERS

447. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 85, and do believe that on March 3, 1999, Constable Smith received a call from CI-PERS, who said that he was approached by CI-PERS a house painter, who claimed that he consistently attended the streets of East Vancouver and that he helped dry out prostitutes from that area. CI-PERS had offered to help the CI-PERS family. CI-PERS inquired as to whether CI-PERS was legitimate. On March 10, 1999, Constable Smith advised CI-PERS that CI-PERS was not suspicious in his mind, but cautioned against believing in his ability to help the family as his motives in frequenting prostitute areas were not known.

448. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 85, and do believe that on March 6, 1999, Constable Smith received a telephone call from STW13863 who advised that she had seen a newspaper article and called to inquire on the status of the file.

449. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 85, and do believe that on March 8, 1999, Constable Smith received a driver's history from Ontario for CI-PERS and learned that CI-PERS was her married name. Her maiden name was CI-PERS therefore, she could not be Taressa Williams.

450. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 85, and do believe that on March 9, 1999, Constable Smith sent a message to the OPP Records Section, requesting a query of their computer database for Williams and her aliases. No records were found. Constable Smith also forwarded a message to the Sudbury Regional Police, requesting a query of their computer database for Williams and her aliases.

451. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 209, and do believe that on March 10, 1999, Constable Smith received a CPIC message from the Sudbury Police Service, and learned that CI-PERS was married in 1994, was described as white, 5'2" and 180 pounds. Constable Smith concluded that CI-PERS was not Taressa Williams.

The pictures were believed to be suitable for use in posters and Crime Stoppers. Constable Smith left a message for CI-PERS, of the Department of Social and Health Services of Washington State. Constable Smith also left a message for a Level 2

PIRS query and received a call back advising him that the level 2 query was possible. Constable Smith completed the required form.

454. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 79, and do believe that on March 25, 1999, Constable Smith left a message for Pete Peterson, in Washington State, requesting assistance. Constable Smith spoke with Peterson and was advised that Williams was queried on their computer database under known aliases for Death, Marriage, Drivers License, Social Services, Welfare, Unemployment, and Court files. No response was documented.

455. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 79, and do believe that on March 26, 1999, Constable Smith contacted the Investigative Services Bureau in Washington State, and left a message. Constable Smith noted that he telephoned and left a message for Detective Larry Beckwith, of the Clackamas County Sheriff's Office in Oregon, in regard to found human remains described as being consistent with a teenage female.

456. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 68, and do believe that on May 18, 1999, Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS at a rehab centre in Sudbury. During the conversation, CI-PERS stated that he last saw Williams on July 17, 1988 at 1000 hrs. CI-PERS believed that he and Williams were living in the Metropole Hotel, in Vancouver, when she disappeared.

457. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 75, and do believe that on July 7, 1999, Constable Smith spoke with Detective Constable Alex Clark, of the VPD, who was investigating the disappearance/murder of prostitutes from the Vancouver east side. Detective Constable Clark requested a picture of Williams that could be placed on a poster to be circulated throughout the Lower Mainland. Constable Smith noted that attempts to send the photo electronically failed.

458. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 75, and do believe that on July 13, 1999, Constable Smith contacted Detective Constable Clark and arranged for the VPD to attend at the White Rock RCMP Detachment to pick up Williams' photograph.

459. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 68; and EV8761, pages 192 to 199, and do believe that on July 29, 1999, Constable Smith received a voicemail from STW13863 advising that someone looking like Williams was currently incarcerated at the Burnaby Correctional Centre for Women (BCCW). Constable Smith telephoned STW13863 and learned that she had received a call from CI-PERS, who had advised that she had been contacted by CI-PERS, PID CI-PERS advised CI-PERS that a woman who looked like Williams was at the BCCW, that the woman's name was CI-PERS CI-PERS and that her date of birth was the same day and month as Williams' CI-PERS. Constable Smith compared physical descriptions as well as photographs of the two women and their PIRS histories. Constable Smith left a message with RCMP Special "I" in Victoria and confirmed CI-PERS birth date and birth place as Vancouver. Additional investigation conducted by Constable Smith confirmed that CI-PERS was not Williams as a result of a comparison of dental records.

460. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 72, and do believe that on August 9, 1999, Constable Smith contacted Detective Constable Clark and provided her with an update of his findings. Constable Smith noted that given the fact that Williams went missing from East Vancouver, perhaps VPD could take over the investigation. Constable Smith advised that "most all" avenues of investigation had been explored.

461. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 70, and do believe that on August 25, 1999, Constable Smith spoke with CI-PERS about her daughter. Constable Smith provided CI-PERS with an update of the investigation and advised her of the outcome of inquiries made as well as the addition of Taressa Williams' photograph to the missing women poster. Constable Smith telephoned ICBC, and was advised there was no record of Williams ever applying for a driver's license. Constable Smith left a message for Detective Beckwith, inquiring whether identification had been established of human remains found in March.

462. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 187, and do believe that on October 1, 1999, Constable Smith contacted Detective Constable Clark and advised her that all avenues of investigation in the disappearance of Taressa Williams had been exhausted, and that Constable Smith had decided that the investigation, including the entire file, would be sent to VPD for their continued investigation. Constable Smith noted that the VPD was actively investigating the Williams file, and further efforts by the White Rock RCMP Detachment would only serve to duplicate the endeavors of the VPD. Constable Smith compiled a package to be sent to the VPD, fully outlining the investigation already undertaken by the White Rock RCMP Detachment. Also included, at the request of Detective Clark, were CPIC and PIRS Off-Line searches, and a copy of the completed ViCLAS.

463. I am advised by a review of Document EV3741, page 66, and do believe that on November 9, 1999, Detective Constable Clark noted that the Williams missing person investigation was forwarded to her by Constable Smith.

464. I am advised by a review of Document EV8761, page 177, and do believe that on November 17, 1999, Detective Constable Clark contacted Constable Smith and advised that she had received the remainder of the file, sent on October 1, 1999, and that it had been added to the VPD file. Detective Constable Clark suggested that if Williams' mother, CI-PERS had any questions, she could contact either Clark or her partner, Detective Constable Shenher. Constable Smith contacted CI-PERS and explained that the White Rock RCMP Detachment file was being concluded, and that the VPD was continuing the investigation. CI-PERS was advised that Detective Constables Clark and Shenher were now the contact persons.

465. I am advised by a review of Document EV3785, page 3, and do believe that on December 19, 2001, Constable ,Williams, of Project Evenhanded, reviewed White Rock RCMP Detachment File #98-1321 and VPD File #99-57168 and advised that all data bases had been queried, and posters and photographs had been distributed, none of which produced any results. The Coroner's Office, the Department of Indian Affairs, and Vital Statistics for Canadian provinces and Washington State had been queried, which also did not produce any results. Williams' dental records had been added to CPIC, which included her aliases Lynn Chappell and Sharra-Lynn Chappell. Williams had no social insurance number. It was noted that Williams' ex-boyfriend/pimp'CI-PERS may still be in custody in Ontario, and needed to be interviewed. All indications on file suggested he was the last person to see Williams, and additional indices queries should be conducted with police and other agencies.

JULIE YOUNG:

466. In January 2012, I was provided with electronic records of the investigations conducted by the Hope RCMP Detachment, the VPD Missing Persons Section, and Project Evenhanded into the Julie Louise Young missing person complaint. d) CI-PERS last spoke with Julie when Julie called her from a payphone from skid road in Vancouver and said "this was something I have to do". CI-PERS was not sure if it was in reference to detox (detoxification treatment). She checked with the Ministry of Human Resources, but they advised they had no record of Julie Young going for treatment;

e) Julie mentioned going to Taiwan for quick money, but CI-PERS did not feel Julie had the wherewithal to do this. Julie's sister, CI-PERS (last name unknown), who lived on Vancouver Island, had also been talking with Julie about going to Taiwan, but she did not feel that Julie had a plan in place;

f) Julie usually called once a month, and would often be gone for up to six weeks at a time, but no longer;

g) Julie had no boyfriends, but CI-PERS was aware that Julie's ex-husband was somewhere up north, but was not involved and their history was not violent;

h) Julie has not drawn welfare since October 1998, her November 1998 cheque was not cashed or picked up, nor was Julie in jail;

i) Julie had dental records on file with Dr. Drobis or Dr. Erickson, in Hope, and Julie had qualified for methadone, but chose not to go on a program.

469. I am advised by a review of Document EV3752, page 36, and do believe that on June 13, 1999, Constable K. Simmons, of the Hope RCMP Detachment, noted a conversation with CI-PERS CI-PERS who advised that Julie Young left the Young residence in Hope on or about October 11, 1998. Julie Young called a couple of days later and told CI-PERS, "I just want you to know I'm O.K." According to CI-PERS, Julie Young had not collected a welfare cheque since mid October 1998. CI-PERS also stated that she did not know of any reason that Julie Young would have left British Columbia, and that Julie was heavily into prostitution.

470. I am advised by a review of Document EV3752, page 37, and do believe that on June 14, 1999, Corporal G.V. Preston, of the Hope RCMP Detachment, received a call from the VPD. Corporal Preston was advised that the VPD had noticed the missing person entry on CPIC, and were requesting further details. Preston was advised that the VPD had a task force looking at missing sex trade workers, and that this woman fits their profile. Direction was provided to Constable Simmons to obtain a recent photo and dental records, and to forward these items with the Young missing person file to the VPD.

471. I am advised by a review of Document EV3752, page 36, and do believe that on June 18, 1999, Constable Simmons contacted CI-PERS who provided information to help complete a missing person form. 474. I am advised by a review of Document EV2859, page 4, and do believe that on June 30, 1999, inquiries were conducted with the British Columbia Center for Women to determine if Julie Young was or had been in custody, but no records were located, as referenced by Corporal Van Overbeek and Detective Constable Alex Clark.

475. I am advised by a review of Document EV3752, page 31, and do believe that on July 6, 1999, an unidentified member of the VPD received a complaint from CI-PERS that her daughter, Julie Young, was missing. The VPD created File #99-14710. Julie Young was noted as having no fixed address.

476. I am advised by a review of Document EV3752, page 49, and do believe that on July 6, 1999, Staff Sergeant David Ashbaugh, of the Hope RCMP Detachment, forwarded a memorandum to the Chief Constable of the VPD, enclosing photographs of Julie Young provided by CI-PERS. It was also noted that CI-PERS had been very slow at providing any information about her daughter.

477. I am advised by a review of Document EV2859, page 4, and do believe that on July 21, 1999, an unidentified member advised that CI-PERS had called and advised that Julie Young's street name was "Darby".

478. I am advised by a review of Document EV2859, page 4, and do believe that on July 27, 1999, Julie Young's dental records were received from Dr. Drobis, as referenced by Corporal Van Overbeek.

479. I am advised by a review of Document EV3752, page 55, and do believe that on November 18, 1999, Detective Constable Clark wrote Constable D.J. Scott, of the Hope RCMP Detachment, and requested that buccal swabs be taken from CI-PERS and Julie Young's two daughters.

480. I am advised by a review of Document EV2859, page 5, and do believe that on November 25, 1999, Detective Constable Clark telephoned CI-PERS to obtain consent for the RCMP to attend her residence and take DNA samples from each family member. During the conversation, CI-PERS advised that Julie Young might use the last name Oliver.

481. I am advised by a review of Document EV8704, page 12, and do believe that on January 21, 2000, Constable Scott obtained buccal swabs from four of Julie Young's family members. The buccal swabs were secured in a locked cabinet at the VPD.

482. I am advised by a review of Document EV8704, page 11, and do believe that on May 16, 2001, Detective Constable Clark obtained one PAP smear slide of Julie Young from CI-PERS CI-PERS of the British Columbia Cancer Agency.

483. I am advised by a review of Document EV2859, page 16, and do believe that on November 30, 2001, Corporal Van Overbeek completed a missing person profile of Julie Young.

484. I am advised by a review of Document EV2859, pages 13 to 14, and do believe that on December 31, 2001, Constable Williams, of Project Evenhanded, completed a missing person report (audit) relative to Julie Young. Re: ABIGOSIS - Marlene Yvonne BD: 1956-11-23 Missing Person

As per our conversation this date, I am forwarding a copy of our file in regards to the captionally noted missing person who, according to her sister, was reported to your detachment in 1984 as missing.

I have conducted checks with the Crown Office in Manitoba where there was a stay of charges entered on 1991-01-09, against ABIGOSIS, however they no longer have any record of same.

It is my belief that the charges originated some time prior to 1991 and that more than likely there had been outstanding warrants for ABIGOSIS possibly prior to 1984.

ABIGOSIS's sister, CI-PERS is now residing in PID and believes that her sister is a good candidate for the PIG FARM investigation. According to CI-PERS her sister was a drug addict and a possible prostitute who was last known to be living in the East Hastings area.

I am also enclosing a photograph of ABIGOSIS, which according to CI-PERS was taken in 1983.

Our file is now concluded, however should you require any further assistance please contact Cst. Bob ISAACS of the General Investigation Section in our detachment at 250-364-2122

Yours truly,

Cliff Aschenbrenner, Staff Sergeant

Bob,
Note received from Ont. I had forgotten they had a strike on. If you need to check the whole Province of Ont. when the strike ends, we can probably arrange it too.

Hi Mike: The system that I have access to is only about 2 1/2 years old and the other system is not accessible at this time due to a labor strike. However, that being said, I ran your person with the resources available. Unfortunately I didn't find her, but I find a few people with similar surnames... possible relatives????

Hi Mike
I am looking fo a Marlene Yvonne ABIGOSIS BD: 1956-11-23 who according to her sister has been missing since 1984. I tracked a stay on a criminal code charge against her on 1991-01-09 out of Selkirk, Manitoba.
Selkirk RCMP and the court registry have destroyed/archieved their records now and I am wondering if you have any way of checking to see if she is collecting assistance.
She also has some alias,s:

940829		Circumstances: COM is a recovering cocaine addict who attends a rehabab centre in Vanc Monday to Fri. COM met his common law (VIC) on Fri Aug 19 94. They went downtown and did some shopping etc. COM had to go back to the rehab. centre that night and was to be released in the AM of 940820. VIC boarded a bus at 11th Ave and Commercial and was on her way back to their residence. When COM arrived home early Sat. AM (0600 hrs on 940820) from the rehab. centre. VIC was gone. There was indication that she had returned after shopping to the residence. Her wallet and several shopping bags were inside the house. There was no sign of a struggle. COM found it odd that the bedroom window was opened. It usually is just opened a bit with a wooden slider in it for security reasons. The window was wide open (ground floor of the apartment complex) and the slider was near by. VIC has not been heard from since. All her clothing + personal belonging (make-up / wallet etc) are at home

940829	cont'r	VIC is an ex hooker / street person. She worked the streets for several months until the COM met her. She wanted to get her life back together again and moved in with the COM. They have been living C.L. for the past 6 months. They have had no problems with the relationship and COM advised that everything was okay. VIC has no serious drug or alcohol problems. She is a casual dope smoker. COM advises that approx a month ago VIC was downtown where she ran into a Karl L/NU. He asked her where has she been and when is she coming back to work for him. She told him to get lost and told the COM about this latter that day. Karl or Carl apparently has long red hair and has numerous tatoo's on both arms. Nothing more is known about him. COM is convinced that foul play is involved and that she is being held against her will. VIC has not been seen or heard from for 10 days. COM and his friends have been searching the streets for her to no avail.

This is the statement of CI-PERS DOB: PID

ADDRESS: # PID, Phone: Nil

this 6th day of September, 1994, at 1320 hours.

CI-PERS can you tell me about the last time you saw Angela ARSENEAULT? She came to the treatment centre at around 5^00 p.m. and we went down to Pacific Centre. This was on Friday August 19 1994. We did some shopping and took the Skytrain back. I walked her to the bustop at Commercial and 11th Ave right across from the Railway Pub. It was approx 9:15 pm (2115). I saw her get on the bus. It was heading for Commercial + Hastings. I told her that I would see her at 6:15 A.M. the next morning when I got out of the treatment centre. I got released from the treatment at 0600hrs. One of the clients gave me a ride home. I got home at approx 6:15. I noticed the light on and thought she was probably up. When I walked in she wasn't anywhere. I thought something was wrong right away. The bedroom window was open and all the lights were on. There was a small shopping bag on the counter beside the door. She had that when we were shopping. so I ~~don't~~ know she got home at some time. It is like she went to get us breakfast and she would come back. She left her wallet and I.D behind. She had $105^00 with her I gave it to her to take home as I'm not allowed anything over 20^00 in the Centre. It was at the house in her wallet laying on the counter I knew something was wrong.

I have read this statement and it is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

941009	cont	Writer contacted the mother CI-PERS and advised her of the updated information. She wants to do the poster / reward campaign and help out however she can. It should be noted that she has not gone to any great efforts to get involved. She has spoken to everyone she knows that know Angela but has no update. Writer recommended she start to make calls to the various agencies in Vanc.
		Writer attended CI-PERS residence and had a chat with him. He advised that his sister thought she saw Angela in New West. CI-PERS has basically put her out of his mind and does not want any more stress. He thinks its time for him to move on. CI-PERS has been drinking heavily lately and admitted to being involved in several physical altercations with unknown persons. When asked about possible drug debt he said that was ridiculous and denied it. He stated that any idiot can call in (the detachment) and say any thing they want.

(See 1624 recieved from Bdy Drugs) She advised that she saw the COH CI-PERS a month or so ago on CKVU news regarding the missing girlfriend (his) ARSENEAULT She thought it was a joke because CI-PERS is a real dirt bag (her words) She knows him though her mother. They used to be neighbours in the 4000 BLK Perry (Parry) ST Vanc (PID in an apartment complex. She advised he was a big time coke dealer, and used to beat up his previous girlfriend. She said he would get drunk or stoned and go after hookers etc. for sex. If they did not perform for him he would smack them around. CI-PERS advised that she thinks CI-PERS still has keys for that apartment block in Vanc and says he still goes there. She advised that she does not know the missing "ARSENEAULT" or know where she might be. She still thinks CI-PERS owes money over previous drug dealings. She says she knows the owner of the apartment complex at PID PID His name is CI-PERS and he can be reached at PID (Note: He does not live on site)

941211		Cst. Linda ARMSTRONG reviewed this file and offered the following suggestions:
		(1) Thought the Polygraph test was a good idea and to make sure that Sgt. BAHBANEK is aware of this.
	*	(2) For writer to get ahold of Van. Street crew and or V.C.P. Vice Squad and touch base with them. To send some of the "Missing Person" posters to them for distribution - to see if V.C.P is aware of a pimp called "[redacted]" or "[redacted]" with long red hair.
		(3) To start thinking about starting a "Timelin on the COM and the missing. - to do more PIRS checks on both the COM and the VIC.
		(4) To touch base with the tipster CI-PERS and make some more enquiries
		(5) To think about approaching Crimestoppers for assistance.
		(6) To check with Welfare again regarding the vic's cheques.

941227		The vic step dad CI-PERS and her grandmothers (one from New Brunswick and one from Edmonton) attended our office. Writer spoke at length with all parties and updated them on the file. Writer went thru the file with them and explained all aspects of the investigation. The grandmothers cannot accept the possibility that she (missing) could have been involved in prostitution. They think that she is probably deceased and has met with foul play. CI-PERS is more optemistic and is still hoping for the best.
	*	A couple of interesting points surfaced during our conversation. ① Apparently the COM + the vic were to go boating on the AM of the disappearance. They were suppose to go to COM favorite lake somewhere in the Pemberton / Whistler area. It is unknown if they ever did go. According to the COM they never did go. as he claims she was missing when he arrived home from the rehab centre.

950105		CI-PERS is contacted at his residence. He is advised of the upcoming Polygraph test of Thurs. 950112 at 0930hrs.

His comments were -

- that his phycologist advised him not to take the test because there not accurate
- that the test only be about the ex-girlfriend (missing) ARSENEAULT and not his violent past or his long time drug association.
- that he was advised to get a lawyer.

Note: Writer explained again to him that at this point he's not under arrest. This test is only done with his approval. and is totally volunteer. This is to assist in our investigation. The test is not admissable in the courts.

He was told if he wanted to get advise from a lawyer, it was his choice

CI-PERS then said that he wanted to clear his name once and forall and put this behind him. CI-PERS decided he would take the test as arranged.

He was telling me that he is the manager of the Cabaret "Jake Ogrady's" at Boundary Road and Hasting ST. Vanc. Our conversation turned towards a certain person who he said was a wing-nut. He mentioned that this guy said it girlfriend had been murdered. When I asked him if this was our COM CI-PERS he said it was. He advised that CI-PERS is a regular at this club and the staff are scared of him. He advised that CI-PERS is still a coke-head and thinks that ~~he~~ he is a physo. CI-PERS has been talking to him for several months and thinks there buddies. The manager said he's okay when he's strait, but scary when he's drunk or stoned. Writer gave him a card with phone #'s and file # and told him to call us if he's hears something that be able to assist us. He said he would casually try and get more information for us.

950123	1900	COM CI-PERS attended our office and spoke with writer. CI-PERS advised me of the following:
		- that he was downtown last night and spoke with several of the prostitutes. He was trying to find out about a PO14762 (nickname).
		(Note: PO14762 is the person who threatened ARSENEAULT to come back and work the streets). It is felt that PO14762 has some knowledge of ARSENEAULT.
		CI-PERS was told by three of the working girls that "PO14762" is in fact a "PO14762" and he is presently in Surrey Pre-trial. The girls said that they testified against him on some sexual assault cases. The girls did not know the missing ARSENEAULT.
	2000	Writer contacted Surrey Pre-trial at #599-4110 and confirmed PO14762 is in protective custody and has been since Oct of 94. (Note: Missing last heard from on Aug 20/94 and she had some contact with PO14762 just before she disappeared.

05 01 25 1100	Attended at Surrey Pre-Trial & interviewed POI4762 CI-PERS shown the poster of Arseneault. He stated he thought he recognized the girl from the print photo & stated that he did know her - CI-PERS states he last saw her in early mid-summer, 1994. Stated she was wearing a 1 piece black mini-shirt dress. Arseneault told POI4762 that her boyfriend had put her out on the street & that she was staying in Burnaby. POI4762 would not comment when asked if he tried to recruit her. He advised that Arseneault worked the area North of Hastings. She didn't have any "backing" or a spotter. This particular area is where any "independants" work. POI4762 states there are always disputes over territory & girls so perhaps Arseneault got caught up in a dispute. He state that she didn't appear to be very street wise and didn't seem to know the rules -

P014762 states that a girl has to be a hot seller before a pimp will move her to another area - such as Alberta. He states that Arsenault didn't fall into this category.

P014762 admitted that he is known by the first name of P014762 He took my business card & agreed to call the writer if he does hear anything. [redacted]

At this time it is difficult to determine that P014762 had anything to do with Arsenault's disappearance. Checks should be made to try & determine his whereabouts on the day that Arsenault went missing.

I am giving this statement to the police regarding an incident. (accident - fight - disturbance - crime - suspect - problem)

Q. CI-PERS have you recently received a phone call from Angela ARSENAULT from California?

A. No.

Q. When was the last time you spoke to or heard of/from Angela?

A. Oh I was December 92, 93 I was in Fort working as a live-in nanny & Angela called me from Vancouver. She wanted to see how I was doing & how life was going for me & to say hi because we had broken up for a year before this. She was living with a guy at that time who was really into drugs & she didn't want it in her life. I can't remember his name. I don't know how long she had been with him. A couple of days later, she gave me a phone call & told me she was with a new boyfriend & she was really happy & I haven't heard from her since. I have no idea what the new boyfriend's name was. All I knew is that

The old boyfriend worked for the City of Vancouver. I don't know what he did, but he was bringing alot of money home. He didn't come home for 3 days one time & she told me he was out doing cocaine. That's when she told me she was going to leave him.

Q. Do you know if Angela was working the streets in Vancouver?
A. No she wasn't when she called me.

Q. Had she before?
A. No I think the last time we ever heard was working the streets in Kelowna & we didn't even record that.

Q. Is there anything else you would like to add?
A. No, just if you find out where she is, let me know.

05 02 03	1832	Contacted CI-PERS @ PID CI-PERS after receiving a phone message. CI-PERS has known Arseneault for about a year. Approximately three weeks ago she saw Arseneault walking along Bay ave, Trail. She was with an elderly female of about the same age. There is no doubt as far as CI-PERS is concerned that the person she saw is Angela. CI-PERS didn't speak to her as CI-PERS was in a vehicle.
		CI-PERS has contacted the police only after being encouraged to do so by her Counsellor.
		CI-PERS doesn't know where Arseneault is at this time. Apparently Arseneault & her friends use to kick around the Province including up to Whitehorse. Apparently a friends (now deceased) parents use to live in that area.

COMMENTS / COMMENTAIRES RE: ARSENAULT ANGELA
MISSING PERSON

had report of sighting Arsenault in Trail area Jan 16-20 1995.
Statement obtained from CI-PERS & copy attached (Cdr. of ucr which CI-PERS was a pas)
Lady recalls Jones shouting out the window at someone however doesn't know ~~no~~ whom she shouted nor did she look to see.
Mr & Mrs CI-PERS have also attended Trail & spoken with Jones
I find it very strange that CI-PERS has seen Angela however none of Angelas other local friends have seen or talked to her.
Our file concluded & sighting in my opinion unconfirmed

...re CI-PERS what can you tell me about Angela Arsenault and your reported sighting of her in the Trail area.

I was travelling down Bay Avenue in Trail heading towards Dary Queen with a friend when I spotted Angie. I know her from a friend who died in July of '93. I screamed out her name and she looked back at me, smiled, waved and kept going down the street towards the Arlington Hotel. Angie was walking with a girl who had wavy ish sandy brown hair that came down to just past her shoulders (approx 2") the girl was wearing a tan-colored trench-coat with a white dress and white pumps. Angie was wearing a black leather jacket black stretch pants and dirty white runners. She also had a red and black plaid checkered jacket underneath her leather jacket. This was approximately at 5:00pm somewhere between Jan 16-20 '95. Since this incident I have never seen her. The last time (before Jan '95) I seen her in the begging of Aug '93 (days) just after our friend (Punky) Margaret Charmaine Ell's funeral.

Dear CI-PERS

Re: Information from Private Investigator

The private investigator that we hired to work on Angela's sighting is a retired officer from the New Westminster area. He was able to talk to his contacts at the police, and provided us with the following information.

A girl who looked very similar to Angela's picture was stopped in New Westminster (on 12 Street) by the police on April 3, 1995. She gave the name STW and a Vancouver address as her residence. She had no identification on her.

We contacted the owner of the address that she had given. There is no suite at his house, and he has never rented a room to a STW or anyone else, nor does he know any STW or anyone with Angela's description, as I described her to him over the phone. I sent a poster to the owner of the house, and if he recognizes her, he will be sure to contact us.

It would appear that the girl stopped gave false information to the police. We view this as positive because the girl that was stopped was probably trying to hide her identity, and her description appears to match Angela's.

The private investigator has told us that there is not much more that we can do at this time. If we hear anything else, we will contact you. Please let us know if you have any more information as well.

Yours truly,

C. Mills

Re: ARSENEAULT - Angela Mary
DOB: 77 0520
Burnaby Missing Person / File # 94-47424
Suspicious Circoms tances.

As per our previous telephone conversation, Angela was last seen on Friday August 19 94 by her boyfriend Cour com CI-PERS They went shopping together in the downtown Vanc. area. The com CI-PERS had to stay the night elsewhere, and walked Angela to the bus stop at Commercial ST. and 11th Ave Vanc at 2115 hrs where she boarded the bus.

When the com CI-PERS returned to their shared apartment at #PID at 0615 hrs on Sat August 20th / 1994. Angela was no where to be found. The lights were on inside the apartment and the bedroom window was open. The shopping bag that Angela had got last night was on the kitchen count We know that she arrived home sometime that night or early A.M. Her wallet including $100.00 cash and her I.D. was still here. No sign of a struggle inside the apartment, and the neighbors did not hear any thing unusual

The com advised us that Angela is an ex-prostitute, and that they have been living together for 6 months. He is convinced foul play is involved, and thinks it might have something to do with his previous heavy drug problem. (ie: debts etc).

Angela is described as a white female 5'6", 160 lbs with dark brown straight hair and brown eyes, with a heavy build. She has a large tattoo of a rose with a stem on the outside of her left leg just above the ank She is 18 yrs old. Angela also has a tattoo of Chinese symbol on her left shoulder, it says "Rock & Roll"

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:30:26 : Box 185 : 0402542 : 2204]

An extensive poster campain in Canada and the U.S. has produced negative results. Several media blitzes including T.V. news stories has also been negative. There has been several possible sightings of Angela in the past 20 months but all were found to be false Angela's mother CI-PERS (#PID) has been in steady contact with Angela's relatives as far away as New Brunswick. Nobody has heard any thing from her to date

CI-PERS has a VHS tape of Angela just before she went missing. We have good photographs of her as well on our file Her family is convinced she was abducted, and is being held against her will.

A couple of possible suspects have surfaced but further investigations have ruled them out. We are at a standstill in our investigation and feel that the Crime-Stoppers Program (on missing persons) would be of great benefit. This is only a brief synopsis of our investigation. If you would like more information on this file please contact writer or CI-PERS I hope you have enough information to work with to start the procedures for your program

Attached are a copy of some of the poster that were printed Note: We can not confirm what clothing Angie was wearing when she went missing

This a transcript of an telephone call between CI-PERS and CI-PERS recorded on 12 JUN 96.

RE: Angela ARSENAULT - Missing Person

Tape Starts ...

Telephone dialing:

TM: I have a piece of paper here "Missing since August 1994- Angela Mary ARSENAULT".

MK: That's my daughter.

TM: Ah, yah.

MK: And you left a message for me a while ago, is that right?

TM: Yeah. Yeah. That's right. It's kinda nerve wracking.

MK: It's nerve wracking for me too. My daughter's been missing for almost two years and I have no idea where she is.

TM: Well, see, I know who did it.

MK: Now who's that?

TM: CI-PERS

MK: Oh, is that right?

TM: I don't have the proof yet.

MK: That's ok.

TM: I know that ... like I am his roommate.

MK: You live with him now?

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:32 : Box 185 : 0402554 : 2204]

TM: I live with him now. And last night he was going on ... like he goes on about Angela quite a bit.

MK: Oh, is that right? What does he say?

TM: Well, you know, yesterday he said "that I could go missing - no problem and my mother will never know where I am".

MK: QK. Well I can get you some help for that you know.

TM: And he just sort of laughs about it.

MK: Why did he kill her, did he say?

TM: You know when the murder took place, two months prior to that he was over in my apartment on 5th Avenue running around with a telephone wire. He wanted to strangle somebody. Anybody.

MK: Is that right?

TM: He was going psycho. Like this was two months prior to Angela's death.

MK: Oh, is that right eh?

TM: And then I went away for about a year and I haven't been in touch with him. And now I moved in with him. And I mean, he told me that the police took a lie detector but he beat it.

MK: Yup. Oh, yeah.

TM: He is a pretty sicko kind of guy. My mom ... I was telling my mom about it today and she is ... like she believes he could be so ...

MK: We can help you, you know. To get away from him and stuff like that. Uh. Crimestoppers will help you with anonymity. He doesn't have to know what you are doing or anything.

TM: Yeah. Well I feel that ... that's right too - I feel that he is going to try the same on me.

MK: OK. Well let's get you some help then. Would you like to meet some place?

TM: Yeah.

MK: Where would you like me to meet you? I'll meet you anywhere.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:39 : Box 185 : 0402555 : 2204]

TM: I'm at the Skytrain right now.

MK: What Skytrain?

TM: At Patterson. Like I can take the Skytrain anywhere.

MK: OK. Do you want to take the Skytrain to ... now what's the one ... you've got me just in a fluster here. The Skytrain at Gateway.

TM: Yeah. I can go to Gateway.

MK: How will I know you?

TM: Well, I am wearing black jeans and a green shirt. And I have a lot of chrome on. My belt's chrome.

MK: Chrome belt. OK. I will wear a pair of jeans and I have got a green shirt now and I will leave it untucked.

TM: What?

MK: Untucked green shirt with short sleeves.

TM: Well you can spot me. I'm a clean-cut kind of guy. Clean shaven. Short haircut.

MK: Are you bringing anybody with you?

TM: No.

MK: Can I bring somebody with me?

TM: Yeah.

MK: Can I?

TM: Absolutely. This is a really scary thing to me. Like all day I have been really nervous about the situation.

MK: OK. Jump on the Skytrain and we will be there and meet you right at the bottom of the steps.

TM: Well, are we going to be able to get CI-PERS on this?

MK: You betcha. If you help me, we will get him.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:41 : Box 185 : 0402556 : 2204]

TM: Oh, I can. I have got so much on him right now.

MK: Do you?

TM: Well, he's on compensation right? He works for the city and he is on compensation. But at night time he rips off computers - breaks into stores and steals computers. Supposedly his shoulder is dislocated. But he steals these computers for his cocaine habit.

MK: So he is still into that stuff is he?

TM: Oh, badly.

MK: OK. You are going to meet me at the bottom of the steps at Gateway. I will be waiting there for you and there will be another man with me. He's wearing a striped shirt and a tie. He is from Missing Children of Canada. He's a real cool guy.

TM: OK. So I am going to leave right now.

MK: OK. I will leave right now and I am not far from there.

TM: 12 minutes or something.

MK: OK. I am leaving now too. I will be there.

TM: OK. Bye.

12 June 1996

This a transcript of an interview with CI-PERS and CI-PERS recorded on 12 JUN 96 by Fred MAILE.

Tape Starts ...

TM: .. He comes up there and he says ... "I'm going to kill someone". Like, oh my god, he is just psycho. And I just look at him like "Oh really - I'm going to the store now". You know. Like it's goodbye - I go to my mom's. You know I told my mom about this incident too because now he is threatening my life.

FM: OK. How did this ... when did you move in with him? I am talking about CI-PERS now.

TM: May 4th.

FM: May 4th of this year?

TM: Uh huh.

FM: And you say you had met Angela before that?

TM: Yeah. I met Angela. She was at my mom's house on 51st. She was also in my apartment on 5th Avenue and also at their apartment one prior time doing dope with Angela and CI-PERS for a few days.

FM: When was that?

TM: When he was on Kingsway.

MK: No. But can you give me a month or ... ?

TM: Oh shit no, I can't. It was a few years ago.

FM: 94, 95?

MK: Yes, it was 94 when they lived in Kingsway. In the summer probably.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:46 : Box 185 : 0402558 : 2204]

FM: Because she went missing in August 1994.

TM: Yeah.

FM: So just prior to that?

TM: Did she go missing in August?

FM: Yes, August 1994.

MK: They moved into this place ...

TM: So. They had moved in ... So it was about a year prior to that.

FM: OK. So you have known CI-PERS for a number of years?

TM: 17 years.

FM: How did you meet him?

TM: Through a friend of mine on 6th Avenue. He was just at a party. When I first met him, I was with my best friend Alicia and she pointed out this guy CI-PERS and they called him CI-PERS at that time and I just went kinda "yeah whatever" and he had a big mouth on him and whatever and he was ignorant. And I didn't have nothing to do with him for about two years. I wouldn't even speak to him. I would hang out with my friends and he was always there and he always wanted to meet and I would go "oh go away". I don't like to meet people who are ignorant and he was very ignorant. And what I did is when I was in my early 20's, I bought a car lot. You know the Classics on Kingsway and I sold cars and CI-PERS brought one of his friends by, CI-PERS and I hired CI-PERS to work for me and that's how me and CI-PERS became good friends. We were close friends then. You know, I found out a lot of information about that guy.

FM: OK. What were you mentioning something about how cruel he was. What was he doing?

TM: He would stick cats in the microwave oven. He would throw them off the bridge when he was driving his truck down. My friend CI-PERS the kid that I hired, he took his pet cat and threw him right off the bridge. The Knight Street bridge. When they were going over the bridge. He opened his window and said "watch this" and threw his cat out the window. Like holy fuck. He sticks puppy dogs in the microwave and watched them explode. You know, anyone who has got a mind like that is obviously ... like I was telling my mom today, all that guy does ... all he is doing now ... what he has done for the last year is that he lays on the couch and watches TV. Like about 9:30 or 10:00 at night he'll get up, jump in the truck, go steal a computer from any store. It doesn't matter if there's people walking down the street or whatever. He goes ahead, rips off the computer, throws it in the truck and drives away.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:48 : Box 185 : 0402559 : 2204]

FM: And that is to support what ...

TM: His drug habit. He gets high on coke. Then he starts talking psycho.

FM: OK. When did he first mention ... like about having anything to do with Angela's disappearance to you?

TM: I guess about four months ago. It has been on his mind all the time. In the last couple of weeks, it has been really weird though ... like I have told him to shut up because I mean ... the way he is talking is like ... oh, I don't know ... it's just really morbid. Like it's like, CI-PERS if you have such a guilty conscience about it, why don't you turn yourself in. And he's like ... they have no proof on me. Why would I turn myself in? I didn't do it. Yeah right. And then he'll look at me and laugh ... ha ha ha.

FM: What does he say about her then?

TM: Well he just says ... I don't know. It's hard to say. It's all about her dying and I mean, he never mentions the pimp. He never mentions the actual killing. Whoever was after her, you know, they obviously got her and they did something with her body. She's probably not even dead. Things like that. And he's talking about this like in a conversation. He brings it up out of the blue. You know, they're probably still looking for her body and they are never going to find it. Ha ha ha ha. It's like CI-PERS why tell me about it. I don't really care. If they are never going to find it, it's none of my concern. If they do find it, it's none of my concern.

MK: And he said he could beat the lie detector test.

TM: Oh yeah, I know that ... he has got a way of doing it. Like some people can do it. Like he just went for a polyscan for Workers Compensation, you go into the tube and they scan your body, x-ray, or whatever they did and 25% of the people can't do it. They have to give them Valium. He was one of the 25% that can't do it. Because he is a psycho. Like he just sets his mind and is just spaced out when he went through this thing and they had to shut off the machine. They told him it was $1,000. He just wasted $1,000. He told them "Fuck you, I can't handle it anyway". So the next week they took him back and they pumped him full of Valium and then he was ok. There was no problem.

FM: Has he said anything to you that makes you suspect he killed Angela?

TM: Yeah. He told me that ... what happened to Angela could happen to me and my mother will never know where I am. That's what he said to me last night.

FM: Now why would he say that to you? Were you arguing or ....?

TM: No. Not at all. I was in my room watching TV and he was in the living room watching TV. He comes out with these conversations. He comes in my room. "You know, they never found Angela's body. Right. You could very easily go too like that". I said "What are you talking about?" He goes "For instance, if you went missing tomorrow, your mom would phone me and say "Where's CI-PERS. My friends call me CI-PERS "Where's CI-PERS and I would say "I haven't seen him". And that would be the end of the conversation. Nobody would ever know where you are. Like hello. I go " I talk to my mom every day". "So one day you got drunk and no one has seen you again." You know, it's like, wow! You know.

MK: You know that transition house or whatever he was in.

TM: He got kicked out of it.

MK: Like when Angela went missing that Friday night. He said that he could get out of there without them knowing or something.

TM: Yeah. Yeah. He got kicked out of that place. I think he was only there six days.

MK: But he was in there when Angela went missing. Because she met him down there and he was supposed to be back in there and spend the whole night. He wasn't supposed to be out until six in the morning.

TM: So he got out the next day did he?

MK: He was supposed to get out at six in the morning, yeah.

TM: So what makes you think that she was killed Friday night? You know, CI-PERS smart. He's not stupid. He says to Angela "Look it, here's $50. Go stay at this hotel room and I'll meet you there and we will make up some lost time. She'll go to a hotel room, she'll bring the dope. She'll bring a gram or something for CI-PERS will start doing it and he will get fucked up on dope and he'll strangle her. I believe she is death by strangle. I believe that she has been strangled. I know the way he would do it. He wants to see someone squirm. He told me that over and over. He's told me so many details. He's told me about getting people and getting tube ... there's some guy he wants to get ... he wants to get a tube. A black tube. Piping. Shove it up his ass and stick a live rat up there. Like oh my god. Why are you telling me that. I mean I don't want to hear about it. You know.

FM: Can you ....

TM: Like he can off anyone and you guys can't do nothing about it.

FM: What we need is to know specific things that he may have said to you. Like, did has he ever said ... I think you have just explained he has never said that he actually killed Angela ... he has never said how she was killed.

TM: No.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:53 : Box 185 : 0402561 : 2204]

FM: He has never said why.

TM: No. No. Prior to him meeting Angela now, when he first met her ... you know I said to him like "what are you doing with that kid" and he said he liked her because she would do anything he said. "She is stupid and she'll do anything I say". Like what do you want a girl like that for? "Because she is young. She doesn't know any better." Like wow! OK. Whatever. You know and he made her do a lot of sex acts. Sex, sex sex. All the time. Even in front of me. In front of my friends. Whatever. She'd do it. You know. Because he tells her to.

MK: Was she high at the time or ...?

TM: No. He's got a very bad temper. You know ... and it goes off like that! Like yesterday afternoon. Just like that. And I don't understand why he is my friend but ...

MK: Is there anybody else that he knows like you? Is there anybody else he would confide in?

TM: Like he's a coke nut. He does coke. He does coke five days a week. And there's two days where he sleeps and when he is high on coke, he will go out in the street and pick up some airhead girl and whatever. It happened at my office _____. He picked up three girls and he raped every girl upstairs in the office. You know, I can't do anything about it because ... he threatens my life. You know. He has done this a lot. He has raped a lot of young girls. He just overpowers them. I don't if they call it rape. They are just young kids. They don't know if they have been raped or not. I don't know how they think ... I don't get involved in that but I've known about 30 girls that he has raped. Not raped but just grabbed and taken them against their own will.

FM: Well, that's called rape. Yeah.

TM: That's what he does when he's high.

FM: What we require to go to the police with is something that ... something specific ... something solid.

TM: I know that there is nothing that he has said to me specifically solid. I know what you need and for him to say that to me. I think when the time comes that he does tell me - I believe he will tell me - I think he is going to kill me.

MK: Are you scared now?

TM: No. I have never been scared of him. And people tell me in the past ... like when I used to own the car lot, I used to carry ... like in my home, in my house, in my safe ... I had $30,000 in my safe. People used to tell me that CI-PERS going to kill you". CI-PERS going to rob you. Stay away from CI-PERS Don't trust to him. He talks like he's going to murder you." And it's like "whatever". I am not scared. I am not afraid of death.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:32:55 : Box 185 : 0402562 : 2204]

Like my life sucks. The 33 years of my life have not been really great, you know. Nothing to talk about.

FM: Did he mention taking the polygraph? Like to do with Angela?

TM: Yeah. He took a polygraph. It was not a problem for him.

FM: Is that what he said?

TM: He said "those things are so stupid. I can't understand why they have them in the first place."

FM: Did he say that he beat it?

TM: "They're easy to beat" he said. He told me plain and clear that he "beat it - no problem" and that "they shouldn't be in the system because they are useless". But he also said that clears his name. "It cleared my name. Polygraph saved my life." If it wasn't for the polygraph, he would be in prison. The thing is to find out where the body is. That's what I would like to find out. I mean I don't know what he would do with it. There's not much he can do with it but it's obviously somewhere where someone is not going to find it.

FM: Would you be willing ... I know it is a weird expression ... but to be wired up some time and ... Would you go along with that?

TM: Yeah.

MK: I'll get a kit together for you and some time ... you know ... when you guys are ...

TM: He is so scary. Like when he's ... it's easy for me to talk to him. All I have to do is bring up the subject and he is just full of information - just talk, and talk, and talk. But I just can't handle it. I mean my mind is a very instant mind. It doesn't really go out very much. I don't know many people. I don't care about most people. I do care about people but in general, those people, I would never to speak to them and if they were to ever speak to me, I would ... excuse me, sorry.

FM: Here's what I am thinking. If I or a police officer came to you ... you are still living with him ... came to your place one day ... afternoon ... whatever ... night and one of two things, interviewed him again about Angela or talked to you. Like "who are you" we would like to talk to you too. And one of two things, the first thing that comes to my mind is someone like myself could say to him "yeah OK, one thing I want you to know as far as we are concerned, you're #1 on our suspect list". That polygraph means nothing to us. Then we leave. Do you think you would ...

TM: Yeah. He would go ... he would go insane. He's not perfect. He is far from perfect and he thinks he is so damn perfect. You know.

FM: That's what I was thinking. If we could ... I mean we will give it more thought, OK but if we got a kit to wire you up and then you would know when we were coming and we would just come and do an interview with him and I would just like to lay it on the line with him. You know, explain ... I was in that business for 25 years and you aren't pulling any wool over my eyes. You know.

TM: And he would probably confide in me because I believe that I have known him 17 years same as my friend CI-PERS but she's hooked on dope too so he doesn't confide in her anymore. But I'm not hooked on dope so he confides in me about everything. And I always tell him to shut up because I don't want to hear most of it.

MK: So you could get him talking. Especially if these guys ... if they come in and he would be ....

TM: That would be no problem but then I would have to worry about my life.

FM: Well, what I am thinking ...

TM: Well after you guys are gone ... after you have gone and he is busted ... he's going to come after me.

FM: That's what I am saying, is when we are gone, we wouldn't be gone long and what we could also do is phone your place say half an hour later and just ... gees I think I left a pen there or ... had a little flashlight in my briefcase - did you guys see it laying around. And we could have a signal where you could say everything is all right or ... You know.

TM: I am not allowed to answer the phone.

FM: You don't answer the phone?

TM: I am not allowed to. No.

FM: You can not answer the phone?

TM: No.

FM: OK. So he's going to answer the phone. Well, that's OK. It's OK for me to say or however we set this up whether it is me or somebody else, to say ... we will come up with some excuse.

TM: You guys leave and he goes on about whatever. And I'll pump him for information and I'll play the game and then say when he admits it to me, or if he admits anything, say he admits it then somewhere at the table I find a bug or something like that. They've wired the joint. They have got it on tape.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:00 : Box 185 : 0402564 : 2204]

FM: Yeah. I have to think about ... what I also have to think of is court ... OK. Everything has to be done in a manner that is acceptable to the courts because the only thing that we can do to him is get him into court and get him charged. You know what I mean.

MK: Like put him away forever.

TM: Then what you have to do is indicate that I am the informant.

FM: Well, somewhere down the road.

TM: Well, I don't care. If that is what it takes. If that what it takes.

MK: Crimestoppers said that they can help you with being an informant and stuff.

TM: Well, I mean that's if I told a bit of information about something and he went out and did the crime. Like doing these computer things, but this is a little different. I would have to testify.

FM: Yeah. This is different. And what we ask a lot of times of a lot of people ... well this is, let's face it, this is the ultimate crime when somebody kills somebody and you have the mother sitting in the back seat right now and if CI-PERS did kill her daughter, I think there comes a time when a guy has got to step forward.

TM: I believe he did very much like me and my mom were talking today that justice has to be served. Even if they didn't find who actually murdered her, if they found the body, that would be nice. Like _____.

FM: Yeah.

TM: It is important to find the body even for your sake. Just to have the body.

MK: Yes. It's been three years now.

TM: Like she was only 17. My niece is 16. And he is coming up to my niece and talking like ... dirty ... and I said "You do that once more and I'll move out". Go near my niece and I'll move out. He doesn't want me to move out.

MK: Do you think we should talk to the police or ...

FM: What we will do is talk to the police and see what they want to do with this.

MK: Do you feel safe going home and everything?

TM: Oh yeah. I have no choice. I have to play the game. I mean I have been trying to nail CI-PERS for the computers so I have worked with the police already. We have set up on him and they just miss him by two hours and stuff. I just ... the cops want me to ...

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:02 : Box 185 : 0402565 : 2204]

MK: Burnaby?

TM: The cops want me to go do the crime with him. The only way he will go and do a B&E if I go with him. So I went with him once at 11:30 at night. We finished at 10 after 12. I phoned the police and said "what the fuck are you guys doing?" We broke into the store, stole the computers, threw them in the truck. I think the cops are going to jump us any minute now and no ... we drive away. At 1:00 a.m.

MK: That's the RCMP ...

TM: No, I work with the West Van police. And again at 1:00 in the afternoon on a Sunday afternoon, it's like are you guys set up on this situation or what. He's getting away with it. Now I have backed out of it.

FM: What does he do with the computers?

TM: He sells them to his computer buddies at Kootenay Loop.

FM: It's a computer store then.

TM: No, the guy's just a ... he owns a bakery. So he sells computers then to him and when I was working with the police, they wanted to know where the computers went ... it's like, I can't tell you. If I tell you where the computers are going, then CI-PERS will figure out that I am the rat. And I didn't want it _____ for two years.

MK: Maybe give your mom's phone number too so ... you are in touch with your mom every day.

TM: Yeah.

FM: I didn't get your pager number.

TM: Yeah. I'll give you my mom's number. If you need to get a hold of me, it's good to leave a message with my mom.

FM: What's her name?

MK: CI-PERS

TM: Yes. And her number is PID .

FM: Now you tell her ... warn her. You know, so she know who's calling.

TM: Yeah. I will be talking to her tonight.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:04 : Box 185 : 0402566 : 2204]

FM: I'll give you a card but I don't know if you want to carry it around.

TM: Well, I'll just leave the card at my mom's. I can't carry it around.

FM: No. Because I know ...

TM: If he ever found this card, I'd be dead. I don't know what I'd say to him.

FM: Just say to him that I work for the same people - Missing Children Society.

TM: I can't say that. I would nail his ass.

FM: But they were around to see him.

TM: Yeah. But I don't want them ...

MK: He's not working right now?

TM: No, he's on compensation. He is on compo. He's really good at it too. I mean I don't know how someone can be on compensation ... he's been on compensation now for eight months ... a year anyway ... how he can get away with being on compensation but yet ... he has a sore shoulder ... he can break into a store through the mailbox, rip out a computer ... rip two or three computers, load them up into his truck, run back and forth and do this and still be on compensation.

FM: Where does he do most of his B&E's? West Van. North Van?

TM: Mostly Burnaby.

MK: Is he still in the same apartment where Angela was living? In the same apartment where his mom's ...

TM: In building PID though. He's in PID

FM: OK. That's what we will do. So I'll have a talk with the police tomorrow and see how much they want to get involved ...

TM: Here. I don't want to keep this paper. I am just going to leave it here because I don't want ...

MK: Well that's why I thought you must be somebody that knew what was going because I haven't been _____ the poster for about three months.

TM: I have known about it for about two months. I just didn't know what to do. You know.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:06 : Box 185 : 0402567 : 2204]

I don't really want to get involved because I know what CI-PERS is like but it just ... I mean the more he talks morbid tome, the more it kind of irritates me, you know. And now I am at the point, for myself, justice has to be served.

MK: Tell me something. Did you know his first girlfriend before he met Angela?

TM: Yeah.

MK: What ever happened to her. Angie was telling my mom something one time?

TM: I knew CI-PERS for about nine or 11 years and I couldn't begin to tell you. Anyway, she was very young as well. She was 14 or 13 when he met her. And he controlled her very well. She worked at Canadian Tire ... not Canadian Tire ... Beaver Lumber ... just up the street from their apartment on Kingsway. She worked there for many years and I had some problems with CI-PERS when I owned the car lot. I was ripped off a couple of times. Once for $130,000 which I know he was involved in. And I said "OK. I'll prove it today". That's why I am after him. For my own satisfaction. But I am doing this computer thing to nail his ass. With Angie, it's different. OK. Anyway, what happened was he burned me and I was after him and I phoned CI-PERS one day and I said "Look it. You know what ..." And she said "What?" And it was like son of a bitch ... so I talked to her for about half an hour on the phone and said CI-PERS fucked up on coke. He's doing lots of coke. She is so naive. She doesn't he was doing coke. And at this point, he wasn't seeing Angela. He had this other girlfriend that he was meeting at the hotel on Kingsway down there ... whatever that dump is called ... East Indian donuts. A 24-hour whatever it is. Anyway, I told CI-PERS all about Angie and this girl CI-PERS was seeing and I said that he's planning on kicking you out at the end of the month. She is like "no way". Two days later, CI-PERS says to me "Guess what. My girlfriend said that I have a girl on the side and my girlfriend moved out on me". No way. Really.

MK: Angela said to my mom when we were on holidays back East one time about CI-PERS old girlfriend and I always wondered about that but I never ...

TM: She was very innocent and she never used drugs. She never used alcohol. She always obeyed him. Even when he raised his voice, she obeyed him. Just like a little puppy dog and that's what he likes. Angie was different. She did drugs. He didn't like that. But he would push it on her to do it. You know, he would push it on you to do it, drink beer with him, whatever! He would push it on her. She smoked cigarettes. He made her quit smoking. He didn't like the idea that she smoked. She never smoked around him. She wasn't allowed to. I am sure she wasn't allowed to answer the telephone too because he doesn't like people answering his telephone.

MK: She said she didn't have a phone.

TM: He had a cell phone.

MK: Yeah. That's since she has been missing.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:09 : Box 185 : 0402568 : 2204]

TM: No, he has had the cell phone for quite a few years.

MK: Oh, is that right? He just gave me that phone number at Christmas time.

TM: 205?

MK: I don't know. I have never called it.

TM: Yeah. 205 now.

FM: OK. I'll be talking to the police tomorrow. I will see what they say, if they are interested... fine. If they are not, we will go ahead anyway.

MK: I want to get him good.

TM: Well I don't know how we can get him.

FM: Well we will get him this way. Like I just said. We will set it up and I think the idea of doing an interview with him and putting him on the spot ...

TM: It will bring up the subject ... and I mean.

MK: Will he have a tape recorder?

FM: He will be wired.

TM: Just tell him something like ... you know ... you just can murder people and get away with it. They are going to haunt you forever. And just see what he has to say about that. You know ... he's either going to say "well let them haunt me forever because they're not going to have any evidence" or "soon they won't be able to find me or soon they'll have something better to do" or whatever. I don't know what it is ... it's hard for me to ...

FM: All we can do is try. You know. I think it is worth a shot for us to heat him up and then leave and you know if whatever arrangement we have to wire you or have some kind of device like that ...

TM: When was it found out that she was missing?

MK: I talked to her on the Friday, the 19th of August. And [CI-PERS] reported her missing on Sunday. The following Sunday.

TM: He was out that Sunday.

MK: He was out for that weekend. He was out for the Saturday and Sunday and he came over and told my husband who was working across the street from him that ... "hey, have you seen Angela?"

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:11 : Box 185 : 0402569 : 2204]

TM: How would he know she is missing if she is only gone two day? Like maybe she is over at a girlfriends. Maybe she's out somewhere. See [CI-PERS] thinks ... what he does is ...

MK: Like she missed everything ... she didn't go to school, she didn't go to welfare and pick up a cheque.

TM: But what I am saying .. [CI-PERS] point of view is ... he doesn't really know Angela for a long time and she could have other friends. She could have gone over to one of her girlfriend's for the weekend. Like how does he know where she is. But what he did, is he severed all her connections with everybody. Like "you're only with me". He doesn't want ...

MK: They were going to rent a boat that Saturday when he came out and he was supposed to go and pick her up on Saturday. He was getting a lift in the morning and they were going to get together and rent some kind of a boat and go boating that day.

TM: Where?

MK: I don't know. She never told me.

TM: I have never known [CI-PERS] to go boating.

MK: No?

TM: He's not a boating kind of person. He's not a water person. He doesn't like the water.

MK: The psychic saw water in Angela's ....

FM: We will be in touch tomorrow or the next day and before we do anything, we will run it by you so you feel comfortable with whatever we do. We don't go off half-cocked OK. We will make sure everybody is comfortable with what is going down. And if you are not comfortable, you let us know. OK?

TM: I feel comfortable. I mean as long as I know what's going on ... you know. I don't really care. I mean, I like to find out ... I should ask ... but I can't really bring up any subjects though. I can ask him like today ...

MK: Like maybe you shouldn't even bring it up at all until after you talk to him. Like to avoid the whole thing until ...

TM: I was thinking like what I could bring up was "you know I was with my friend today and we want to rent a boat. Do you know a good place to rent a boat. How much it costs?" I mean it is just conversation ... camping kind of stuff. And he could tell me a good place where to rent a boat is. Now if he tells me a good place to rent a boat, where it is, some lake or whatever, maybe that's where her body is. Maybe they could dig up ... or whatever ... I don't know. I mean can you go on a hunch to do that?

FM: Yeah. We can. I don't know about the police but we certainly can.

TM: I mean I know [CI-PERS] has no camping in his life. He doesn't do any swimming. He doesn't do any boating. Now if he tells me a place where I can rent a boat for cheap ... for a good price ... then that would be your ideal place where you can rent a boat. Now can you guys run a thing and find out where he rented the boat?

FM: I haven't' been involved.

MK: I told the police that ... it's a long story. I have had a fight with the police for two years.

TM: I am sure if you find out where he rented the boat .... then that's where...

MK: But he didn't rent the boat because Angela wasn't there.

TM: Right. That's what he said. So where was he Saturday? What happened Saturday?

MK: There you go.

TM: If she wasn't around on Saturday, he would have phoned you Saturday looking for her.

MK: Yup.

TM: But he didn't phone you Saturday. He didn't phone you until Sunday. So she went missing on Sunday. And where did she go...

FM: Monday.

TM: Whichever. He got out Saturday and he reported it Monday. Why didn't he phone on Saturday or Sunday? He said that ...

MK: He reported it to the police on Sunday.

TM: How convenient. How convenient she left Friday night. You know. Why did she leave Friday night? She probably left Saturday morning. Why Friday night.

MK: .... he got home at 6 o'clock in the morning and she wasn't there and all her things were then.

TM: So he just waited around for two or three days. See I don't buy into that. He's not stupid. That's one thing he's not. He's not stupid. That's the thing. That's the thing that really bothers me. For the fact that he thinks he can do it again and get away with it. That what bothers me. And I believe he will do it. You know. And I believe he will get away with it because all he is doing is ... he wants a total stranger. He wants someone who doesn't have a lot of connections with people. And here's me with no connections to people. Except my mom.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:15 : Box 185 : 0402571 : 2204]

MK: And Angela's mom.

TM: I don't know you.

MK: I am Angela's mom and I can't find her either you know.

FM: OK. I have to talk to CI-PERS and after I talk to her we will probably be setting some scenarios up and seeing what we can do. I have worked with CI-PERS over the years and I am sure that she ... she phoned me to come out here ...

MK: CI-PERS with Missing Children of Canada and I have been dealing with her for two years.

FM: And I have ...

TM: And when did you come out here today?

MK: I called Missing Children when you called the first time and they were lucky ... I didn't know what to do. Like ...

TM: I went to get the phone book and I phone and there was another number on there and I wasn't prepared to ...

MK: That was a pager number. The 667 was a pager number and I changed my message and left my home number on it so that you could call me.

TM: When I saw your home number I had to put two more quarters ... after that and I couldn't ... 581 and the number has changed and I didn't have a pen, I was like ... oh shit. You know and I ...

MK: I know. That was the pager number because we had gotten a lot of crank calls over the years. We have had some pretty weird calls. So we decided we would use a pager number on the posters and kinda screen it ...

TM: I feel so bad for people ... to lie about something like this ... this is not a thing you lie about. This isn't a game. And CI-PERS thinks it's a game and people like CI-PERS. I mean, he watches those biographies every day. Clifford OLSON. All these murdering psychopaths and he's right into it. He wants to know everything about it. And it blows my mind. Every day he is watching a new one. "Why are you watching this CI-PERS Who cares about people who murdered people. Like who cares about it?" I mean I don't want ... for myself it doesn't do anything for me. Those people shouldn't get air time on the TV.

FM: That's right.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:18 : Box 185 : 0402572 : 2204]

TM: And CI-PERS is going to be on there. Soon. Like he's going to get airtime. If he doesn't get busted this time, he is going to do it again. I mean if society wants to risk and play little games with CI-PERS he will come out on top. You know, because he doesn't care about that.

FM: Is his ex-girlfriend like angry with him ...

TM: CI-PERS Um... I don't know. I think she won't have anything to do with him. She thinks he's a _____.

FM: So what I am saying, is there any sense of me going to talk to her.

TM: You could talk to her. Find out information from her.

FM: Do you know how I can get hold of her.

TM: The only way you can get hold of her is through her uncle. I have the number. PID His name is CI-PERS And that is CI-PERS CI-PERS is the niece of PID CI-PERS OK. And PID phone number is PID

FM: OK.

TM: She lived with him for about 10 years.

MK: She was living with him when he met Angela too. I knew that.

TM: And I was the one who nailed his back. I told CI-PERS all about this other girl. At first ... your daughter was just a sex slave. There's just about sex slaves when he's high and he got a lot of different girls to do deeds but what he wanted was younger and more varied ... you know. And they will do what he says because he has got the power. Like he hasn't got the power over me but I won't let him take control. I just walk out of the house.

FM: OK. I'll be in touch with you tomorrow through your mom or your pager at some time tomorrow to let you know what direction we are going. Regardless.

TM: Well just page me and punch in a number and I can get in touch with you. Because tomorrow I will be at Fitness World.

FM: It will be a PID number. PID So if that comes up, you will know it is me.

TM: Yeah. I can phone you right away.

FM: And you can call there day or night. If we are not at the office, we put the phone call forwarded to one of our houses.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:20 : Box 185 : 0402573 : 2204]

TM: Yeah, I mean for me to phone you ... like you really can't do anything about it. Like say tonight [CI-PERS] gets high and wired on coke and he starts running around with a coat hanger and telling me he is going to kill somebody again. Like I can't do anything like phone you guys because there is nothing you can do about it. He can run around being psycho for two hours saying he is going to kill somebody and then come down ...

FM: No for any ... I am not just saying like him going off the deep end. If you have some idea or he said something to you that you think I should know about ... all I am saying is ...

TM: Like when he says something ... come the next day ... when he speaks to me about these things, I don't really think about them. Like I don't want to hear about it. So come the next day, I don't remember what it was. It is hard for me to be sure what he said because I don't like thinking about it. He just thinks he can get away with it and that's it and nobody can stop him and everybody is stupid. Angela said he didn't care much about her. He didn't care about her when she was growing up. They're not going to start caring about her now. People like that are the kind of people he wants. Nobody cares about her. Like nobody cares about me. My mom does. But I mean, if nobody cares about me, I am easy to off. Nobody would be looking for me. Now I used to drink in the past and maybe I went out and got drunk. I mean that's the excuse he would use. They would tell him to take a polygraph and he would take and beat it. I am not concerned about him not beating it. He did this with that cop in 1989 ... in 1989, he was selling coke and this cop in the Little Mountain area was busting his hookers, taking their coke, giving it to [CI-PERS] was selling the coke and him and the cop were splitting the money. Well he took a lie detector. He beat it. The cop took the lie detector and he went to jail. It says a whole there. He knows he can beat these lie detectors. How he does it, I don't know. So when it comes to Angela's death, he probably volunteered to take the lie detector test ... he can beat it. I mean how someone can murder someone. Can I murder someone and say " You know it happened Friday night and Friday night I have an alibi. And I am reporting it Sunday. Can that happen. I mean, come on. You can't do that. And I mean how many people are on the list for Angela's death who are suspicious. One. They say the pimp. The pimp has nothing to do with Angela once [CI-PERS] came into her life. Because I know if she had a problem with the pimp, [CI-PERS] would go there right now and straighten it out. Right now. And that guy would never bother her again. Like it wasn't like she was a million dollar woman making this pimp a million dollars. It is not that important. If she leaves, then fine. The boyfriend is a psychopath. He's going to beat me up. I'm the pimp. There's no way I will go near her. How would the pimp find out where she lived? You know they just moved and the building is secure. Daddy's the manager. You know.

FM: Is he?

TM: He's well protected. He leaves the sliding door open - nobody's going to come in there. And if they do ...

MK: And they are very rude to me too. I have called there a few times and the mom and dad were not really ...

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:33:22 : Box 185 : 0402574 : 2204]

TM: He carries a big knife with him in the truck. You know, a knife like this. And it's like wow! " You don't think this hooker isn't going to do the job." Like what job. "I'm going to murder somebody." I mean talk like that. I have never met anyone who speaks like that. I mean I believe in God and I am sure CI-PERS does too but he has a different way of expressing it and the way he expresses it blows my mind. And the thing that blows my mind is society how they let him get away with it. You know. You need proof.

FM: Well you do unfortunately.

TM: I would be happy to swear in court that I know it is him.

FM: No. We have to get evidence. That what we need. You can certainly help us with that. As I say, I will talk to CI-PERS I will talk to the police and I'll get back to you tomorrow and we will see what we can set up. Does that sound good enough. OK?

TM: OK.

FM: Thanks for your help.

MK: I appreciate this. And they will help you with ... we will come up with something.

TM: As long as we can nail him because I don't want to go out and let him find out that I am the informant because he is going to nail my ass the minute he finds out.

MK: No we are aware of that. Thanks.

96-06-13 1300 Phone message received from CI-PERS CI-PERS advised that had called on her pager & left some more details that he had remembered.

I asked CI-PERS why she didn't call Cst LeClair as instructed. She stated that she didn't think Cst LeClair would get to Vancouver in time for the meet, besides that an investigator go along. I advised CI-PERS that Fred MARCE is not a police officer. She advised that he use to be. I advised her that she should have follow me instruction. I further told her that I've contacted Fred MARCE to get further information on the meeting. MARCE wasn't in at the time & he has yet to return my call.

Writer contacted the vic's mother CI-PERS who advised that she was at our office today and spoke with Cpl. FORBES. She updated FORBES as to the meeting with Fred MAILLE (ex-memb. who is now a p.I. who was hired by Child-Find to work on the ARSENEAULT case) and the tipster CI-PERS (current room-mate of the original com CI-PERS) who provided a taped statement to MAILLE while CI-PERS was present.

CI-PERS is of the opinion that CI-PERS was involved with the "murder" of ARSENEAULT. Although we do not know to this day the location of "Angela" or whether she is dead or alive.

CI-PERS advised that P/E MAILLE will be transcribing the interview/statement and dropping off a copy to our office.

SUI for Cst Armstrong and Cpl. FORBES to get together and decide on the next steps to take. / SUI to receive the transcript.

ATTENTION: CST. GREG ARMSTRONG

RE: MISSING PERSON - ANGELA MARY ARSENEAULT FILE NO. 94-47424

Dear Cst. Armstrong,

Further to our telephone conversation June 26, 1996, please find enclosed transcripts of the interviews with CI-PERS as we had discussed. I have also included the psychic information provided to Missing Children Society Investigators by CI-PERS and copies of our new organizational profile.

As I had mentioned, from the clues CI-PERS gave us and looking at maps we became interested in the Burnaby Lake area because of the carousel. Not being familiar with that area we have had to rely on topographical maps thus far. Any thoughts or ideas you may have after reviewing the information would be greatly appreciated.

I will keep you informed of our plans and will notify you when we are able to go to Vancouver. In the interim should you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact myself or CI-PERS at 1-800-661-6160.

Yours truly,

CI-PERS

Interview: CI-PERS at his residence, PID on June 10, 1995 commencing at 2:00 PM. Interview conducted by the Missing Children Society of Canada, Investigators CI-PERS and CI-PERS

CI-PERS Can you tell me what happened?

If I knew what happened, I can do something about it right? (Laughing)

No, I mean, what do you know about what happened?

Nothing, nothing. I was in a government treatment centre right for booze abuse and drug abuse, and she came to visit me Friday night, I was supposed to, I get off, I get out on weekends, so I got a ride at 6:00 in the morning, come home and I says to my buddy when he drove me home, I says she, "oh, Angela's awake", all the lights were on and everything right, in the apartment, right, from outside I seen it. I come in, still wasn't around, so I laid on the couch, figuring maybe, I don't know, she, I don't know why, I figured maybe she went to the store or something right, and I fell asleep and woke up at 10:00 Saturday, and she still wasn't there, so I drove down to the Vancouver City Police Dept. and ah, that's the same day, and reported her missing, and they said what do you mean missing, right I mean, she's been, what a couple hours. I says no, when you know someones going to be somewhere, you know, and ah, they sort of just hushed me away right, says it's really not our problem, it's Burnaby's problem, right. They said go home and if she's not back in, by tomorrow, phone the RCMP. So I called the RCMP, and the guy come over, and he was really good about everything, but ah, nothing, nothing didn't hear from her right, that was it.

CI-PERS Somebody said something about groceries on a cupboard or something?

A who? (laughs) No, no, we went, me and her went, Friday night, I work for the City of Vancouver, so I got my pay cheque couriered to the treatment facility place, and she came and met me, I guess you're not allowed out, Monday to Friday, no visitors, I guess you can't until 6:00 Friday night. So she came here, my pay cheque was there, we went downtown and cashed it, we went shopping down at Pacific Centre, I bought a pair of runners and stuff like this, right, and you're not allowed no money so I gave her my money, so I came home, her wallet was on the counter, my runners, socks, and stuff that we went shopping and bought, all the money was in the wallet, she wasn't there, right.

CI-PERS So no melting ice cream on the counter?

(laughs) Fuck, no, bag of weed on the table, that was it right. You know if she was going to leave, she would've took her clothes, money, you know.

CI-PERS And her pot was there too?

Yeah, yeah, bag of pot was sitting there. Yeah, no, somethin stupid, I mean fuck, all her clothes were still in the closet right, I mean ya know.

CI-PERS Was she...

If she wanted to take off, I was in that place for already two weeks right, so if she wanted to go she could have left. I mean, she could, anyone could leave anytime they want, right? But I mean why wait until that morning where I'm going to come home, why not leave before that, right? She was the kind of person, if she wanted to do something, she'll do it eh.

CI-PERS How did you guys meet?

Ah, in a convenience store or something (laughs).

I should be so lucky. About how long before she disappeared had you met her?

CI-PERS I don't know. Eight months, I guess.

And had you guys been living together all that time?

Yeah. I was living with a girl for nine years. I met Angela, and I came home and told the girl from 9 years , I says, whoa, I must be honest about this, I says I found somebody else, and there's nothing I can do about it right? So then she left, you know...and Angela moved in. Ya know, boom.

CI-PERS That fast?

Nine years, now I'm alone with my fuckin dog, right. (Laughs) Same dog. Yeah, so I don't know, life fuckin makes a weird trail, right. Ya know, wherever she is, I don't know what the hell's going on. She did tell me once, she says, if I leave, you'll never find me, eh, you'll never see me. She told me that. Told her mother that too, right. She was the kind of girl that like, you know she never lived at home when I met her. And ah, I don't know, but I still I don't believe that. If she didn't want to see me, she didn't want to see or nothing to do with me, she'd still have something to do with her parents, because she always seen her parents, even though she wasn't living with them or nothing, she always visited them, eh. Takes me a long time to wake up doesn't it?

CI-PERS That's okay, that's okay. Would there be a reason for her to want to leave? Like did you guys have a fight or something?

No. Everything was perfect, I thought everything was perfect, really good.

CI-PERS We've been told that Angela was into prostitution?

Yeah, before I met her she was.

How do you know that?

Because she told me.

She told you that. Ok.

Then she quit that. She made some little obligation, she quit that, we moved away. Then she talked me in to going to a treatment centre. I would have still been livin with my other girlfriend, and ya know, doing drugs all the time right. She's the one, coaxed me into going to the treatment centre right? So ah yeah.

CI-PERS Had anybody ever, did she talk about anybody threatening her?

Yeah, some POI4762 guy. But she didn't you know, reveal that name. I found out that name later, right, by going downtown, and all this.

CI-PERS What did she tell you about that?

That he grabbed her one time. Got her in a car, and ah, tried to make her you know, go with him and... like so he could control her in a way.

CI-PERS Like, be his girl, like pimp?

I don't know what the f..., I don't know.., the guy..., I have no idea. Like apparently the guy doesn't do that, he just finds girls and sells them off to people. Apparently something like this, right. I don't know, I don't know really too much about it eh, I sort of..you know I haven't forgot about her or nothin like that but every time somebody mentions something about her, it just fuckin, you know, burns my head, like today. I was you know, I get up, my mom comes up and says um, "Angela's mother phoned again", I go "Ah shit". Like I mean I don't avoid her or nothing, but I don't, she's into driving around the countryside looking for her daughter right. I don't believe there's any use in it, you know, I believe if she's there, why not come home, why not you know, phone. Somebody would see her ya know.

CI-PERS If somebody's done something to her though, I don't know about the family, but with us, it's our job to find out what happened to her.

Well, it's sure as fuck ain't the police's, is it? (Laughs) They don't give a shit. No, they don't care, they never did care. Maybe if they would have done something about it at the very time I reported her missing, if they would have put it on TV, or they would have reported something you know, maybe something could've happened right, but they waited like shit, ah, months and months, and then they tried to make it look like she's been reported already downtown, or "if you have seen her", which I think is total bullshit, she's never been seen, ever since the day I reported her missing, no one's heard from her or talked to her or seen her, and, but the police say that they have, you know, which I think is total bullshit man.

CI-PERS Angela's things are still here?

Everything she owns, man. The pictures on the wall. I've got a picture up there, a picture on the stove, you know, all her clothes are in the closet. I don't sleep in a bedroom, this is where I sleep, you know. I figure whatever, right. Like I should go through her shit, and take it away, right. Most stuff's in bags and that, but... I don't know, you sort of get rid of it and so...you know, no idea, no idea. So like her mom, her mom doesn't want it all, because if her mom takes it, then her mom admits something's wrong, right? There is something wrong, but you know, admitting that you know, that she's totally gone.

CI-PERS Did you get any phone calls or anything after that day, hang up calls?

No. No, she never phoned, she never, no nothing.

Did anybody call for her, other than her family?

No, no. Not a....not a word, not a peep. I've got friends in Vancouver, I'm PID years old, I've been in Vancouver my whole life, I know lots of people everywhere, somebody would have seen her. Like I mean I, it's been almost a year, I knew, my ex-girlfriend, and I go places and I hear everything, oh, she's getting married, oh she's this, this, and that, I mean people don't, you know, lose contact with everybody right, I mean if she's around somebody would have seen her.

CI-PERS Yeah.

You know, somebody would have heard from her. Yeah, especially if she's a hooker again, right? If she's a hooker you know, one of my buddies would have seen her, you know.

Discussion regarding turning the tape over.
(Tape starts again).

CI-PERS And you've got the window open again.

Yeah, I came home from work yesterday, I guess I got home about 8:00, and I went to bed, windows open, patio window open just go to bed you know, that's it, just go to sleep, who cares, right? Just tired CI-PERS What do you do?

I work for the PID, the PID .

So you have to work long hours?

Hard job, you know people think city worker - dog fucker right. Ain't right, it ain't true, man. Ain't true, maybe it is when they get 20 years in it, right, you know, you don't have a shovel right, but when they're looking down the hole, there's somebody down there working right? (Laughs)

So like ah, what is this, what's this going to come from, like are we going to find her on the back of a milk carton a couple months or what?

CI-PERS No, we don't do that kind of thing. We're Private Investigators.

CI-PERS Oh God!

What!?

Through who? Financed through who?

We're with the Missing Children Society.

Oh so it's organized, okay, as long as somebody's not pulling wool over someone's eyes?

No.

Like this one lady did I don't know (inaudible) I don't know

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:04 : Box 185 : 0402590 : 2204]

maybe it's you (laughing) I don't know, I have no idea. But naw, I mean something is definitely wrong here eh. I mean you just don't go missing, and if she's alive, she's hidden in someone's basement, and they'll be weird to her for the next f.. .for how long, you know. I,I....she.. she ain't out there.

Knock at door

CI-PERS: Who the fuck's that? CI-PERS I'm busy, talking to some people about Angela.

CI-PERS: Oh yeah

CI-PERS Kay, come back in a bit, eh?

CI-PERS: Yeah okay

Next time, use the door, eh? (laughs). I'd hit him with my bat if I was sleeping, right? This is my buddy.

CI-PERS Is that the guy who drove you?

Drove me where?

Where have I heard that name, CI-PERS Oh, because they're friends, that's the friends, I think. That's the next question: Do you know who Angela's friends are? She doesn't seem to have any.

CI-PERS No.... Nobody.

Nobody?

Zero tolerance. No, no she had some. CI-PERS a girl named CI-PERS in Trail. I don't know. Nobody. She's not from Vancouver, right.

CI-PERS Yeah, I know.

She had some friends up in in ah Trail or something. We were going to drive out there and visit.

CI-PERS If she was on the street, did she talk about any of the other girls?

She disgusted with what she did, she didn't like it. But, my opinion is her parents forced her out, ya know.

Her parents forced her out?

Yeah, you just don't all of a sudden come from a nice suburb family, and all of a sudden turn into a prostitute, at the age of 14, right?

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:06 : Box 185 : 0402591 : 2204]

CI-PERS Right.

Or 15, you know, I met her, she was 17, I guess, and, I mean but that this just doesn't happen right, I mean, you know, I've got 12 brothers and sisters, and I'm a very normal, nice guy, right? You know, I mean, (laughs), I've done bad things in my life, right. As they say skeletons in your closet, right, but I mean I didn't go pimp, or shoot people, or, I mean something has to happen from your past right, from your family, like, you just don't all of a sudden be a hooker, right? You know. I mean my parents live down the hall, they accepted me moving back, you know, near them, when I wanted to get off of drugs. I mean Angela moved, actually moved in to their suite, and waited for a suite to open, and then we got one here. And I think, my opinion is somethings happened, between, something happened eh. Same as that cop told me, something has happened, there's friction between her and CI-PERS and her and her mother. There's something weird going on there right? But nobody knows. She'd never tell me. I wouldn't ask. I mean if somebody says don't get into it, don't get into it, right?

CI-PERS So she said to you don't get into it? Just didn't want to talk about it?

Yeah, get out of it (inaudible word) don't get into it right. I mean for one thing, you know, you do something like that, I mean, you don't really want to be reminded about it all the time. You guys are from Calgary?

CI-PERS Yeah.

What the fuck, you don't have a branch in Vancouver or what. (laughs).

No, we go all over the place. One office in Calgary, and we go... cases all over the place. When you came in that day, did you notice anything unusual?

CI-PERS There was a bedroom window open, but then I was thinking maybe she had been smoking a joint on the windowsill, right? Guess.. Like, she knew I didn't like dope, right? Like, smoking pot, right. Ya know.. Funny thing is I did lots of cocaine, but I didn't, but I didn't like pot so she wouldn't smoke in or smoke cigarettes in the house. So um, so maybe she was smoking in the bedroom, I was thinkin, ah I don't know because even if, if some guys would have broke in and grabbed her, they would have took her wallet, they would have seen a couple hundred bucks, sittin in her wallet, they would have took it right? You know, I mean if they were going to take her across the border, they sure as fuck would have took all her ID with her, right, you know there was a Birth Certificate and all that stuff still here and stuff.

CI-PERS Nothing knocked off counters, or anything like that?

No, no there was no ruckus...mess. Just like she vanished.

Just like she walked in the door, opened the door maybe to somebody she knew or was comfortable with,

No, not even that. I can't see that.

No

Because why wouldn't she take money with you when you leave?

Well, I'm thinking, open the door and then something happened.

Yeah, it coulda, coulda, coulda, I don't know. No, I don't know, I don't know, I really don't know who, if I knew anything, then I could say right, but I don't know nothin. I mean as far as the police knew, I fuckin' killed her and I buried her, somewhere right? I mean, they were watching me real close, I thought they were interesting, interested in trying to find her, but no, they were interested in trying to find out who the hell I was, and then all of a sudden, one day click, the RCMP take me to their forensic place out in Vancouver, and 5 hours, hooked up to a fuckin' machine, and they asked me, "Did you kill her, did you disappearance about her ?" ah fuck, I got mad, but they said I had nothing to do with it, you know, I knew nothing, eh.

CI-PERS What do you think happened? Are you suspicious of somebody, or?

No, not a clue. I think everyday, right I mean (inaudible) everyday I think about her eh. Like I mean fuck. No, not a clue.

CI-PERS There was a rumour, that somebody said that you owed money for drugs?

Yeah, that was a good one yeah, that I owed 20 grand to a drug dealer, and they got her, and they made, until I paid back or something right, fuck that was just some stupid cranker phoning.

CI-PERS Oh, that was a phone call?

Yeah, that was somebody, the RCMP said they got a phone call

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:11 : Box 185 : 0402593 : 2204]

(Inaudible)says ya, what do you think right, there was nothing of it. Sometimes your friends are your worst enemies you know. This is the truth. I don't know what kind of friends you have, but, but I mean most of the time, you know I mean, if you're doing something bad, you only tell your friends, and your friends are the only ones that can turn you in, because your enemies don't know what you're doing, right?

CI-PERS Right

Usually your friends are your worst enemies. No. Hell, nobody, nothing, I'm not scared of nothing, I sleep with the door open, who cares, eh.

CI-PERS Got a (inaudible)a big one (laughing)

You've got to have a bat, right, you've got to have a bat, you never know, right? (everyone laughs). You know, you didn't come in here and a bunch of guys sitting around smoking crack, or anything, right? Just having a little snooze.

CI-PERS There was someone sneaking over the balcony (laughs).

That's my buddy CI-PERS

Would you mind if we took a look at her things, Angela's belongings?

CI-PERS Yeah, I don't care. What are you going to get vibes or something? (laughs)

No. We don't do that kind of thing.

Tape stops, then starts again.

CI-PERS Yeah, well we need to find all that, you know

Oh you didn't know she...

Almost a year, so. I don't think those things could be

I was going to go back to sleep. (laughs)

I had asked you if you thought that maybe she was back into prostitution,

I thought maybe, maybe when I was in the treatment centre, she was like going out once in a while, I didn't know, but she didn't need to, but.. I don't know, she was always home when I phoned, my parents, (inaudible think he's saying CI-PERS kept an eye on her and whatever, right. You know (inaudible), fuck you go to my fridge it's empty, I eat, I eat many meals at my parents' house right, they're knocking on my door at 4:00, "dinner time is in an hour", you know, that's why I moved back home. I have no idea.

CI-PERS No visitors, your parents didn't say that she ever had visitors?

No, no, no, no. No visitors.

The police didn't do door-to door enquiries?

They didn't talk to anyone. We were the quietest people in the building, no parties, no nothing. Real quiet.

CI-PERS But you did live in that apartment there?

Yeah, that apartment there.

I wonder if your, is your mom and dad home?

Yeah, why?

See if they'll let us do some door-to-door enquiries.

Oh, no. People have moved(inaudible) doesn't here, (inaudible) moved in, they all, they're all gone, like moved or.... my parents are pretty low-key and quiet right now, you know what I mean. I don't want to be rude about it, but you know, when it came up on the news, that, (laughs) (inaudible)the police made it look like a prostitute, right, going, like, whatever, and she's still there, and ah fuck they were so full of shit, right, and all the TV clippings that the police had control of, were totally dead against her, right. They weren't looking for her, only to protect their ass, why they weren't looking for her in the first place, that's how they, they all came, that's how they sort of came across to me, right. CI-PERS said he seen something on the news, about a month ago, or something, about it's been almost a year she's gone missing, and her parents are on TV or something, and I never seen it, I never caught it, right. And the one when they came and interviewed me at my apartment, that I was, like you guys did, right. It takes me about a half an hour to wake up, right? (laughs)

Tape Ends.

CI-PERS Actually, over, 60%, pretty good

Finding missing people or like people that are like, like you know, like suspicious things happen, this is very suspicious, this isn't....

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:15 : Box 185 : 0402595 : 2204]

CI-PERS This is the kind of case that we work on most of the time.

Yeah. It just doesn't, just seems like a little suspicious compared to "my son hasn't been home for a couple of weeks, eh?"

CI-PERS this is different, you're right. There's no bolt on these doors, then?

There's a deadbolt, yeah.

Do you remember if the dead bolt was

We, I never locked it, CI-PERS never locks it, we usually go out and the doors are open. Ya know.

CI-PERS Obviously, Angela had a key to the apartment?

Everywhere, yeah.

Are the keys here?

Well, she lived here, I never even lived in the building.

Oh, she lived here?

No, no, well, we lived here, but I never lived here yet, do you follow me?

In this one, you mean?

No, in that one over there. Okay, the guy who lives with me now, CI-PERS is my ex-girlfriend's uncle, okay. Me, Angela and CI-PERS well, first, CI-PERS moved out, and Angela moved in. This was on 26th and Kingsway. And then we moved out of that apartment, and we moved in with CI-PERS into CI-PERS Grandmother's house because CI-PERS Grandmother died, and left him a house, so we moved in there. Then they sold it, so we all moved, so CI-PERS went somewhere, me and Angela moved in with my parents. I made an application for the treatment centre, it took a month, boom, I went in, and the day I was going in was the day that the apartment came empty, so we moved everything in, and I had to go enroll for a 30-day stay in , right,

CI-PERS Yeah

So, then Angela moved in herself, fixed the place up the way she liked it, whenever I came home then you know I came home. I snuck home, (inaudible) I cheated a few times, (laughs) "I'm going for a walk", yeah, right-CI-PERS was waiting in the parking lot, and drove me home, right. (laughs). And ah, yeah, and so she lived there first, basically. (Pauses for a moment) I hope it works, you know, if you find her, but maybe she don't want, my opinion is if she's alive, she don't want to be found.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:18 : Box 185 : 0402596 : 2204]

CI-PERS

Well, if that's the case, but I'd say it's.... from what her mom, and step-dad told us...it's like you told us...

They're stereotyping TV and Gangster shit, and maybe she's out there and they've got her hooking, and they'll kill her whole family, if she makes a phone call, that's all TV bullshit, right. That's my opinion. I mean I've lived, fuckin, (inaudible)at the housing projects, like you know, my parents, 20 years ago, things were bad and rough and you know, she's, if she's alive, she don't want to be found, and if she's.... don't wanna, ya know, she's not, then someone's done something bad to her, she isn't even dead, you know, she's not dead in my book, yet, right, I mean I still figure, well, I don't think she's going to come home, but once in awhile I come home, and I figure, well maybe she's in here right, ya know, but she's not.

CI-PERS

If she were just to walk to the store, did she carry a purse with her?

That's a good one.

Did she carry a purse at all?

She had a couple of them I think. She wasn't really a person that had like a bag, like you got a bag man, you guys got a whole fuckin life in that thing. (Laughing)And you've got one too right?

CI-PERS

Yeah

Like ya know, like I got a wallet but it stays in my lunch box, right, ya know.(laughs) But ah.... yeah... no I don't think she really carried a purse, eh?

CI-PERS

Ok. What about the keys, were the keys...

I thought I found a set of keys not too long ago, eh, but ah.. I think they were from my last house. She had the keys when she left.

CI-PERS

And ah..

But she seemed different, I'll tell ya, okay. When I met her, kay, we whatever, and then ah, she had an apartment downtown, just like, just at a motel, and then, when I got to know her, know her a week went by, 10 days went by told my ex-girlfriend that I found somebody and that whatever, she moved in. I always, wondered where all her fuckin' clothes were, right. So then she tells me, she wouldn't do, let's not get into it, she kept saying right, so then I find out that all her clothes are at some guy's place out in Surrey. So I took her, me and my buddy and this other guy, and we go up there, knock on the door and this guy says "where the fuck have you been, I haven't seen you in five months?" Right, like Angela's disappeared on him too, you know, for five months. So then, we walked in, just grabbed 3 boxes of stuff, and that was it. So she's done it to somebody else, eh.

CI-PERS Do you know who that person was? Or where that place was?

I know where the place was. They know, the parents know the guy. From Trail, right.

From Trail. CI-PERS

CI-PERS Yeah and she was hooking, and staying there, taking the skytrain back and forth, right. and then, when I found that out, I said you're fuckin nuts, right. And then, she said, she got tired of it, so she just stopped going home, she was at the motel in Vancouver, just staying there.

CI-PERS She didn't let him know?

Yeah, just left. Then one day, we, I talked her in, talked her into it so hard, pushed her, and pushed her, that we went out there, and got her stuff, but the guy freaked right but he couldn't do nothing, there's three, me and my two buddies, right, so I just told him to shut-up, and we grabbed the stuff and left. But I mean, you know, maybe she w...maybe, I was thinking, you know maybe she ah... got into something that Friday night, I don't know, whatever it could have been and now she fucked up, she's not home Saturday, she didn't get home in time for Saturday. And now she can't come home because she don't want to show her face and maybe this or that but a year fuck, you know I guess it's been about a year eh.

CI-PERS August, yeah.

But, a year for her is nothing, I don't think, eh? She told me one time, she just took off and went to Las Vegas, right. You know, stayed in Las Vegas for a while. I mean, she just let it roll. Real bang life, but I don't think I slowed her down or anything, because she was happy to stop what she was doing and everything, she enrolled in school, she was supposed to go to some Adult course, actually two days after, she was supposed to go to school in New Westminster. And the funny thing is about it she ah....(yawning) Am I making you guys tired yet or what?

CI-PERS No

She ah, she never got no money from the government. Never got the welfare or nothin, her parents never supported her. One time they did eh, they got her a place and all this stuff, right, but ah she lied to them, and said she was working at a recycling plant and all this stuff, but she wasn't, she was hooking, right, but I guess you just don't want to tell your parents that. So ah, I talked to her, I says well fuck, you can stop this prostitution shit, you know. Go to the... go to the Human Resources, they can put you back into school, they'll pay you once a month, so she had a cheque for 800 bucks sitting at Human Resources in some special, special branch for kids or something right, and ah....at Willingdon and Barnet?? highway or something, and she never picked the cheque up. It was sitting there, waiting for her, that Monday too, eh. That's why I was wondering if you guys if you ever checked again if she's collecting welfare under her name or anything.

CI-PERS I don't know if they have, but we will be checking that.

You know because, you know , but she wouldn't, I mean, she didn't... she hated it eh, she didn't want to go there and you know, to hell with it, it wasn't worth her while to go humiliate herself for that much money right, but yet she was a prostitute, I don't know.

CI-PERS She wasn't really looking forward to going to school then?

Oh to school, she was right on the ball about school and everything, but she didn't want to, you know.. collect welfare eh, cause because I have a real good job, right, you know, I work for the government, I make god money, like municipal government whatever. I have a good job, and that, she was really conservative person eh, like fuck... real conservative, tight with money.

CI-PERS Another rumour we heard is that you had just bought her a ring.

Well that night, just a bullshit thing, we just went out or whatever, eh, and ah she wanted a jacket or a ring or whatever, so she bought this little native art ring thing, or whatever, I don't know.

CI-PERS What does it look like?

I don't know. (laughs)

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:24 : Box 185 : 0402599 : 2204]

CI-PERS (laughs).

Ah, I don't know how....A wide band with a goes like a Z on it. I don't know. (Says something inaudible)

CI-PERS Could you draw it?

No. (Laughs)

No. (laughs)

I didn't buy it for her, I gave her the money right. We were in the mall, and she wanted a jacket. Ah she looked at this other thing, and it had a ring, and I said Ok, we'll buy that, so she bought that.

CI-PERS What was she wearing that night, do you remember?

(pauses) A white kangaroo jacket I think, and a pair of jeans.

starts to say something

She got home

Yeap. And what does she wear on her feet?

Oh god. Just a pair of white runners, which are here, I think.

Which are here?

I think. I think I seen them around somewhere..ya know.

Do you think she came home and changed her clothes?

I don't know. I know she smoked a joint, because there was half a joint in the bathroom, right.

CI-PERS Ok. So, no...

No idea man (laughing)

She wouldn't just drop the kangaroo jacket somewhere....like ah?

Oh I don't know...It's been a long time right, you know, been a long time I mean this is... you know nice questions and all that, and I've been through the wor....bad questions right, ya know, but ah no, I have no idea. Sometimes now, I think if she walked in the door, I wouldn't even recognize her face, I can see her picture up there, her picture is on top of the stove, and her picture is in the hallway, and I know what she looks like, but you know, it's been so long. See that's where she looks just like a kid, right? On the picture behind you there.

CI-PERS

Oh here, yeap

She's got a lobster in her hand, or something? Is that the one? Or is she petting a lama or something?

CI-PERS

A lama, yeah.

Yeah, she looks like a kid, eh?

Yeah

And then there's one over there on the stove, she's real buzzed eh, (laughs).

CI-PERS

(laughing). Yeah, no kidding, she can't keep her eyes open.

But that's a couple years old too, eh.

Did she have a telephone book?

She threw it away, I remember. I threw mine away, she threw hers away.

Discussion about the tape

CI-PERS

I haven't, you know, I don't know if I've been rude or not, by not talking to her mom and Doug right, but you know I haven't given up or nothing, but I'm not out looking no more ya know. I have a hard enough time going to work and not doing dope, right. Ya know.

CI-PERS

Well, I think that's great, don't you think so?

It is.

It's a pretty big accomplishment.

Yeah. Tried....but ah.... I don't know, no idea, I don't know no more, I know nothing no more right. I'm total fuckin innocent,(laughing) I did nothing wrong (laughing), unless the police lied about that polygraph test right (laughs), but ah no, I did nothing wrong, consciously I've done nothing wrong, right and ah....and ah...my parents flipped when they found out that she used to be a hooker, holy fuck. It was on TV, and they brought that out, I did not know they were going to say that, eh? Yeah, living off the avails of prostitution, and we still believe working in the Vancouver area. God. Have you seen that? No.

CI-PERS Where did we see that, somewhere? Oh, on the poster, Yeah.

Yeah, yeah, (inaudible) got new posters in there, right, but....yeah

CI-PERS They liked Angela, your parents?

Yeah, Yeah.

I wonder if she had any calls come to your parents house?

Just her mom, CI-PERS just her mother....just her mom. That's pretty.....like she didn't even exist, eh?

CI-PERS What's that

It's like she didn't even exist. I don't have a phone either, eh. I don't want a phone. Then you gotta return calls, ya know. You know, do you know how many times CI-PERS phones me?

CI-PERS Yeah, actually, she says she had been trying to get a hold of you quite a bit.

CI-PERS Oh yeah....yeah, you guys phoned too I think. My dad's house right.

Yeah.

Who's that?

Answer: "me"

CI-PERS Who's me... CI-PERS

CI-PERS I hope so.

CI-PERS Okay. You come in, the dog's going out. I got company right now.

CI-PERS Uh?

CI-PERS I got company, people, for Angela.

CI-PERS Inaudible

CI-PERS Where're you going, the island?

CI-PERS "Probably".

CI-PERS Yeah, we have to go there too.

For Angela?

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:31 : Box 185 : 0402602 : 2204]

CI-PERS No, for another case.

Well, it would be nice if it worked out, eh?

Well, we don't think you did it, first of all that's not why.

Well, we don't think I did it, you got no...no.. right to think I did it, because I've proven I've not done it. I took a 4, 4 hour 5 hour polygraph test, and I've got nothing to do with it right, unless I'm a fuckin psychopath, they tell me. (Laughing) Only a psychopath, or a complete insane person can beat the polygraph they said.

CI-PERS Did you just tell me something about....what did he say about no conscience? (Laughing)

CI-PERS Yeah, that's it, yeah (laughing)

Ah, nailed.

No I can....(laughing) No, it's....well, I know I didn't do it, so who gives a shit, right? And if you thought I did it, I'd ask you to leave, with my bat, get the fuck out. (Laughing)

CI-PERS We've heard about your bat.(laughs) You were living with her, I mean you're the one we needed to talk to.

Inaudible

Can we take some of Angela's things with us?

Take the whole box man. (laughs)

No, well, actually, we can take it back to her folks if you want us to?

Well, if you want, go ahead.

Actually, I'd like to go through it just to see if there's makeup and stuff like that. I mean you went through that stuff in the beginning,..

CI-PERS I didn't go through it, I just... in the bags,

But nothing seemed out of the ordinary to you, that first day, right? Like nothing seemed like it was missing from her belongings, or anything like that?

Well, I don't know, I thought she was wearing something, and then all of a sudden the shirt turned up. Cause I had a shirt and then it was missing. So I reported her missing wearing that shirt, but is somebody else here?

CI-PERS I think so.

Is somebody hollering at the door CI-PERS

CI-PERS I don't know

CI-PERS If it's CI-PERS (inaudible) tell him to go away

CI-PERS: Supposed to tell you to go away

CI-PERS CI-PERS

You still busy CI-PERS

I'm busy. I'll be probably busy for awhile.

Okay, call me when you're done.

Yeah. Hey CI-PERS I'll phone ya.

: I'll see ya, I don't know if I'll be back tonight or be back tomorrow night.

CI-PERS Have a good weekend CI-PERS

CI-PERS Yup, you too.

CI-PERS Tell CI-PERS to go away.

Poor CI-PERS Ok, so you reported her missing, in a shirt that...

CI-PERS Yeah, in some ah striped shirt, (inaudible) that picture in the hallway right.

I noticed it missing, and then I found it somewhere, you know I did some laundry or something. I've got no idea, I have no idea, no idea. It's just a big fuckin mystery to me, you know what I mean.

CI-PERS Okay, now

Is she still on that, that computer, big police....

Yeah, CPIC

United States wide too?

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:36 : Box 185 : 0402604 : 2204]

CI-PERS I don't know if she is on NCIC, but that's one of the first things we do, we check to see if she's on NCIC.

Well, she should be on everyone, so if she is picked up one day for her name, or whatever for anything, then.. I mean, just.. so what, I mean if I go missing, and I don't want to be found, you've got no right to find me.

CI-PERS Well, what they'll do is they'll just take you off, because you're not a missing person anymore, but they won't tell

Yeah, the people

If you say...

Yeah, don't tell her parents that they took her off.

Yeah

Which is pretty harsh man cause, her mom must be just going bagged man.

CI-PERS Her mom is ah... actually I found her mom to be a very nice person and she is.

Well, Yeah. You know my opinion was a little different at first right. You know I mean CI-PERS I think because they thought that, I think the police were questioning you and they thought that maybe you had something to do with it.

So her parents sorta think I'm shady because I got a couple brothers in prison and stuff like that (laughing)

At the beginning, Yeah, I don't think that's the case now

Big deal right, if I was such a shady guy, I wouldn't be working for city hall, would I? You know they do abstracts on.... actually, um, Angela's mother and them, they're a little more right, like, I don't know how you put it, like, self-righteous, that they figure they're a little better than they are, in a way, because like, Angela couldn't go on Human Resources and be funded to go back to school, unless her parents signed a paper made her a ward of the court, ok, and like she was too young to collect welfare, and not live at home, or something like that, right. So I took her to this place, my buddy CI-PERS his sister is an HR worker or whatever, Human Resource worker and she told me what to do. So I took her to this place, this special office out in, out in ah, Coquitlam, so what she had to do was get her parents to write a letter or phone, talk to this Social Worker and her mom, so we went up to the house that night we drove up there, talked to her mom, and says well CI-PERS will you do this and do that, and her mom said no. Then I turned around, I got really pissed off and then Angela told me, she said no, and I waited in the car, and let her talk with mom and then I came back and I knocked on the door, I says "you guys are so fucked up, I says your daughter will be fine, but you don't' know this but your daughter was hooking before I met her, she lives with me now, and you guys are so proud you know, not to have her on welfare, but you don't want her living in your house. Like she didn't live in their house because they didn't want her to live in their house, nothing to do with their rules, and Angela partied too much, or this or that, they didn't want her there. And I know that, I sense these things man. I mean the young kid was the new kid, with the two parents, that Angela was the daughter of somebody else, and it just didn't conflict, and...but they didn't want her, but she tried before to go on welfare she told me, but they wouldn't. They wouldn't sign her off right.

CI-PERS Yep

But it was ok for her not to live at home, a phone call once a month was good enough eh. And now there's no phone calls, and her mom's really maybe's felling, you know. I think her mom is feeling guilty as shit, because you know, her life is the path that her parents give her. Her life isn't what Angela give herself eh.

CI-PERS Actually she, she even said that when we talked to her. She's feeling it.

Yeah, because her mom pushed her, everything she's done, you know, I mean, if the door was open and she was allowed to come home, she sure as fuck wouldn't have went and done these other things, but Angela was proud too, too proud to tell her mom what she was doing, she had to be "making it", ya know, like. Yeah, I'm glad that her mom feels that way, I really do, I'm really glad about that. There was so many times I wanted to blow up and tell her, you know tell her mom and Dad, "you know you guys think you're so high and mighty". Fuck it, ya know. That's ok, (laughing) as long as she's feeling a little remorse now, a little badness eh.

CI-PERS Yeah, she is.

Hey what's up, god damn you stupid dog.

No wonder you got a flat nose.

So what happens after this, what do you, like what do you,

CI-PERS Well what I'd like to do

Obviously you people don't go looking around for her, because there ain't no reason to. She ain't around, not in this town.

Yeah. Jees, no friends or nothing.

Her friends are in Trail. Her mom knows, her mom has all the phone numbers for her friends in Trail.

I think we'll start with CI-PERS then,

Yeah, CI-PERS moved apparently.

Yeap.

Then, there's these....a couple guys she stayed with down on... downtown, I don't know if they told you about that.

That ah, there's a black guy named CI-PERS

Yeah or somethin yeah

Did you talk to any of those guys?

No. She wouldn't let me meet them. I drove there one time, she got a couple bags of stuff, and that was it. I read a book she had one time. She's into this sa....fuckin ah, this ah witchcraft shit, right, pretty spooky shit right, and it says the definition of a witch, is somebody who leads you somewhere and for you to believe everything and turn around , stab you (inaudible). Some weird thing eh. I think CI-PERS got the book somewhere he was reading it, eh. She was right into doing, right into the different things, eh. There was that little saying in that book, you know it fit her definition totally, eh: Use you up till you're dry, and leave. Well she didn't really in my case, she turned my whole life around eh. I was a bad drug addict man, I was a drug dealer, I was a bad person, you know. Now I'm quiet, live on the ground level,

CI-PERS with the door open (laughs).

With the door open. And a bat...Everybody's got a bat, god if you don't have a bat then, then you hafta, you know. Everybody's got a bat. You see these nice guys driving around with a little bat on the back of their truck, or something because they play baseball.

CI-PERS We'll have to watch out for this. We don't do this in Calgary.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:42 : Box 185 : 0402607 : 2204]

CI-PERS Oh Yeah I bet. Yeah my mother, 5 sisters live in Calgary.

Oh really? Well, I can't think of anything right now, nobody bothering her, or you think that she was...approached by approached by PO14762 ? Have yon ever heard that name before?

CI-PERS No, well from the parents, Yeah.

How about the RCMP, they don't want nothin to do with you?

They're on holidays until Tuesday.

Yeah, but do you think they'll want anything to do with you?

Yeah.

Or do you think they'll brush you off?

No, they won't brush us off.

They don't want anything to do with me eh. I'm a raging psychopath, they think, eh. (laughs). I went out there one day, and just fuckin' freaked out, eh.

CI-PERS Because they weren't looking for her?

They weren't doing nothing eh. And because they accused me of it eh. They didn't accuse me of it, the way they put it, they wanted to eliminate me as a suspect. I said, well what other people are doing, going through this (inaudible), they just wanted to eliminate me, right.

CI-PERS Did they ever pull this PO14762 in?

He's in jail for rape and the disappearance of two other women.

CI-PERS What?

Yeah. He's in Surrey remand or something. For some bad bad shit man.

CI-PERS Okay

For suspicion of the disappearance of some people. And rape and stuff like this right, on street girls.

CI-PERS Ok.

And a known pimp, and stuff like this. (Inaudible) these young

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:45 : Box 185 : 0402608 : 2204]

broads that have no where to go, place to live, or whatever, sells them off to people eh you know, sell them off to a pimp in Calgary or somewhere, that's what I heard, eh. But I just kept going down there, me and my friend the bat and asking about some red hair guy with tattoos, right, and then I finally found out who he was.

CI-PERS And you didn't ever get to talk to him, though?

No, I would have fuckin' beat him so bad, he couldn't walk, even if he didn't do it, I would still have done it eh, just because of anger you know, anger I had at that time right.

CI-PERS Do you know if the police have looked at him? Have they talked to him?

Yeah, they went and they talked to him, but he told the cop he won't say a word without a lawyer and he's denying everything.

Ok.

Actually a prostitute told me his name, right, and ah, told me that he's, why he was in there, and stuff right.

CI-PERS Ok, well, we'll see what we can dig up on him. Ok, well if you want us to take some of this stuff.

Yeah, fuck, go ahead.

Tape Ends.

Taped conversation between CI-PERS and CI-PERS CI-PERS June 17, 1996.

CI-PERS Hello

Hi

Oh hi CI-PERS how you doing?

Okay.. And yourself?

Not bad.

Not bad.

You saw that thing on um...

Yeah I just saw it now, just a minute ago, just a couple of minutes ago.

It was on again?

Yeah, I saw it last night late eh, I guess after the news eh.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:49 : Box 185 : 0402610 : 2204]

CI-PERS Yeah

First time, whoa, it blew me away

Yeah, they're having it on 28 times

Yeah

Ah, you know there's been nothing, it's almost two years eh

CI-PERS I wonder why they always gotta through in that prostitute shit?

I don't know

You know they always gotta cover their ass

They always do that eh

In some sense. Do they let you know if there's any response or anything?

CI-PERS Yeah, I talk them, I've talk to them everyday, I got their number I call them.

And what do they think?

And they haven't gotten any calls on it yet at all

Not one call eh?

No. So what's new with you? I haven't talked to you since Christmas.

CI-PERS Ah, I hurt myself at work, I'm on compensation. Broke my nose.

Oh ya what did you do?

Broke my nose.

You broke your nose?

(laughing) I broke my nose and dislocated my shoulder.

(inaudible)

CI-PERS I dislocated my shoulder and broke my nose.

Well, how did you do that?

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:51 : Box 185 : 0402611 : 2204]

CI-PERS

Fell in the sewer.

Oh god.

Well, you know off the top (inaudible) so I was pretty inaudiblebe)I go into compensation every day

Do ya?

Yeah I gotta drive out there just about everyday, for 4 hours a day, kinda sucks but, you gotta do what you gotta do right.

CI-PERS

Isn't that the truth. So you've never heard nothing or anything.

No, not a word

Never eh?

Not a word

I know, it's just, it's you know, you go on and on and on, and I still call all these people er,

What, like, did you ah did you ah, you were pushin them, pushin (stuttering) and that's what made them put this on?

I still keep in touch with everybody, I just keep going at it all the time, I've been going at it for two years almost and finally I got them to do it so this is the biggest publicity that we've ever gotten, you know you get an odd news story here and there but...

CI-PERS

Ya I know

I mean they should of put this like two years ago, they should have put it on eh

Yep, I do agree

A year, (laughing) year and a half ago

Yeah, yeah, cause August, August is coming up, two months, it will be two years.

Yeah

Eh

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:54 : Box 185 : 0402612 : 2204]

CI-PERS Well her birthday was in M..just last month eh

Was it

May 20th

Yeah Angie's birthday, yeah she was 19.

Yeah

so (inaudible)so don't give up hope that we're going to see her again you know

CI-PERS Oh yeah, for sure something's goin happen right?

Yeah, yeah I can't give up hope I just gotta keep plugging away at it.

CI-PERS Yeah. What are the cops telling you....nothing.

No, no. They don't know nothin

No

They haven't had any leads or anything you know

Not even, not even one, like....

Well they had this girl in New west, we've had quite a few of those, New west sightings but ah, ah, it turned out there is a girl over there that looks just like her....

CI-PERS yeah

and um that's where they come from. Her name is Angie too

Well I'll tell ya I was driving my van, my pick up truck and this van come out along side of me and I looked, and I looked and I looked and I looked and I still can't swear if it was or it wasn't....

CI-PERS Oh is that right...

but then I, I'd close my eyes and I'd try to picture her and and from two years ago to now it's a big it's a big time change...

yeah I know

(inaudible) for her age, she could have got a lot, a lot taller or bigger or anything...

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:56 : Box 185 : 0402613 : 2204]

CI-PERS Yeah

Cause I mean she was only, only like 17 years old eh

I know

17, (inaudible) so I mean like, like, that's that's that's a lot of....

CI-PERS At that at that time in your age you changed quite a bit eh

Yeah

Yeah, yeah, that's true. I think a lot now too, I'm getting old. Old before my days.

CI-PERS (laughs)

I've decided, I just, I've been laid off work, I got laid off in February there's not much happening at work, so they decided they'd lay me off because I do the less work I guess...

CI-PERS Well, you still get UIC right?

Yeah, I get UIC but I decided I'd go back to school too. I'm taking a correspondence course to get my real estate license.

CI-PERS Right on (yawing) that's good.

Yeah, so pretty exciting. Might as well see if I can make some money in my life eh?

Well, it's better th..you know doing nothing, keeps you busy right?

That's right, that's right

Keeps you busy. What ever happened about this Internet thing?

The Internet, she's on the Internet.

Yeah...never get no response to that?

Nope, she just got on it. The one that that I was doing before was a fax thing. It was faxing pictures all over but nothing....we got one tip that she was in Calgary but that was checked out by Missing Children and nothing ever came of it.

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:38:58 : Box 185 : 0402614 : 2204]

CI-PERS mmm

It wasn't her. Uh, but now she's on the Internet, she's got a page on the Internet and crime stoppers did that so.... It's going all over now.

Yeah

Which is kind of nice. I mean somebody out there's got to know something, right CI-PERS

You'd think so yeah, a person doesn't disappear off the face of the earth without somebody knowing something, I mean Christ almighty

Well I picked my brain and I know nothin right

Yep

You know...

I know...

Sometimes I...I...fuck I...get so get so pissed off at myself you know fer fer being in that place where I was. If I wasn't in there then I wouldn't have been..she wouldn't have been at the bus stop... she wouldn't have went home alone right.

CI-PERS Yep

I could kick myself in the ass so much..

She did go home though

Pardon me?

She did go home, cause all her stuff was there....

Oh sure she went home, yeah because all the lights were on, tv was on her purse was there, the money I gave her, her pot was there, ah, you know

CI-PERS Yeah

Then that was it so...either she knew somebody and left with somebody because if she didn't know em, she would have tore the house up trying to get away right?

That's right, yep

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:39:01 : Box 185 : 0402615 : 2204]

CI-PERS Or my parents or the neighbours would have figured something out...

Yep, something, yep

You know, there would have been, see what I can't see is, if she left with someone, I was talking to like, my roommate CI-PERS I was talking to him about it and I says, like if she would have left, why wouldn't she have took my pay cheque with her, the cash, there was like 500 bucks right. Why wouldn't have took that.

CI-PERS well she didn't pick up her welfare cheque either.

And if, there was like bad people taking her away, why wouldn't they have took the money that was there?

Yeah, it was sitting right there, I mean

Yeah, it was there, I mean and if it was like pimps or something, why wouldn't they have took her clothes?

Yeah, that's right

So....it's...I don't kn...I don't have a clue, I don't know anything either way, up or down, sideways, left or right...

CI-PERS Yep

You know

I know...now you can imagine what we go through here, ooh, I know

it's (inaudible) I'll tell ya

Oh, I can't even stand a relationship for more than a fuckin, like a couple weeks eh...

CI-PERS Yeah

then all of a sudden they, they, you know do they sort of clue in that I sorta still have somebody in my head and then they just, you know choked and whatever, no big deal...

Yeah

Yeah, yeah

CI-PERS So I live with fuckin, with a, with a, with a guy now, roommate and....

Oh is that right?

things are better, and, you know, I didn't have to move anyhow

Yeah that's good and he's going to help pay those bills eh?

Well, (inaudible) bucks a month for rent right

no kidding

I was in a one bedroom before and I, so I took a two bedroom, I didn't feel like moving out of the building eh

Yep, that's good, you're mom and dad are there eh

Yeah it's a lot easier...

Yep

A lot easier. Okay, well I just figured I'd call you you know...

CI-PERS well thanks for calling

I really hope you hear something you know

Oh yeah, give me a call anytime

Yeah

You know I'm still kicking around here.

yeah

We don't go to far away

No you can't

No

Well I hope she calls

Yeah, me too

Okay

Okay CI-PERS thanks for calling. Bye

MISSING PERSON

WE ATTENDED AT THE RESIDENCE OF CI-PERS AND SPOKE TO THE GIRL THOUGHT TO BE ARSENAULT. SHE IS ACTUALLY STW (B PID). SHE IS ONLY 5'4" TALL AND WEIGHS 110 LBS. HER TATTOOS DO NOT MATCH THOSE IN THE DESCRIPTION, NOR DOES SHE RESEMBLE THE PICTURE OF ARSENAULT TO ANY GREAT DEGREE. THE OWNER AND STAFF OF "J.R.'S" RESTAURANT WERE INTERVIEWED AND SHOWN ARSENAULT'S PICTURE. NONE OF THEM HAD HEARD OF HER OR RECOGNIZED HER PICTURE. J.R.'S IS AN ORDINARY RESTAURANT, NOT A STRIP CLUB. IF I CAN BE OF ANY FURTHER ASSISTANCE, PLEASE LET ME KNOW.

970211		Writer and Cst MURRAY attended the COM CI-PERS residence Apt PID We spoke at length with CI-PERS He advised that he is still on extended medical leave with the PID. He has to attend the doctor on a regular basis to supply urine samples etc to detect drug abuse. CI-PERS advises he has not heard any thing regarding Angela ARSENEAULT, and has no new information to offer. CI-PERS shows the members pictures of Angela which he still has on his living room wall. CI-PERS appears a bit nervous about our presence but is very receptive to our questions etc. He thinks there is a "hidden agenda" to us being there saying that his friends probably called us and left false information indicating that he killed "Angela" CI-PERS maintains his innocense in this investigation again stating that he passed the polygraph test I mentioned to him that he had "beat" the polygraph and was immediately corrected by CI-PERS saying that he "passed" it. He then stated "I'm not a ----ing psychopath" "If I was responsible or had any knowledge why would I stay around" I have nothing to do with it CI-PERS advised he has recently seen "undercover cops" sitting around the apartment block, and likes to sneak up on them and try and surprise them. CI-PERS will continue to keep in contact with the writer.

Re: UNIDENTIFIED INFANTS HOMICIDE, PRINCETON, B.C. 94.10.09

On October 9, 1994 at 8:00 p.m. a 16-year old camper at Allison Lake Provincial Park discovered the body of a baby in the men's pit toilet. The boy was looking for a lost hunting knife when he happened to look down the toilet and saw the body of a baby partly concealed in a garbage bag. Allison Lake Provincial Park is located 29 km. north of Princeton on Highway 5A.

Princeton RCMP responded and by 7:00 a.m. October 10 they had excavated the pit toilet with a backhoe and recovered the garbage bag. The bag was opened and not one but two bodies were discovered. The bodies were twin newborn infant girls, complete with umbilical cords and placentas attached.

Autopsies performed October 11 in Vancouver confirmed the twins were full term baby girls. No signs of disease, malformation or trauma were discovered. The pathologist believes the babies are Caucasian. Apparently it is difficult to determine the race of newborn babies. The autopsy confirmed that both babies were alive at birth and that with proper medical care would have survived. Decomposition had not yet started, therefore the bodies had to have been dumped into the toilet within days of being discovered. Princeton RCMP are treating this case as murder.

Inquiries with doctor's clinics and hospitals all over British Columbia have met with negative results. The investigation therefore has failed to reveal any suspects.

Police are specifically looking for a woman who was due to deliver twins in early October, 1994. She may or may not have been treated by a doctor during her pregnancy and she may or may not have been treated for the effects of giving birth after.

Police are also looking for the following suspicious persons or

[Evenhanded - 01E-1388 20041210 : 10:42:57 : Box 185 : 0402629 : 2204]

...icles seen in the area and as yet to be identified or ...liminated.

1. Older model white auto, round tail lights with boxes and blue strap in rear seat. Female passenger, 18-20 years old, 5'3, blonde hair, wearing smock shirt and obviously very pregnant. Male driver, white, age 20, 5'7 to 5'10, 135-140 pounds, T-shirt. Both were seen at Aspen Grove on Highway 5A north of Allison Lake on 94.10.04 between 14:00 and 16:00. Both were arguing then left southbound on 5A towards Allison Lake.

2. Newer model '80s vintage red compact car with blankets in rear window. Male driver, female passenger. Seen in area of Pike Mountain Ranch and A & P Ranch north of Allison Lake on highway 5A on October 6 between 11:00 and noon. Both male and female appeared to be on drugs and acting suspiciously and the female might be pregnant.

A search of CPIC records reveals you have an outstanding file on a missing female:

Angela Mary ARSENEAULT (77.05.20), your file 94-47424 refers.

Please review your file and attempt to determine the following:

1. Was she pregnant and due to deliver in October, 1994?
2. Could her disappearance be related in any way to our babies found in the outhouse?

Please contact Cst. R. B. KINLOCH with any questions or information.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

The family seems convinced she (Angela) is deceased and her body is in this lake.

(2) That this investigation should be turned over to the "Special Task Force" on unsolved crimes and murders

(3) That the victim boyfriend CI-PERS (PID PID) should be re-interviewed as well as the ex-room-mate CI-PERS should be re-interviewed.

Note: Writer has spoken with both these persons(s) in the last 8 months or so (See previous report's)

Writer has not heard from CI-PERS (Missing Children Society of Canada 1 800 661 6160) since they conducted there interview and visit in April 97. They were going to try to get out to Burnaby this summer to interview all involved in this investigation. This never happened.

They will be contacting CI-PERS to arrange for a interview.
980406		Received a call from CI-PERS (Grandmother of the vic/ MIS Angela ARSENEAULT) from New Brunswick. She advised that the local news cast have mentioned that Coquitlam R.C.M.P have a male in custody that could be responsible for the disappearance/murder of a woman from the New Brunswick area. She wanted to know if we (Burnaby R.C.M.P) were aware of this guy and wanted us to interview him about Angela's disappear she thinks this could all be related. She was concerned that this guy probably knew the con CI-PERS and think they are all involved. * Pet's new # is PID [redacted] at PID [redacted]
980406		Writer contacted Sgt. MOGRIDGE voice mail and advised him of the above noted concerns. Writer requested that he find out the name of the male in custody in Coquitlam.

Interview done on 981021 at 2100hrs at the CI-PERS residence

Re: Your File; Arsenault, Angela

Greg:

Further to our conversation of earlier this date. I have enclosed a short list of things that would be "nice to know the answers to" with respect to an interview with CI-PERS

We have some answers to these questions. We obtained the answers from other sourses. The answers that CI-PERS provides will then either substanciate the ones we have, or create doubt. Not that we need more doubt, however it would be nice to know what to believe, or partially believe.

(1) - Did CI-PERS and Angela come to the D-tox and pick CI-PERS up during the week and if so when and where did they go. Yes. shopping - CI-PERS saw A the day before she disappeared.

(2) - Did CI-PERS drive CI-PERS home on the Sat morning that Angela went missing. If so what did he see with respect to lights windows etc. He does not think so (he can't remember)

(3) - Did he visit CI-PERS in D-tox during the week without Angela. Yes. Twice. once with Angie.

(4) - Did he have any contact with Angela during the week that CI-PERS was in D-tox, and if so what type of contact. He coundn't say for sure. It did it was to take her shopping

(5) - How long has CI-PERS known CI-PERS and where and when did they meet. They met 88/89 at PID on Hastings

(6) - How long did CI-PERS know Angela and where did they meet. 2-3 months before disappeared

Now: Blue 86 Dodge Caravan.
Then: '77 GMC p/u truck two-tone blue

(7) - If CI-PERS Drives, what does he drive, what did he drive then.

(8) - If he does not have a vehicle or licence now, did he then. Yes. Yes

(9) - Where was he employed at that time, and where is he employed now. Then: PID (short term). Now: PID out of Bby.

(10) - Did CI-PERS contact CI-PERS after he found Angela missing and if so when and what did he say. Yes, went down so and told him she has disappeared.

(11) Just an afterthought; CI-PERS did not what to talk to us, and we do not know the reason. It could have been because CI-PERS told him not to or because he did not want to tell us anything. Or maybe it is because he does know something, he knew we were not the police. He may have tried to get some action from Angela prior to CI-PERS coming home and a problem erupted, who knows.... friends only thru CI-PERS No sexual contact of any kind. / he like her thoug

Please do not get the idea that we are trying to tell anyone how to do their job, however we are trying to piece things together and this would help tremendously.

Thanks Greg. If you have any further questions please call.

Yours truly,

CI-PERS

(12) Do you still speak with CI-PERS Yes, we spoke last week and I will give him a call later tonight

99 NOV 29	con't	CI-PERS states that "Angela" children (Hope and Jonathan) had been apprehended and placed in a foster home in Courtenay.
		CI-PERS came to know Angela and CI-PERS between March 98 and March 99. CI-PERS became quite relaxed with CI-PERS and her husband and spoke of committing Robberies in Saskatchewan. One of these robberies CI-PERS struck the attendant over the head and fled with the cash. The exact details were not available.
		After hearing this story CI-PERS broke off any further contact and told them that she wanted nothing further to do with them. They have not spoken since.
		Writer contacted the tipster CI-PERS at her home in Edmonton, Alta. PID [redacted]. She confirms the majority of her story to the Edmonton Police Service. She is absolutly positive about this person being the missing "Angela ARSENEAULT". CI-PERS advised that they recall (her son CI-PERS - the one who originally saw the missing poster) seeing the "Rose tatoo" on her ankle. This is accurate as per the original info. supplied by her mother

I attended to #PID [redacted] ths date, and spoke to CI-PERS [redacted] She was spoken to at length, and advised she was not the person in question we are looking for. I checked for tattoo's and none were present that were suspected. She voluntarily showed me these parts of her body when thre tattoo's should have been, and none matching the description were present. She readily admitted that the photo did indeed look like her. This member is satisfied that this is not the person you are looking for. Our file will be concluded. If we can be of any further assistance let me know.

Subject: Missing Person - Yvonne Boen

Margo,

We received your e-mail request about checking around Melfort for dental records pertaining to the a/n missing person.

I have conducted checks this morning at the High School and also two local dentists that would have been in practice around the time Yvonne would have been in Melfort (Early 80's). Nobody has any record of her, however, one of the local dentists advised me that there was another dentist in town at that time and that this dentist has since moved to Winnipeg. I was told that this dentist keeps all his old Melfort dental records for patients locked up in storage somewhere in Melfort.

I am writing to ask you how bad you need these records. I would be more than willing to attempt to locate this old dentist in Winnipeg and have him tell me where I can look through his old records for Melfort patients. If you would like me to do so, please reply and I will get at it. If you don'y need them that bad and don't want me to go through the trouble, that is fine too. In any event please respond at your earliest convenience to let us know.

Thanks,

Cst. Kent Lowe

Stated that she had a cast on her right foot and was beat up pretty bad. Cst. Halliday phoned Sgt. Wright at D1 to put out on mws for patrols for G.D. MWS message attached. 3rd call made by a CI-PERS at PID (work) PID (home) PID PID. Stated that she might have seen her in the trailer park but was unsure because she was not as tall as discribed and she was a lot thinner. Cst. Halliday spoke with CI-PERS and found that her discription did not match and that she thought that it was her mother that she was living with in the trailer court. Not consistant with what information Cst. Halliday has. 01-06-14, 9:58 tip through crime stoppers stated that they saw a female matching BOEN'S discription on May 11th at approx 6pm at 135st and 108th ave. Advises that brown was topless and loooke like she was high on drugs. 01-06-17 CI-PERS stated that she saw BOEN 108th and 148th by the Dairy Queen wearing purple sweater and micro mini shkirt same color. Stated that she was pretty sure she was a hooker, supertal. Email from Cst. Mitra added to file regarding this tip - he took complain from front counter of D1.

good morning dave. we have a missing female for about 3 months. she is a working girl, and a drug user. you probably saw her picture at briefing: yvonne boen 67-11-30, blonde. we have a tip line in place and yesterday we received info that she is working 101b avenue behind old yale school. the tipster said she has a cast on her foot and looks like she has been recently beaten up. during the day, could you make some cruises past this area and keep an eye out for her. old yale school is off old yale road and 132 street. 101b is due west of the school.

thanks

PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE SOUGHT IN LOCATING MISSING SURREY WOMAN

The Surrey RCMP is looking for the public's help in locating 33-year-old Yvonne Marie BOEN who has been missing since March 16, 2001.

The investigation into the missing Surrey woman has proved negative to date. According to Yvonne BOEN's common-law husband, she has gone missing for a couple of days before but never anything like this. Yvonne BOEN left her North Surrey home in March to go visit friends in the neighbourhood. After visiting her friends for a couple of hours, she was supposed to go pick up her son in Kelowna. She never did pick up her son nor has she been heard from since.

Yvonne BOEN is a drug user and frequents the area of 135th Street and 108th Avenue in Surrey. She took her purse with her but has no identification on her. A tip was received of a possible sighting of Yvonne BOEN on May 11th, 2001 in the Guildford area of Surrey.

Yvonne BOEN is described as Caucasian, 5'10" tall, 150 pounds, with blonde hair and blue eyes. A photo of BOEN is available via email by contacting Cpl. Janice Armstrong.

Anyone with information about Yvonne BOEN is asked to contact Cst. Margo Halliday of the Surrey RCMP at 599-7777 (local 3857)or call Crime Stoppers in the Lower Mainland at 669-TIPS or outside the Lower Mainland at 1-800-222-TIPS.

A. She uh phoned me up and asked me to pawn some C.D.'s at the Common Exchange, which I did.

Q. Okay and then what ?

A. I handed her the money and the pawn slip thinking she would get the pawns out and uh she said thank you and uh she gave me five dollars out of it for gas and said that she would get back to me and phone me. And then she did a couple of weeks later maybe around the nineteenth. Uh, she phoned back and asked if I could pawn them again and I couldn't. I told her no cause I didn't if it was on the up or not. And uh she said again, normal conversation, will get back to you. Take care. Love yah. See you later and I haven't heard from her since.

Q. Okay. When I phoned you today and asked if you'd seen her, you said no but you had mentioned that a woman called CI-PERS had. Who is CI-PERS?

So she, if she seen Yvonne she'd be on the up. She'd be tellin the truth. She'd be for sure knowing it was Yvonne right off the hop. It wouldn't be no mistaken identity.

Walt, re CI-PERS Her number is PID Sorry, I have a bunch of information on the same sheet. Please call her or have Mike call her.

Re: Cst. HALLIDAY's file, I have reviewed the package you sent me and have several points to be addressed:

1 - We haven't given up on dental records, have we? The dental records in Melfort, Saskatchewan may be 15 years old, but if that's all we have, let's get our hands on them.

2 - Time is dragging on. Initially, no press release was done, but it has now been close to 3 months. I think it is time to get on it. Have something sent to Janice ARMSTRONG for review and dissemmination.

3 - Have all BOEN's tattoos been documented on our CPIC Missing Person entry? If not, let's update it.

4 - Has the carnival that BOEN worked for been contacted to see if she's back with them? I see CI-PERS CI-PERS tells us third person that her boss from West Coast Amusements heard rumours she was in East Vancouver. Let's track down what exactly he knows / has heard.

5 - Has the person in Vernon where BOEN stayed the last time she went away been contacted?

6 - Have we used our GIS unit to check with Welfare contacts to see if and where she is collecting?

Please make sure you and Margo stay on top of this file. The longer she remains missing, the more concerning it becomes. Try to use creative means of getting information (MVB, Vancouver PD cell records, etc..)

1. I have reviewed the file with CST. Halliday and found that although the Master File indicated that there was an incomplete job done, I went thru her work file with her and reviewed the file. It appears that CPIC's that were forwarded to the Master File, did not make it there, or were not forwarded at all. Some 1624's have not made it to the file as of this date. In your basket, you will find a package which includes the contents of the master file, copies of CST. Halliday to investigate this matter as directed by myself.

Rick, per your voicemail on Friday, I fowarded a memo to Cpl. DONA to go through this file with Cst. HALLIDAY on Saturday morning and ensure it was brought up to date. I have received back photocopies of 1624's done up and fowarded to the master file. Work had been done, but not sent forward.

A few points of note:

- The recovered body in New West does not fit the description of this missing person. Tattoos, body size and hair colour are wrong.

- According to the mother, our missing has not been to see a dentist since high school back in Melfort Saskatchewan 16 or 17 years ago. She was a carnival worker with West Coast Amusements, so it is unknown if she even had permanent addresses for many years. I've sent direction to obtain whatever dental records may still exist in Melfort.

- A media release will be sent to Janice ARMSTRONG for review and dissemmination tonight.

- Enquiries with Welfare, VPD cells, old contacts, etc. are to be done.

I've told Walt to stay on top of this with Cst. HALLIDAY and ensure we do whatever we can to locate her.

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
02-01-20		02-01-16 Mbr received phone messages during days off regarding missing BOEN due to her name being placed in the paper linking her possibly to a murder investigation. Messages: 1. CI-PERS stating that BOEN's son had called her and stated that he was positive he saw his mother on t.v. the other night when the crack house was being shown on the news. Phone PID 2. CI-PERS stated that he has seen BOEN on 104th and King George within the last few weeks. Phone PID 3. CI-PERS stated that he was friend of CI-PERS who was the boyfriend of BOEN. Is worried about CI-PERS as well because he has not had contact with him for months and is worried that he too might be missing. Phone PID 02-01-19 Mbr phone CI-PERS and spoke with her regarding BOEN. She stated that BOEN's son called her all upset because he thought he saw her on the t.v. at the crack shack when they aired it on the news. CI-PERS also stated that a friend of a friend (unable to locate name) stated that while in the line up for welfare in Guildford the friend stated that she had seen BOEN at the end of August beginning of September at one of the Guildford crack shacks. CI-PERS is worried because BOEN always calls on her son's birthdays even if she is missing or having no contact with anyone. And she did not contact her son on his birthday at the beginning of January for his birthday. CI-PERS does not understand that if BOEN is in trouble she knows that any of the Carnies would give her a place to stay with no questions asked because they are such a tight knitted family. Furthermore when ever she went missing or was strung out on drugs before all the Carnies knew where she was and everyone kept tabs on her, however this time no one knows where she is. 02-01-19 Mbr spoke to a Cst. from Alberta who phoned stating that BOENS ex husband called to ask if BOENS body had been found and that his son was worried because he thought he saw his mother on t.v.. Cst. Halliday advised other Cst. that no body had been recovered and she was still listed as missing. No further updates at this time. 02-01-19 Mbr phoned CI-PERS (not sure of spelling of last name) left message. 02-01-20 Mbr tried getting through to BOEN'S mother CI-PERS however the number was no longer in service. 02-01-20 Mbr spoke to CI-PERS who stated that he drives the same route everyday to work at approximately 4:30/5:00 am and has seen BOEN numerous times over the last couple of years along King George Hwy and 104th to 108th. He has also seen her hanging around 135A street because he goes to that liquor store frequently. CI-PERS feels that he had seen her shortly before Christmas around the liquor store. He does not remember the exact date or time but he remembers her face because she has distinguishing features.

Walt, re: CI-PERS Her number is PID Sorry, I have a bunch of information on the same sheet. Please call her or have Mike call her.

Re: Cst. HALLIDAY's file, I have reviewed the package you sent me and have several points to be addressed:

1 - We haven't given up on dental records, have we? The dental records in Melfort, Saskatchewan may be 15 years old, but if that's all we have, let's get our hands on them.

2 - Time is dragging on. Initially, no press release was done, but it has now been close to 3 months. I think it is time to get on it. Have something sent to Janice ARMSTRONG for review and dissemmination.

3 - Have all BOEN's tattoos been documented on our CPIC Missing Person entry? If not, let's update it.

4 - Has the carnival that BOEN worked for been contacted to see if she's back with them? I see CI-PERS CI-PERS tells us third person that her boss from West Coast Amusements heard rumours she was in East Vancouver. Let's track down what exactly he knows / has heard.

5 - Has the person in Vernon where BOEN stayed the last time she went away been contacted?

6 - Have we used our GIS unit to check with Welfare contacts to see if and where she is collecting?

Please make sure you and Margo stay on top of this file. The longer she remains missing, the more concerning it becomes. Try to use creative means of getting information (MVB, Vancouver PD cell records, etc..)

Thanks

1. I have reviewed the file with CST. Halliday and found that although the Master File indicated that there was an incomplete job done, I went thru her work file with her and reviewed the file. It appears that CPIC's that were forwarded to the Master File, did not make it there, or were not forwarded at all. Some 1624's have not made it to the file as of this date. In your basket, you will find a package which includes the contents of the master file, copies of CST. Halliday's work file, and continuations to explain in detail, what had occurred in the investigation to date, and also, the further efforts of CST. Halliday to investigate this matter as directed by myself.

Rick, per your voicemail on Friday, I fowarded a memo to Cpl. DONA to go through this file with Cst. HALLIDAY on Saturday morning and ensure it was brought up to date. I have received back photocopies of 1624's done up and fowarded to the master file. Work had been done, but not sent forward.

A few points of note:

- The recovered body in New West does not fit the description of this missing person. Tattoos, body size and hair colour are wrong.

- According to the mother, our missing has not been to see a dentist since high school back in Melfort Saskatchewan 16 or 17 years ago. She was a carnival worker with West Coast Amusements, so it is unknown if she even had permanent addresses for many years. I've sent direction to obtain whatever dental records may still exist in Melfort.

- A media release will be sent to Janice ARMSTRONG for review and dissemmination tonight.

- Enquiries with Welfare, VPD cells, old contacts, etc. are to be done.

I've told Walt to stay on top of this with Cst. HALLIDAY and ensure we do whatever we can to locate her.

good morning dave. we have a missing female for about 3 months. she is a working girl, and a drug user. you probably saw her picture at briefing: yvonne boen 67-11-30, blonde. we have a tip line in place and yesterday we received info that she is working 101b avenue behind old yale school. the tipster said she has a cast on her foot and looks like she has been recently beaten up. during the day, could you make some cruises past this area and keep an eye out for her. old yale school is off old yale road and 132 street. 101b is due west of the school.

thanks

01-06-21		Cst. Halliday checked voice mail from home on 01-06-14 regarding the tips for missing BOEN.
		1st called was by a male named CI-PERS no number left stating that all he knew was that she was part of the West Coast Amusements.
		2nd call was made by an anynomous fem who believes that she saw BOEN on june 12 around 11 am on 101b in behind Old Yale Elementary School. Stated that she had a cast on her right foot and was beat up pretty bad. Cst. Halliday phoned Sgt. Wright at D1 to put out on mws for patrols for G.D. MWS message attached.
		3rd call made by a CI-PERS at PID (work) PID (home) # PID PID Stated that she might have seen her in the trailer park but was unsure because she was not as tall as discribed and she was a lot thinner. Cst. Halliday spoke with CI-PERS and found that her discription did not match and that she thought that it was her mother that she was living with in the trailer court. Not consistant with what information Cst. Halliday has.
		01-06-14, 9:58 tip through crime stoppers stated that they saw a female matching BOEN'S discription on May 11th at approx 6pm at 135st and 108th ave. Advises that brown was topless and loooke like she was high on drugs.

Subject: Missing Person - Yvonne Boen

Margo,

We received your e-mail request about checking around Melfort for dental records pertaining to the a/n missing person.

I have conducted checks this morning at the High School and also two local dentists that would have been in practice around the time Yvonne would have been in Melfort (Early 80's). Nobody has any record of her, however, one of the local dentists advised me that there was another dentist in town at that time and that this dentist has since moved to Winnipeg. I was told that this dentist keeps all his old Melfort dental records for patients locked up in storage somewhere in Melfort.

I am writing to ask you how bad you need these records. I would be more than willing to attempt to locate this old dentist in Winnipeg and have him tell me where I can look through his old records for Melfort patients. If you would like me to do so, please reply and I will get at it. If you don'y need them that bad and don't want me to go through the trouble, that is fine too. In any event please respond at your earliest convenience to let us know.

Thanks,

Cst. Kent Lowe

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
02-01-20		02-01-16 Mbr received phone messages during days off regarding missing BOEN due to her name being placed in the paper linking her possibly to a murder investigation. Messages: 1. CI-PERS stating that BOEN's son had called her and stated that he was positive he saw his mother on t.v. the other night when the crack house was being shown on the news. Phone PID 2. CI-PERS stated that he has seen BOEN on 104th and King George within the last few weeks. Phone PID 3 CI-PERS stated that he was friend of CI-PERS who was the boyfriend of BOEN. Is worried about CI-PERS as well because he has not had contact with him for months and is worried that he too might be missing. Phone PID 02-01-19 Mbr phone CI-PERS and spoke with her regarding BOEN. She stated that BOEN's son called her all upset because he thought he saw her on the t.v. at the crack shack when they aired it on the news. CI-PERS also stated that a friend of a friend (unable to locate name) stated that while in the line up for welfare in Guildford the friend stated that she had seen BOEN at the end of August beginning of September at one of the Guildford crack shacks. CI-PERS is worried because BOEN always calls on her son's birthdays even if she is missing or having no contact with anyone. And she did not contact her son on his birthday at the beginning of January for his birthday. CI-PERS does not understand that if BOEN is in trouble she knows that any of the Camies would give her a place to stay with no questions asked because they are such a tight knitted family. Furthermore when ever she went missing or was strung out on drugs before all the Camies knew where she was and everyone kept tabs on her, however this time no one knows where she is. 02-01-19 Mbr spoke to a Cst. from Alberta who phoned stating that BOENS ex husband called to ask if BOENS body had been found and that his son was worried because he thought he saw his mother on t.v.. Cst. Halliday advised other Cst. that no body had been recovered and she was still listed as missing. No further updates at this time. 02-01-19 Mbr phoned CI-PERS (not sure of spelling of last name) left message. 02-01-20 Mbr tried getting through to BOEN'S mother CI-PERS however the number was no longer in service. 02-01-20 Mbr spoke to CI-PERS who stated that he drives the same route everyday to work at approximately 4:30/5:00 am and has seen BOEN numerous times over the last couple of years along King George Hwy and 104th to 108th. He has also seen her hanging around 135A street because he goes to that liquor store frequently. CI-PERS feels that he had seen her shortly before Christmas around the liquor store. He does not remember the exact date or time but he remembers her face because she has distinguishing features.

MISSING

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
02-01-20		02-01-16 Mbr received phone messages during days off regarding missing BOEN due to her name being placed in the paper linking her possibly to a murder investigation. Messages: 1. CI-PERS stating that BOEN's son had called her and stated that he was positive he saw his mother on t.v. the other night when the crack house was being shown on the news. Phone PID 2. CI-PERS stated that he has seen BOEN on 104th and King George within the last few weeks. Phone PID 3. CI-PERS stated that he was friend of CI-PERS who was the boyfriend of BOEN. Is worried about CI-PERS as well because he has not had contact with him for months and is worried that he too might be missing. Phone PID 02-01-19 Mbr phone CI-PERS and spoke with her regarding BOEN. She stated that BOEN's son called her all upset because he thought he saw her on the t.v. at the crack shack when they aired it on the news. CI-PERS also stated that a friend of a friend (unable to locate name) stated that while in the line up for welfare in Guildford the friend stated that she had seen BOEN at the end of August beginning of September at one of the Guildford crack shacks. CI-PERS is worried because BOEN always calls on her son's birthdays even if she is missing or having no contact with anyone. And she did not contact her son on his birthday at the beginning of January for his birthday. CI-PERS does not understand that if BOEN is in trouble she knows that any of the Carnies would give her a place to stay with no questions asked because they are such a tight knitted family. Furthermore when ever she went missing or was strung out on drugs before all the Carnies knew where she was and everyone kept tabs on her, however this time no one knows where she is. 02-01-19 Mbr spoke to a Cst. from Alberta who phoned stating that BOENS ex husband called to ask if BOENS body had been found and that his son was worried because he thought he saw his mother on t.v.. Cst. Halliday advised other Cst. that no body had been recovered and she was still listed as missing. No further updates at this time. 02-01-19 Mbr phoned CI-PERS (not sure of spelling of last name) left message. 02-01-20 Mbr tried getting through to BOEN'S mother CI-PERS however the number was no longer in service. 02-01-20 Mbr spoke to CI-PERS who stated that he drives the same route everyday to work at approximately 4:30/5:00 am and has seen BOEN numerous times over the last couple of years along King George Hwy and 104th to 108th. He has also seen her hanging around 135A street because he goes to that liquor store frequently. CI-PERS feels that he had seen her shortly before Christmas around the liquor store. He does not remember the exact date or time but he remembers her face because she has distinguishing features.

- CI-PERS heard CI-PERS talking on the phone about the "crack shack" (which he later describes as the one on 108th Avenue that was taken down by the police the next day and was in the media).
- CI-PERS believes that CI-PERS was already aware that the "crack shack" was going to be taken down the next day and overheard CI-PERS stated "Well they're gonna find CI-PERS.. well that's what happens when you owe a $20 drug debt".

- CI-PERS stated that he remained in the den for the remainder of the phone call (which lasted approximately 3-5 minutes).
- When CI-PERS got off the phone he stated "Oh, good, it looks goon on a goof like him".

- On the same day that the crack shack was raided by police CI-PERS went back to the "speed house" (10600 EWRR), and overheard CI-PERS and STW talking about the girl who had been dumped in the river. He again states that she was killed over a $20 drug debt.
-CI-PERS also refers to a girl who was tortured in the basement of the "crack shack".
- During this conversation CI-PERS states that CI-PERS stated that he didn't care that CI-PERS had been found in the back yard. (He states that this conversation occurred in the living room of the "speed shack".

-CI-PERS was told that if he did not come back to the "speed shack" that he too would be in the back yard and that he should bring his own shovel.

-CI-PERS had been living at the residence located at PID PID but was evicted on January 17th, 2002 for failure to pay his rent.
- he was told by an acquaintance from that residence that someone had come to the house looking for him but that he was already gone by that point.

RE: BORHAVEN, Andrea Fay (72 01 10)
Report of Missing Person

Due to the recent coverage on BCTV news, I thought it would be appropriate to advise your department that BORHAVEN's mother, CI-PERS has reported her missing to our detachment. CI-PERS lives in the PID area and states that BORHAVEN has been living in the Lower Mainland for the last nine years as a "street person" and believes she has been working as a prostitute in the Vancouver area.

Usually, BORHAVEN contacts her mother every few months, unfortunately; it has been two years since CI-PERS last contact with BORHAVEN. Due to BORHAVEN's lifestyle, she is worried some harm has come to her daughter.

Recent checks on CPIC indicate there are two outstanding warrants for BORHAVEN, one for PSP dated 96 12 04 and the other for theft under dated 97 03 10. As well, she has numerous entries on our PIRS system in the Lower Mainland area.

Social Services has also been contacted and they state BORHAVEN's file was closed in June of 1997. They have had no contact with her since.

BORHAVEN has been added to CPIC as missing. Additionally, BORHAVEN's dental record has been added.

If you require any further information regarding BORHAVEN please contact Cst. T. FINN of 'D' Watch.

Tanya,

I've entered the dental records on RPC. Sorry you were looking for them. I was holding on to them because I had to talk to the dentist for more info. & they only work a few days during the week. Anyway it's done now & here's your file.

We don't need the X-rays on file. They can go back to the dentist.

Thanks
Helena

He also has never threatened her in any way during the last nine years. They do have a daughter together who the courts awarded to his brother several years ago. He advised that POI2305 has been staying at the Chilliwack Halfway house for the last 10 months. POI2305 has a curfew of 11:00 pm and has put in for full parole. According to CI-PERS POI2305 has been doing good following all the programs. Cpl. ATTEW asked if he had ever discussed CHINOOK. He had mentioned her name but that was about all. Cpl ATTEW set up a date next week 2001-11-20 to attend the parole office and speak with POI2305 directly. It should also be noted that thus far POI2305 has not missed curfew or breached any of his conditions. Please Extend D.D For 3 months

01-10-25		Cpl. ATTEW contacted CHINOOK'S mother in Cranbrook to see if she had any further details on the male named POI2305 She provided the following: -CHINOOK dated POI2305 several years ago and was a witness in a murder charge against him approx. 8 years ago. - CHINOOK was very scared of him and had heard he was going to be released around the time she went missing. - CHINNOK has a baby with POI2305 who was giving to POI2305 sister by the ministry due to her drug problems. - POI2305 sister lives somewhere in Vancouver. - It is unknown if POI2305 has had any contact with CHINOOK since he was incarcerated. - It is unknown if POI2305 got out of jail yet. - CHINOOK'S feels that CI-PERS PID might have more information on POI2305 Cpl. ATTEW did some PIRS checks and located the homicide file out of Kimberley where POI2305 (PID) was charged for 1st degree murder and CHINOOK was a witness file #1991- 1827. Cpl. ATTEW has placed a call to corrections to find out if POI2305 has been released.

Re: Heather CHINOOK 70-01-10

Dave, on 2001-10-21 at 0550 hrs I spoke to a local prostitute, STW7930 B=PID of PID

She states that she knew the a/n and had seen her at a "friends" house 2-3 months ago. STW7930 stated that she did not know CHINOOK personally and just knew that CHINOOK was young. was unaware of the current whereabouts of CHINOOK, or any reason anyone would want to bring harm to her.

STW7930 was unable to provide details of "friend's house."

Hope this helps.

01-10-01	1430 hrs	Cpl. ATTEW was assigned this file of a missing person. On review of the file Cpl. ATTEW spoke to Cpl. CROSS to see if there was any further information. Cpl. CROSS had received a phone call from POI2302 who is the ex- boyfriend of missing CHINNOCK. Apparently POI2302 might have some information about CHINNOCK. His number is PID ex PID Cpl. ATTEW called POI2302 who stated that CHINNOCK could have been involved in the crack shack but he could not say for sure if this was linked to her being missing. CHINNOCK had also talked about moving to the USA but he does not feel she would have done this without letting someone know. POI2302 also discussed another ex boyfriend only known to him as POI2305 that was serving time for murder but recently would have gotten out. He felt that POI2305 had made threats towards CHINNOCK in the past about killing her. Cpl. ATTEW asked if POI2302 knew of any items like hair brushes, toothbrushes that might belong to CHINNOCK. This would be used to obtain possible D.N.A. for comparison to the Project ENERVATE file. POI2302 did not know of any but did remember that CHINNOCK had been at Royal Columbia Hospital in the last couple of years for a car accident. POI2302 felt that a male named CI-PERS who is currently out of town might have more information about CHINNOCK. POI2302 is good friends with CI-PERS and will get him to call when he returns.

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
01.09.28	1000 hrs	Received a telephone call from Det. Jim McKnight (Vcr City Police) pgr. 205-0910, who is presently attached to the Missing East End Women Task Force (numerous prostitutes who have been reported missing from Vancouver). He has an interest in this file as Chinook is a known prostitute who is missing. I verbally reviewed the file with him advising that she was last seen in Surrey and it appears that she was actively involved with the drug sub-culture of Surrey. McKnight advised that their task force will be having a meeting with the families of all the missing women on Oct 14 @ 1300 hrs at the Delta River Inn in Richmond. The purpose of this meeting is to allow the families to meet the investigators and basically assure them that the police are actively investigating the disappearance of the women. McKnight requested a contact name and number for Chinooks parents which was provided (mother CI-PERS who resides in PID ph. PID . The status of our file was discussed and the writer concurred with CI-PERS being contacted and invited to the meeting on Oct 14th. READERS Due to the nature of this investigation Cpl. Ken,
Hello, how's it going? Well I hope. Enough chit chat (haha).

I'm actually writing about a file I know you've reviewed (see above). I spoke to Pete Cross about it two weeks ago and he agreed it was a file that should be deemed serious enough to be dealt with by GIS rather than little ole me on gd. Pete told me to give him a copy and he would take care of it. Well the original was on your desk and Pete informed me he had spoken to Mel Trekofski about it and told me it will be taken care of.

From this I have made the assumption that GI will be taking care of this serious missing persons file. I am writing to confirm this information. Please advise at your convenience.

PS. Have I told you and Pete how smart and intelligent and handsome you guys are? And you too of course Bill and Garth!!!

Subject / Objet: CHINNOCK--- Missing Person

1. Reviewed file, after having been told of its existence by Cst BERNIER, and then Sgt SCHINKEL.

2. Writer reviewed file for the purpose of seeing whether it relates to PROJECT ENERVATE, currently being worked on by the writer.

3. The following was noted, and some of these issues have already been pointed out by Sgt SCHINKEL etc:
a)clearly there is a strong indication that CHINNOCK's disappearance is the result of foul play.
b)there are some very obvious avenues of investigation which should be pursued as soon as possible.
c)there are some file names in this case which have appeared on PROJECT ENERVATE including; POI2306 POI[redacted] and POI[redacted] However they are in our file in a secondary level of interest, in that they are players in the prostitution/drug world of Whalley.
d)'POI[redacted], POI[redacted] is the only person appearing on the file, who is at the suspect level in PROJECT ENERVATE.

4. It is not believed at this time that CHINNOCK's disappearance relates in any direct evidentiary sense with our ongoing investigation. It is possible that we may uncover evidence or information relating to parties in this file, and we have opened another "tip" relating to this file.

5. File being returned for further assignment.

01-07-21 (SAT.)		As requested by Sgt. WRIGHT, I met with Cst. BERNIER and we discussed the recent Crimestoppers information and the investigation in general. Gursh was already aware of most of the info. in the Crimestoppers tip. We agreed that she should take the following investigational steps: 1. index POI2306 2. make enquiries with POI_ [redacted] etc. on POI2306 and to further identify POI_ and POI_ 3. check with Surrey Drug Section and CIS to see if they have any intelligence on the house and residents 4. confirm with MSSH that they have an alert on their computer system so that we will be notified immediately if they have any contact with CHINNOOK. Also confirm that they would be notified if she applied for benefits in Alta. or another province 5. since CHINNOOK was born in USA check with her mother as to any connections she may have in the USA, and her citizenship, passports, etc. 6. send info. and photo of CHINNOOK to vice squads such as Vancouver PD, New West PD, Edmonton PD 7. as foul play may be involved, request that Surrey GIS interview the 2 men who live in the house where CHINNOOK was last seen, and who were the last people known to have seen her. Or perhaps GIS may want to take over this investigation. C.C. Sgt. Ken SCHINKEL

cont'd		CPIC has been sent to Edmonton City Police, Calgary Police Service and Vancouver Police Department of a BOLF and info forwarded if found of the above individuals. It appears that POI2306 may be involved due to her close association with POI who in turn was seen going out with missing CHINOOK. Also of interest is POI who has disappeared from his last known lodging at approximately the same time as CHINOOK. The complainant believes ex-boyfriend POI2302 and ex-roommate POI may have crucial knowledge of CHINOOK's whereabouts etc. If street crew or serious crime comes in contact with any of these individuals, please take a moment and ask them about the missing if appropriate. Due to the seriousness of the investigation especially as it suggests CHINOOK may be kidnapped or murdered, and as it appears to be spanning numerous jurisdictions, writer asks that Serious Crimes section take over the investigation or at least the interviews. Garth,

I received a message on my voicemail yesterday morning (RTO) from CI-PERS of PID phone # PID He indicated that he had seen the press release and had some important information about this MIS and wanted a call back ASAP. I called the residence this morning and spoke with his common-law wife, CI-PERS

CHINNOCK lived at her residence off and on when she was dating their roommate. CI-PERS is CI-PERS PID Aliases include CI-PERS , CI-PERS , CI-PERS ...He was CHINNOCK's boyfriend before PO12303 CI-PERS advised that when CI-PERS and CHINNOCK were together, they would have major all out fights but she kept coming back to him. When other relationships failed, CHINNOCK always returned to him. CI-PERS believes that if anyone knows where CHINNOCK is, it would be him.

Last known address that CI-PERS can recall for CI-PERS is Room # PID or # PID , PID PID

I checked CARMS and note that Cst. BERNIER is away for a couple of weeks. I am not familiar with the file and I am forwarding this for your information in the event that you wish to assign a member for some follow up in her absence.

Surrey woman missing since April 15

Tom ZYTARUK
Staff Reporter

Surrey RCMP are still looking for a 30-year-old local woman who's been missing since April 15.

The woman, Heather Gabrielle Chinnock, was last seen by her boyfriend on that date when she left her home in Whalley after an argument. She didn't take any belongings with her, nor has she picked up her welfare cheques since. She's white, about five foot three inches tall and 140 pounds. She has green eyes and brown hair. Anyone with any idea of her whereabouts is asked to contact Const. Gursharn Bernierof at 599-7777 or Crime Stoppers at 669-TIPS.

Police are looking for two teens who were seen running from Green Timbers elementary school at 2:30 a.m. Saturday.

Surrey RCMP Cpl. Janice Armstrong said some 60 windows had been smashed at the school, causing about $5,000 damage.

Surrey firefighters knocked down a house fire in the 10300-block of 170A Street on Monday afternoon, but not before it burned the roof off. No one was hurt in the fire, which Fire Capt. Marc Berube said is believed to have occurred as the result of the "careless discard of a cigarette."

CHINNOCK is a part-time prostitute, a drug user and a chronic alcoholic. She was kicked out of her residence at Easter after having a verbal argument with her ex-boyfriend. She rented a room at PID [redacted] and all occupants were present at time of leaving. CHINNOCK drunk at the time and she took no belongings with her says her ex-boyfriend POI2303 [redacted] and landlord CI-PERS [redacted]

CHINNOCK has a two and a half year old son in the care of the Ministry of Children and Families (with POI2303 [redacted] but has not been in contact with them since Novemeber 2000. CHINNOCK has not spoken to her mother who lives in PID [redacted] since after Christmas 2000, when she called asking for money.

All of CHINNOCK's acqaintances deny knowledge of her whereabouts. CHINNOCK has not picked up her welfare cheque since April 2001 and her account was closed May 11, 2001.

There are two Delta files where Cst. SANSRAGRET carded CHINNOCK but CHINNOCK was NFA. These entries were in February and March of this year.

CHINNOCK's friend in Vancouver, CI-PERS [redacted] the complainant claims CHINNOCK has been in contact with him nearly everyday up until mid April and he is very worried.

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
2001-0620		Writer received information from CI-PERS a mcf worker, who passed on missing's mother's name. CI-PERS of PID PID
		CHINNOCK last spoke to her financial worker (#140) of the Scotsview Income Assistance ofc @ 9360 120 St. on March 16, 2001. It was confirmed closed on May 11,2001 due to no pick up.
		After numerous attempts, contact was made. Writer spoke to CI-PERS who said she has dental records and said the last time she spoke to CHINNOCK was just after Christmas (about six months ago). She said CHINNOCK is a drug addict, a prostitute and a very bad alcoholic and was concerned when told CHINNOCK has not been picking up her welfare cheques, that it was very unlike CHINNOCK to not pick up money. Due to this CI-PERS is concerned CHINNOCK may have come into contact with foul play.
		CI-PERS advised that the last time she spoke to CHINNOCK she had been living with a CI-PERS CI-PERS at the back of PID oh PID No answer at this number so far.
		Another number given to writer by mcf was of a friend of heather's at PID When called there, it sounded like a drug house and nobody there knew anybody by the name of Heather when writer called as a friend looking for her.
		CI-PERS will forward CHINNOCK's most recent photo to writer through Cranbrook RCMP.
		CPIC updated.
		GIS will be notified due to the seriousness of the complaint.

SUBJECT:

CHINNOCK, Heather c/o Missing person

ACTION TAKEN:

2001-61304

CI-PERS attended District 1 office to report that he has been in recent contact with heather CHINNOCK's ex boyfriend POI2303 told CI-PERS he has had no contact with CHINNOCK for a few weeks.

Writer attempted to contact POI2303 without success. CI-PERS had called Surrey RCMP a few weeks back to report his ex fiancee was not calling him any more. This complaint was made and it sounded like CI-PERS bothered CHINNOCK who did not want to have anything to do with him. A neighbour at CHINNOCK's last address told writer CHINNOCK was seen leaving with her clothing packed in a cab. x-ref 2001-45936.

Writer checked with MCF as CI-PERS just disclosed CHINNOCK had a child and gave writer POI2303 name. Checks with MCF indicate POI2303 visit's with his 2 and a half year old son at the ministry 10757 138 every Weds between 0930 and 1130 hrs. Writer will meet with him tomorrow. POI2303 also has information on missing's mother and a contact name and number.

MCF advised writer CHINNOCK has not picked up her welfare cheque in April which is why when she did not pick it up in May her account was closed. This information is disturbing as CHINNOCK lives off her income assistance cheque and due her not picking it upt, CHINNOCK will be added to CPIC as missing and further follow up will be done.

Cst. Sansragret of Delta Police was the last police officer to speak to her and that was in March of this year. Writer spoke to him and he denied any further knowledge of her whereabouts except that she was always drunk and on heroin, and had nfa. SANSRAGRET will put a bolf for CHINNOCK's whereabouts in DELTA and will update writer.

2001-10-25	0900hrs	The following names were run through "E" Division Human Source Unit to see if any of them may have had any recent activity Serena ABOTSWAY, Negative Andrea JOESBURY, Negative Patricia JOHNSON, Negative Jennifer FURMINGER, Negative Debra JONES, Negative Heather CHINNOCK Negative Dawn CREY, some activity back in the early 80's involving a murder in Abbotsford where she apparently was present when two individuals stated that they had hot capped a female in the Abbbotsford area for a non payment of a drug debt. It would appear that this would have little to do with this investigation.

Heather CHINNOCK
Missing Sex Trade Worker

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
2001-11-01	14030hrs	CHINNOCK, Heather (B:70-11-10)

This file was reported and investigated by Surrey Det. Serious Crime, Cpl Dave ATTEW. 2001SRY33639.

Through his enquires it was felt that CHINNOCK did most of her street sex trade work in Surrey but was known to frequent the DTES. If low on money to purchase heroin and/or crack she would ply her trade where ever convenient.

CHINNOCK failed to pick up her May 2001 welfare cheque and other provincial and territorial enquiries were negative.

CPIC, PIRS and RMS enquires after the day she was last seen were negative.

While CHINNOCK was not exclusive to the DTES there is sufficient information to totally rule her out as missing from that area. To that end i feel that she is still missing and should be place on the list of missing women from the DTES.

CHINNOCK, Heather
Missing S.T.W.
Surrey File # 01-61304

DATE	TIME HEURE	ACTION TAKEN - MESURES PRISES
2001-10-10	1330hrs	Det. JARVIS and writer attended to Surrey Det. And spoke with the investigator of their missing file, Cpl. Dave ATTEW. CHINNOCK had been reported missing by her boyfriend CI-PERS on 2001-06-19. Between CI-PERS and CHINNOCK's ex-husband POI2302 POI2302 they had not seen nor heard from her since 2001-04-01. This file was initially investigated by Cst. BERNIER who had done some very preliminary work but very little detail. Cpl Pete CROSS of Surrey Serious Crime had uncovered some information that CHINNOCK may have been murdered in Whalley but no conclusive evidence had been uncovered. To that end the file was reassigned to Cpl. Dave ATTEW who is now doing some work on it. In conversation with Cpl. ATTEW he advised that from his preliminary investigation he had not found any strong ties to the Downtown Eastside (DTES). There is no doubt that CHINNOCK had been t here at times but she is a well know S.T.W. in the Whalley area. Cpl. ATTEW is continuing his investigation but feels that there is little to connect her with the subjects of the "Evenhanded" probe. It is felt by both Det. JARVIS and the writer that CHINNOCK does not belong on the list of missing S.T.W.'s from the DTES. If during the course of Cpl. ATTEW's investigation there is reason to believe that she has strong connection to the DTES and may have been missing from that area, this tip will be reopened. Until such time we feel that she should be removed from the active "Evenhanded" list
